PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As previously disclosed, the registrant has been performing a review of its accounting practices for its fiscal years 2002 and fiscal 2003. Riverstone is attempting to conclude its review of its accounting practices and issue the restatements for previously reported periods promptly, but it presently cannot state with any certainty when this will occur.

The registrant plans to file its Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended February 28, 2004, due on May 13, 2004, as soon as practicable, but does not currently expect that the Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended February 28, 2004 will be filed on or before the fifteenth day following the required filing date as prescribed in Rule 12b-25.

As previously disclosed, the registrant has received a request from the Securities and Exchange Commission for the voluntary production of certain information in connection with the registrant s accounting practices. As previously announced, the registrant has been informed that the SEC has issued a formal order of investigation in connection with the matters which were the subject of the request for information. The registrant is fully cooperating with the SEC.

Safe Harbor Statement Under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995: Except for the historical information contained herein, the matters set forth in this Form 12b-25, including the registrant s expectations as to the timing of any restatement and the filing of its Form 10-K, are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements speak only as of the date hereof and are subject to risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to differ materially. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, the results and effect of the accounting practices review, changes in the scope and nature of, and the outcome of, the SEC investigation regarding the registrant s accounting practices, the ability of the registrant to file its periodic reports, whether the registrant s outstanding convertible notes are subject to accelerated repayment under the terms of the indenture governing the notes, the impact of any such repayment on the registrant or its business and related litigation, the impact of the restatement on the registrant s financial results, and the risks detailed from time to time in the registrant s periodic reports filed under the Exchange Act, including its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the period ended November 30, 2002 and amended current report on Form 8-K/A dated August 27, 2003. The registrant disclaims any intent or obligation to update or revise any forward looking statements.
