Mr. Deutsch's annual base salary was $700,000 until the expiration of the fixed term of his employment agreement with the Company on December 31, 2003. Pursuant to the terms of that agreement, Mr. Deutsch's employment is continuing on a month-to-month basis. Retirement Plans

CNA sponsors funded, tax-qualified retirement plans for salaried employees, including executive officers (the Qualified Plans) and unfunded, non-qualified equalization plans (the Non-Qualified Plans) which provide for accruals and contributions not available under the tax -qualified plans. The following description of the Qualified Plans also gives effect to the Non-Qualified Plans. The Qualified Plans and the Non-Qualified Plans both include defined contribution plans and defined benefit plans. The qualified and non-qualified defined contribution plans are the CNA Savings and Capital Accumulation Plan (the SES-CAP), respectively. The qualified and non-qualified defined benefit plans are the CNA Retirement Plan and the CNA Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan (the SERP), respectively.

Prior to 2000, the CNA Retirement Plan provided a normal retirement pension equal to 2% of a participant s final average compensation times the participant s first 25 years of service, plus .6667% of the participant s final average compensation times his or her next 15 years of participation, with the total reduced by 1.4% of the participant s social security benefit times the participant s first 35 years of service. Final average compensation is the highest average monthly compensation paid in a 60 consecutive-calendar-month period during a participant s entire employment history. Compensation includes regular base salary, overtime, incentive and performance bonuses, paid sales incentives and tax-deferred contributions, up to the eligible amounts under current Internal Revenue Service guidelines.

Table of Contents

In 2000, the CNA Retirement Plan was amended and employees who were employed at December 31, 1999 and were still employed on April 24, 2000 were required to make a choice regarding their future accruals in this plan. Employees were given two choices: (1) to continue earning additional benefits under the formula described above, or (2) to convert the present value of their accrued benefit as of December 31, 1999 to an accrued pension account, which is credited with interest at a rate based on 30 year treasury securities.

Employees who elected to forego earning additional benefits in the CNA Retirement Plan and all employees hired by Continental Casualty Company on or after January 1, 2000 receive an annual basic Company contribution to the S-CAP of 3% or 5% of their eligible compensation, depending on their age. In addition, these employees are eligible to receive discretionary annual performance contributions of up to 2% of eligible compensation and an additional Company match of up to 80% of the first 6% of salary contributed by the employee. The basic, performance and additional Company matching contributions are referred to herein as Enhanced S-CAP. All eligible employees, regardless of their choice, are entitled to a 70% Company matching contribution to the S-CAP on the first 6% of eligible compensation contributed by the employee. The Company matching contribution rates for employees during the first year of service are 50% of the foregoing.

All salary amounts and annual cash incentive compensation amounts are considered eligible compensation for purposes of the CNA Retirement Plan, the SERP, and for basic and performance contributions to the S-CAP and SES-CAP. Only salary is considered eligible compensation for purposes of Company matching contributions to the S-CAP and SES-CAP.

Messrs. Deutsch and Kantor chose to continue to accrue benefits under the CNA Retirement Plan and SERP. Messrs. Lewis, Lilienthal, and McGinnis are all participants in the Enhanced S-CAP and SES-CAP.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Certain Executive Officers

The Board of Directors believes that the success of the Company and its subsidiaries is dependent upon the quality of management, and that compensation programs are important in attracting and retaining individuals of superior ability and motivating their efforts on behalf of the Company and its business interests.

Under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, unless classified as qualified performance-based compensation , the amount of compensation deductible for federal income tax purposes which is paid by a publicly-held corporation to its CEO and certain highly compensated officers during any year is limited to $1,000,000 per person.

To the extent the Company s compensation policy can be implemented in a manner that maximizes the deductibility of compensation paid by the Company, the Board of Directors seeks to do so, subject to the Company s contractual obligations to executives in particular cases. Accordingly, in February 2000 the Company amended (and subsequently approved by the Stockholders) the existing annual and long-term compensation plans and merged them into an omnibus plan renamed as the CNA Financial Corporation 2000 Incentive Compensation Plan (the Incentive Compensation Plan), which covers annual, corporate long-term cash and share-related compensation for the Executive Officers of the Company. It is designed to qualify the amounts paid from time to time thereunder to certain of the Company s officers as qualified performance-based compensation under Section 162(m) of the Code.

General

The Company s compensation program is designed to recognize individual performance and contribution to CNA. This pay-for-performance philosophy is used to reward employees whose work meets or exceeds CNA s standards of quality and value-added customer service. It is CNA s objective to have a compensation policy that is internally equitable and externally competitive, rewards executives for long term strategic management, supports a performance-oriented environment that stresses attainment of corporate goals and individual expectations, and attracts and retains key executives critical to the Company s long term success.

The Incentive Compensation Committee (ICC) of the Board of Directors of the Company reviewed the compensation for Messrs. Lilienthal, Deutsch, Lewis, Kantor and McGinnis. The Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of the CNA insurance companies reviewed the compensation for all other Executive Officers. They are assisted in developing and evaluating the overall competitiveness of the compensation program by the Company s Human Resources staff, which is supported by an independent nationally recognized compensation consulting organization. Comparative compensation information regarding the Company s competitor group of companies is evaluated each year. The competitor group consists of companies within the property/casualty insurance industry, which includes two of the three companies in the Standard & Poor s Multi-Line Insurance Index (see Stock Price Performance Graph below). These companies represent the organizations against which CNA competes for key executives. This comparative compensation information, in conjunction with performance judgments as to past and expected future contributions of the individual, is used to develop annual compensation levels. In 2003, the Executive Officers were provided total compensation opportunities that approximated a minimum of the 50th percentile of total compensation opportunities for comparable individuals at the Company s competitor group.

Under the Incentive Compensation Plan, the annual incentive cash compensation awards for the Executive Officers are determined by performance compared to preset quantifiable financial goals approved by the ICC. The annual incentive opportunity is based, among other factors, on comparative market compensation data as described above. Final approval of annual incentive cash compensation payments is made by the ICC. The Company reserves the right to make discretionary changes to the award amounts and reserves the right to eliminate these bonuses, uniformly, due to adverse financial conditions, except where specified in contracts. In determining the annual incentive cash compensation awards for 2003, the ICC evaluated Company and business unit performance and individual performance against the pre-set goals categories and other performance measures where necessary. Based upon this evaluation, the 2003 bonuses ranged from 110% to 254% of the incentive targets for the Executive Officers.

The base salary of the Company s Chief Executive Officer was established pursuant to the employment agreement negotiated between the Company and the Chief Executive Officer. See Employment Agreements, above. The annual base compensation is $950,000, subject to discretionary adjustments by the Company s Incentive Compensation Committee (ICC). In addition, Mr. Lilienthal is entitled to earn annual incentive cash awards under the Incentive Compensation Plan as well as certain long-term incentive awards in the form of annual stock option grants, all subject to approval and adjustment by the ICC. For the 2003 performance period, Mr. Lilienthal earned $1,900,000 under the Incentive Compensation Plan.

By the Incentive Compensation Committee: Don M. Randel and Marvin Zonis (Chairperson).

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

Mr. Lilienthal, a Director of the Company, also serves as an officer of the Company and its subsidiaries.

CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS

Loews makes available to CNA the services of certain officers and executives of Loews. In February 1975 CNA entered into a management services agreement (the Services Agreement) with Loews which provides that Loews will make available to CNA these services, together with general corporate services, including financial, administrative and management consulting services. Loews is reimbursed on the basis of an allocation of a portion of the salaries and related payroll taxes and benefits of the officers and executives performing the services, in addition to travel and similar expenses incurred. The allocation may be adjusted in the event of any substantial change in the services performed and the Services Agreement may be terminated by CNA or Loews on the last day of any month. The Services Agreement has been reviewed each year since 1975 by CNA s Audit Committee. The last such review took place in February 2004 and the Audit Committee recommended renewal of the Services Agreement for the ensuing fiscal year, calling for a reimbursement allocation of approximately $210,000 per month, which recommendation was accepted by the Board of Directors. Under the Services Agreement CNA reimbursed Loews $2,520,000 for services performed during 2003, and $70,024 for travel and similar expenses incurred during 2003. Also during 2003, Loews or its subsidiaries paid premiums on insurance and administrative services to the CNA insurance companies at standard rates aggregating approximately $3,704,484.

The Loews ownership of the voting securities of CNA has exceeded 80% since 1980 requiring the inclusion of CNA and its eligible subsidiaries in the consolidated federal income tax returns filed by Loews. Accordingly, following approval by CNA s Audit Committee and Board of Directors, CNA and Loews entered into a tax allocation agreement that provides that CNA will (i) be paid by Loews the amount, if any, by which the Loews consolidated federal income tax liability is reduced by virtue of the inclusion of CNA and its subsidiaries in the Loews consolidated federal income tax return, or (ii) pay to Loews an amount, if any, equal to the federal income tax that would have been payable by CNA, if CNA and its subsidiaries had filed a separate consolidated return. In the event that Loews should have a net operating loss in the future computed on the basis of filing a separate consolidated tax return without CNA and its eligible subsidiaries, CNA may be required to repay tax recoveries previously received from Loews. This agreement may be cancelled by CNA or Loews upon thirty days prior written notice. In 2003, the inclusion of CNA and its eligible subsidiaries in the consolidated federal income tax return of Loews resulted in a decrease in the federal income tax liability for Loews. Accordingly, Loews has paid or will pay approximately $734,000,000 to CNA for 2003 under the tax allocation agreement.

CNA has also reimbursed to Loews or paid directly approximately $18,056,502 for expenses (consisting primarily of salaries and benefits and other out-of-pocket costs) incurred or owed by Loews during 2003 in maintaining investment facilities and services for CNA.

In November of 2003 the Company and its principal insurance subsidiary, Continental Casualty Company (CCC), entered into a Capital Support Agreement and related Guaranty Agreement (collectively the Support Agreements) with Loews, the 90% owner of CNA s outstanding shares. The Support Agreements provided for the sale in November of 2003 of $750 million of a new series of CNA preferred stock to Loews, and a commitment from Loews for additional capital support of up to $500 million by February 27, 2004 through the purchase of surplus notes of CCC, CNA s principal insurance subsidiary, in the event certain additions to CCC s statutory capital were not achieved through asset sales. The preferred stock is convertible into 32,327,015 shares of the Company s common stock. In addition, Loews committed up to an additional $150 million by March 31, 2004, in a form to be determined, to support the statutory capital of CCC in the event of additional shortfalls in relation to business and asset sales.

After consideration of the increase in CCC s statutory surplus resulting from the sale of the Company s Group Benefits business, Loews purchased a $46 million CCC surplus note under the Support Agreements in February of 2004. In addition, the sale of CNA s individual life business is expected to result in an addition to CCC s statutory surplus in excess of $400 million. However, the sale of the individual life business was not consummated by February 26, 2004. As a result, under the Support Agreements Loews purchased an additional $300 million CCC surplus note in February of 2004. Following the consummation of the individual life sale, CNA plans to seek approval from the relevant insurance regulatory authority for the repayment of the surplus note purchased in relation to such sale, although it is not certain that sale of the individual life business will be consummated or that the required regulatory approval will be obtained.

The Company has entered into a credit agreement with a large national contractor that undertakes projects for the construction of government and private facilities to provide an $86.4 million credit facility. CNA Surety Corporation has provided significant surety bond protection for projects by this contractor through surety bonds underwritten by affiliates of the Company. Loews and the Company have entered into a participation agreement, pursuant to which Loews has purchased a participation interest in one-third of the loans and commitments under the credit facility, on a dollar-for-dollar basis, up to a maximum of $25 million. At the time of filing of this Proxy Statement Loews participation was at the maximum level under the participation agreement. Although Loews does not have rights against the contractor directly under the participation agreement, it shares recoveries under the facility proportionally with the Company. Under the participation agreement, Loews also receives twenty-five percent of a closing fee from the contractor in the amount of $900,000, half of which was paid at closing and half of which is due to be paid when the credit facility matures.

Each of Messrs. Hengesbaugh, Deutsch and Kantor took a loan from the Company to assist him with the purchase of Common Stock under the terms of the Stock Ownership Plan. The loans were taken out at various times in 1998 and 1999 and the term of each loan is 10 years. Messrs. Hengesbaugh s and Kantor s loans are unconditional with full recourse against the maker. Mr. Deutsch s loan is non-recourse and is secured by additional collateral. As of December 31, 2003, the outstanding amounts of the loans were as follows: Mr. Hengesbaugh, $20,539,185, Mr. Kantor, $990,551 and Mr. Deutsch, $4,837,981. Mr. Kantor s loan was pre-paid in full in March of 2004, pursuant to the sale of Company stock he purchased in relation to the loan as noted above.

RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS (Proposal No. 2)

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors has selected Deloitte & Touche LLP to serve as independent auditors for 2004. Although it is not required to do so, the Board of Directors wishes to submit the selection of Deloitte & Touche LLP for ratification by the Company s shareholders at the meeting. Even if this selection is ratified by shareholders at the Annual Meeting, the Audit Committee may in its discretion change the appointment at any time during the year if it determines that such a change would be in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders. If the Company s shareholders do not ratify the selection of Deloitte & Touche LLP, the Audit Committee will reconsider its selection. Representatives of Deloitte & Touche LLP are expected to be at the Annual Meeting to answer appropriate questions and, if they choose to do so, to make a statement.

For the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, professional services were performed by Deloitte & Touche LLP, the member firms of Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu, and their respective affiliates (collectively, Deloitte), which includes Deloitte Consulting.
