and announced by the Company on March 21, 2003.

The Amended Offer is for US$1.30 per GigaMedia share and the directors of the Company are required to respond by the end of the business day, Taipei, Taiwan time, on June 20, 2003 whether they are agreeable to continue discussions with the Management Group. In the event that they do not revert by that date, the Management Group is entitled to treat all discussions on the Amended Offer as having been terminated. The Amended Offer would be structured as a scheme of arrangement under Singapore law whereby the Company would return capital and cancel all outstanding shares in the Company other than those held by the Management Group, either directly or through a separate legal entity formed by them.

Terms of the proposed transaction include the following conditions: (a) the negotiation and execution of a definitive agreement and other related agreements mutually acceptable in form and substance to the Company and the Management Group and/or the separate legal entity formed by them; (b) the scheme of arrangement being sanctioned and approved by a court of competent jurisdiction in Singapore; (c) disclosure documents complying with Rule 13e-3 of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act being filed and approved by the U.S. Securities Exchange Commission; (d) the obtaining of an opinion from the Company's independent financial advisor that the transaction is fair to GigaMedia's shareholders; (e) the receipt of any necessary consents from third parties and the making of any necessary foreign or domestic governmental filings, and the expiration of any specified waiting periods thereunder without challenge; and (f) the Amended Offer being accepted by GigaMedia's shareholders (i) holding not less than 75% of GigaMedia's outstanding shares, and (ii) representing a majority in number of members present; in each case, present and voting at a duly called shareholders' meeting that fulfills the quorum requirements under Singapore law and the Company's constituting documents to ratify the transaction.

The Amended Offer is based upon discussions between the Management Group, the special committee of GigaMedia's board of directors and each party's respective financial advisors, as well as a careful review of the financial status of the Company.

The directors of GigaMedia wish to highlight that there is no assurance that the management buyout offer will actually proceed.
