Item 8.01. Other Events

The registrant, Unitrin, Inc. (the "Company" or "Unitrin") issued a press release on June 28, 2011, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.01, announcing its preliminary estimate of catastrophe losses from severe storms during the month of May. The Company estimates second quarter earnings will include approximately $20 million in pre-tax catastrophe losses related to the May storm activity. Amounts recoverable through reinsurance are estimated to be immaterial.

The Company also announced that it has refined its estimate of its April catastrophe losses and believes the ultimate losses will be approximately $65 million, the lower end of its previously announced range.

This report contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements give expectations or forecasts of future events or outcomes and can be identified by the fact that they do not relate strictly to historical or current facts. These statements are based on our estimates and assumptions that involve a number of risks and uncertainties that are difficult to predict. These statements are not guarantees of future performance; actual results could differ materially from those expressed or implied in the forward-looking statements, and can be affected by inaccurate assumptions or by known or unknown risks and uncertainties. No assurances can be given that the results contemplated in any forward-looking statements will be achieved. Accordingly, readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such statements, which speak only as of the date of this report. The Company assumes no obligation to publicly correct or update any forward-looking statements as a result of events or developments subsequent to the date of this report. The reader is advised, however, to consult any further disclosures the Company makes on related subjects in its filings with the SEC, as well as risk factors and other information included in the Company's most recent Form 10-K and 10-Q reports.
