Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

On May 3, 2005, the Board of Directors of Direct General Corporation appointed Tammy R. Adair as President of Direct General Corporation. William C. Adair, who previously held the post of President, will continue as Direct's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. The Direct Board believes that Ms. Adair's appointment will support and strengthen the management and leadership of Direct.

Ms. Adair, 41, joined Direct in 2002 as Executive Vice President. Ms. Tammy Adair is the daughter of William C. Adair, Jr. and the step-daughter of Jacqueline C. Adair. Jacqueline C. Adair is a director and Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Direct.

Ms. Adair entered into an employment agreement with Direct in 2003 and it provides in pertinent part that we will employ her for a period of five years commencing on August 15, 2003, the closing date of our initial public offering. We will pay Ms. Adair an annual base salary of at least $200,000, plus a discretionary bonus as may be determined by the Compensation Committee, in its sole discretion, based on her performance, our business and financial condition and operating results achieved.

We may terminate Ms. Adair's employment for cause, including (a) failure or refusal to materially perform her duties under the employment agreement; (b) failure or refusal to follow material lawful directions of the Board; (c) engaging in any misconduct which materially and demonstrably injures us; (d) conviction of any felony; or (e) fraudulent or dishonest conduct. In addition, either party to the employment agreement may terminate the agreement at any time without cause. Ms. Adair may terminate her agreement for good reason, including (a) the assignment of any duties inconsistent with her status as an executive officer; (b) reduction in annual base salary or failure to include her in any stock option or equity-based benefit plan; (c) relocation of her principal place of employment to a location more than 50 miles away; or (d) any material breach by us of our obligations under the employment agreement. However, if we terminate her agreement other than for cause or if she resigns for good reason, she will be entitled to continue receiving her salary and benefits for two years, and all stock options will immediately vest. Ms. Adair has agreed not to compete with us or solicit our employees for a period of two years following certain events of termination.

In 2002, prior to the Company's initial public offering, several of our subsidiaries paid an aggregate of approximately $1.4 million for various legal services, to an association of lawyers in which Tammy R. Adair held an ownership interest at that time. In addition, during 2002, this association of lawyers collected $4.1 million for us, of which sum it retained $1.4 million. Also, Direct Administration, Inc., one of our subsidiaries, leased property to this association of lawyers over the same period for an aggregate of $15,500 in 2002. Ms. Tammy Adair has not been a member of this association since August 2002, and she no longer has an ownership interest in the firm. In exchange for her former ownership interest, her former law firm issued her a promissory note in the principal amount of approximately $0.4 million, at an annual interest rate of 7.25%. The note was payable in monthly installments, matured in December 2004 and no further payments are payable to Ms. Tammy Adair under the note.

In 2004, 2003 and 2002, two of our insurance subsidiaries paid Mid-South Collision, LLC approximately $0.9 million, $0.9 million and $0.8 million, respectively, for automobile body work. Mid-South Collision is owned by
