Section 2 – Financial InformationItem 2.02. Results of Operations and Financial Condition.

On October 30, 2015, Howard Bancorp, Inc., the parent company of Howard Bank, issued a press release relating to its results of operations for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015. A copy of the release is furnished herewith as Exhibit 99.1.

To provide investors and others with additional information regarding its results, Howard Bancorp has disclosed in the attached press release pre-tax income excluding the impact of one-time non-recurring charges, which is a non-GAAP financial measure (i.e. not prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of American (“GAAP”). These one-time non-recurring charges relate to charges incurred in connection with recent acquisitions. A reconciliation of the adjustments to GAAP results for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015 and 2014 is provided below. As it excludes charges that are not reflective of ongoing operations, Howard Bancorp’s management believes that the presentation of pre-tax net income excluding one-time non-recurring charges is useful to investors because it presents the results of Howard Bancorp’s ongoing business operations. As a result, management believes that presentation of this information helps investors in understanding and evaluating Howard Bancorp’s financial results, operating trends and future prospectus, as well as in comparing Howard Bancorp’s financial results across accounting periods and to those of peer companies.

In addition to the purposes discussed above, Howard Bancorp management uses net income excluding non-time non-recurring charges as a basis for planning and forecasting future periods, to evaluate Howard Bancorp’s operating performance, including whether our operating performance has met specified targets and thresholds.

This non-GAAP financial measure should be considered in addition to, not as a substitute for, superior to or in isolation from, pre-tax income prepared in accordance with GAAP.
