BRITISH ENERGY PLC
CHIEF NUCLEAR OFFICER APPOINTED

Edgar Filing: BRITISH ENERGY PLC - Form 6-K

British Energy is pleased to announce the appointment of Roy Anderson as Chief Nuclear Officer. In this role, he will be responsible for the operation of British Energy's fleet of eight UK Nuclear Power Generation Stations. Mr Anderson will be a member of the Executive Committee reporting to CEO Mike Alexander. He will join British Energy on 5th July 2004.

Mr Anderson is currently President of PSEG Nuclear in the US where he is responsible for all nuclear production. He was previously Chief Nuclear Officer of Nuclear Management Company and prior to that of Florida Power Corporation. His earlier career spanned Caroline Power & Light Company, Boston Edison Company and General Electric Company. He has a degree in Marine & Nuclear Engineering and an MBA in Operation Research.

Mike Alexander, Chief Executive of British Energy, said:

"Roy has significant experience of nuclear turnarounds and his experience will be invaluable to British Energy as we progress the Performance Improvement Programme. He joins at an important time in the restructuring of the Company".

Mr Anderson commented:

"The challenge at British Energy is an exciting one, and I am pleased to be joining the Company at this time. I believe that British Energy staff are committed and professional and I look forward to leading them through this period of change".

David Gilchrist, currently Managing Director, British Energy generation subsidiaries, will take on the new group wide position of Technical Director which will strengthen the technical and operational involvement in key regulatory and commercial support areas across British Energy. Mr Gilchrist will take up this new role on 5th July 2004.
