(e) On August 22, 2011, J. C. Penney Company, Inc. (the “Company”) and Myron E. Ullman, III, Chairman and CEO of the Company, entered into a Transition Services Agreement (the “Agreement”) pursuant to which Mr. Ullman agrees to provide services to the Company in connection with the transition of his responsibilities as CEO to Ronald B. Johnson. In addition, Mr. Ullman agrees to be subject to certain restrictive covenants for an 18-month period following his retirement from the Company, including with respect to confidentiality, nonsolicitation of employees, noninterference with business relations and noncompetition. In exchange for these agreements, Mr. Ullman will receive transition services compensation in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Agreement. The transition services compensation includes a time-based restricted stock unit award valued at $5,000,000, a lump sum cash payment of $10,100,000, a cash payment equal to the fair value of his unvested stock options that would otherwise be forfeited as of his retirement date and accelerated vesting of his unvested restricted stock units that would otherwise be forfeited as of his retirement date. Under the Agreement, Mr. Ullman will also continue to receive his current base salary through his retirement date and will receive his incentive compensation for the 2011 fiscal year, payable at the target amount of $1,875,000, upon his retirement from the Company. Mr. Ullman will continue to be entitled to his accrued benefits under the Company’s employee benefit plans and policies in which he participates.

A copy of the Agreement is filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1. The foregoing description of the Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Agreement, which is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
