Ryanair adds 15th route to the

Frankfurt-Hahn Base

Frankfurt, 04.12.2002: Ryanair, Europe's only low fares carrier, today announced the 15th route from their base in Frankfurt-Hahn. A new daily service from Frankfurt-Hahn to Gothenburg in Sweden, which will begin service on February 6th 2003. The announcement comes only weeks after Ryanair revealed plans to base two further aircraft at Frankfurt-Hahn with four new routes to Rome ( Ciampino), Bologna ( Forli), Stockholm (Skavsta ) and Girona Barcelona. These new routes commence service tomorrow.

The fares on the Gothenburg route are however no surprise, starting at Euro

29,99. The fares offer an astounding 96% reduction compared with other carriers in the market:

Ryanair is building on the huge success of its route network from Frankfurt-Hahn. Almost 1 million passengers have already travelled on our most established German route Frankfurt-London since Ryanair's market entry in April 1999. With capacity increasing from tomorrow from 4 times to 6 times daily on this route, Ryanair expects to gain over 20% of the total market share on this route. From tomorrow, Ryanair will serve a total of 14 destinations, with 22 departures daily to 5 European countries from Frankfurt-Hahn. This will increase to 15 destinations in 6 countries from February. Ryanair today disclosed the phenomenal success of its Hahn route network with average load factors well in excess of 80% for November.

Commenting on the new route announcement today in Frankfurt, Ryanair CEO Michael O'Leary said:

"We are delighted to be able to announce a 15th route from Frankfurt-Hahn. We expect the route to Gothenburg to be particularly successful - we already fly over 50% of all passengers between London and Gothenburg, beating the Star Alliance's SAS hands down. The fares on routes between Germany and Scandinavia are particularly exorbitant as the Star Alliance simply carves up the market between itself. Those days are over! With two routes already from Frankfurt to Scandinavia Ryanair will quickly gain market share, bringing amazing low fare opportunities for the first time ever to this market Ryanair continues to deliver consistent growth and ever lower fares in Europe. Ryanair is currently in negotiations with over 40 European airports for growth next year; among them are 8 German airports. We expect substantial growth in the German market next year based on our success to date, and look forward to bringing even more low fares to the German consumer."
