ISS supports voce CAPITAL's call for change at intevac

Recommends Shareholders Elect Voce Nominees Marc C. Giles and J. Daniel Plants

SAN FRANCISCO – May 1, 2014 – Voce Capital Management LLC (“Voce”) announced today that Institutional Shareholder Services (ISS), a leading independent proxy advisory firm, has recommended shareholders elect Voce nominees Marc C. Giles and J. Daniel Plants at the annual shareholder meeting of Intevac, Inc. (“Intevac” or the “Company”) (Nasdaq:IVAC) on May 14, 2014.

In its report, ISS stated that in spite of recent reactive initiatives by Intevac, “Intevac’s long history of poor capital allocation...suggests further change is needed” and that Intevac’s performance “begs the question of how well the incumbents' experience and skills truly fit the company's needs.” ISS further expresses its view that shareholders would be best served by “nominees who have developed and presented that case for change rather than the board which has overseen this long underperformance.”

In recommending the election of Mr. Giles and Mr. Plants, ISS supported its recommendation with the following arguments for Voce’s nominees:

§ “Giles has significant experience running a public company [that] like Intevac, was a micro conglomerate in need of cost discipline and strategic focus.”

§ “Plants brings deep financial and capital markets acumen, which has resulted in 4 previous activist successes which § generated significant shareholder return...[H]is experience evaluating and monetizing alternatives should prove valuable to the board.”

J. Daniel Plants, Voce’s Managing Partner, stated: “We are gratified to see that ISS shares our view that further changes are needed at Intevac and supports the election of two of our nominees to the Board. Of course, we continue to believe that our third nominee, Joseph V. Lash, would bring additional experience and skills to the Board and encourage shareholders to vote for all three of our nominees.”

ISS specifically recommended that shareholders vote on the GOLD proxy card and that they not vote on the management card. Voce continues to urge shareholders to support all three of its highly-qualified, independent nominees by voting the GOLD proxy card.
