Resignation and Transition of Current General Counsel

On December 31, 2015, Richard Hornstein gave Quotient Technology Inc. (“Quotient”) notice of his decision to resign as General Counsel, Chief Legal Officer, Compliance Officer, VP of Corporate Development and Secretary, effective as of December 31, 2015 11:59:59PM PT. In connection with his resignation, Mr. Hornstein entered into a transition agreement (the “Transition Agreement”) with Quotient on January 4, 2016 pursuant to which Mr. Hornstein will continue to remain employed through March 31, 2016, and thereafter will provide services to Quotient as a special advisor up to March 31, 2019 pursuant to the Transition Agreement.

The Transition Agreement provides that (i) until March 31, 2016 (the “Employment Transition Date”) Mr. Hornstein will continue to be employed by Quotient; (ii) Mr. Hornstein will be eligible to receive his 2015 annual bonus; (iii) Mr. Hornstein is eligible for COBRA payments for twelve (12) months following the Employment Transition Date; (iv) for up to three (3) years following Employment Transition Date (the “Transition Term”), Mr. Hornstein will serve as a special advisor to Quotient and will be eligible to receive compensation up to an aggregate of $414,000 in the form of equal monthly installments during the Transition Term (the “Advisory Payment”); and (v) Mr. Hornstein’s outstanding equity awards will continue to vest during the Transition Term subject to certain conditions as set forth in the Transition Agreement. The Transition Agreement also provides that upon early termination of the Transition Agreement by Quotient (other than for certain breaches of the Transition Agreement) Mr. Hornstein will be entitled to any unpaid portion of the Advisory Payment and accelerated vesting of any outstanding equity awards. The Transition Agreement sets forth certain non-solicitation obligations and contains a general release from Mr. Hornstein in favor of Quotient.

The foregoing summary does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the Transition Agreement, which will be filed with the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2015.

Appointment of New General Counsel

Effective January 1, 2016, Connie Chen, Quotient’s current Senior Director of Legal Affairs, was promoted to the position of General Counsel, Compliance Officer and Secretary. Prior to joining Quotient in 2013, Ms. Chen spent nearly a decade at Rambus Inc., a semiconductor and IP product development company, where she served as vice president, litigation & deputy general counsel. She has also held positions at the law firm of Morrison & Foerster LLP and at WebMD, where she served as assistant general counsel. Ms. Chen received her A.B. from Stanford University, where she graduated with distinction. She holds her juris doctorate from Stanford Law School.
