SUMMARY

This summary highlights selected information from this proxy statement about the proposed merger and may not contain all of the information that is important to you as a Commercial Federal stockholder. Accordingly, we encourage you to read carefully this entire document, including the appendices, and the other documents to which we refer you.

What You Will Receive if the Merger Is Completed (page 30)

If we complete the merger, you will receive $34.00 in cash for each share of our common stock that you hold. We will also declare and pay a special dividend of $.50 per share to stockholders of record immediately prior to the completion of the merger. No interest will be paid on the cash merger consideration or the special dividend. Upon completion of the merger, stockholders will no longer have any interest in either Commercial Federal or Bank of the West.

Receipt of Merger Consideration and the Special Dividend Will Be Taxable for Federal Income Tax Purposes (page 24)

The receipt of cash in the merger and from the special dividend by holders of our common stock will be taxable transactions for federal income tax purposes (and may also be taxable transactions under applicable state, local, foreign and other tax laws). Please refer to the section entitled THE MERGER Material Federal Income Tax Consequences on pages 24 through 25 of this proxy statement for a more detailed explanation of the material federal income tax consequences of the merger and the special dividend. We urge you to consult your own tax advisors to determine the particular tax consequences to you (including the application and effect of any state, local or foreign income and other tax laws) of the receipt of cash in the merger and from the special dividend.

Your board of directors has determined, by a unanimous vote, that the merger agreement and the merger are advisable, fair to and in the best interests of Commercial Federal and our stockholders, and has unanimously approved and adopted the merger agreement and the merger. Our board of directors recommends that you vote FOR approval and adoption of the merger agreement at the special meeting.

Reasons for the Merger (page 12)

We are proposing the merger for the reasons described on pages 12 through 13, including among other things:

the cash merger price of $34.00 per share together with the $.50 per share pursuant to the special dividend represents a premium of 33% over the closing price of our common stock on June 13, 2005, the last trading day prior to the public announcement of the merger agreement, and a premium of 37% over the average price of Commercial Federal common stock for the 30 trading days prior to June the merger consideration consists solely of cash, and is not subject to any financing conditions; and we believe that the regulatory and stockholder approvals needed to complete the merger are obtainable.

Sandler O Neill & Partners, L.P. and Merrill Lynch & Co., Inc. Have Each Provided an Opinion to the Commercial Federal Board of Directors that the Total Per Share Consideration, $34.00 Per Share Paid in the Merger and the Special Dividend of $0.50 Per Share, Was Fair from a Financial Point of View to Commercial Federal Stockholders (page 13, Appendix B and Appendix C)

Sandler O Neill & Partners, L.P. and Merrill Lynch & Co., Inc. have each given opinions to our board of directors that, as of June 13, 2005 (the date the merger agreement was executed) and based upon and subject to the assumptions, conditions, limitations and other matters set forth in the opinions, the total per share consideration to be paid to the holders of our common stock, consisting of the $34.00 in cash per share to be received by the holders of our common stock pursuant to the merger and the $.50 to be received by the holders of our common stock pursuant to the special dividend, was fair from a financial point of view to the holders of our common stock. We include the full text of the Sandler O'Neill written opinion in Appendix B and the full text of the Merrill Lynch written opinion in Appendix C attached to this proxy statement. We urge you to read each of these opinions carefully and in their entirety.

Conditions to the Merger and Expected Timing (page 38)

The completion of the merger depends on a number of conditions being satisfied or waived, including approval of the merger agreement by the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Commercial Federal common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting, as well as receipt of regulatory approvals. We have also agreed with Bank of the West that the completion of the merger will not occur before December 2, 2005 unless the parties otherwise agree.

We currently expect to complete the merger late in the fourth quarter of 2005, but we cannot be certain when or if the conditions will be satisfied or waived.

The Merger Agreement May Be Terminated under Some Circumstances (page 39)

We and Bank of the West may agree in writing to terminate the merger agreement at any time without completing the merger, even after our stockholders approve it.

In addition, either we or Bank of the West may terminate the merger agreement without the consent of the other if:

the merger agreement is not approved by our stockholders at the special meeting;

any law or regulation is enacted that prohibits consummation of the merger, or any governmental entity of competent jurisdiction issues a final nonappealable order prohibiting the merger;

any governmental entity that must grant a required regulatory approval has denied approval of the merger and such denial has become final and nonappealable;

the merger is not completed on or before March 31, 2006; or the other party breaches any of its representations, warranties or covenants, which breach would result in the failure of the applicable conditions to completion of the merger, and the breach is not, or cannot be, cured within 60 days.

Bank of the West may terminate the merger agreement without our consent if:

our board of directors fails to recommend adoption of the merger agreement at the special meeting or withdraws or modifies or qualifies its recommendation for adoption of the merger agreement in a manner which is adverse to Bank of the West;

our board of directors recommends to our stockholders any competing transaction by a third party or fails to recommend against a competing transaction; or if we breach in any material respect our obligation to comply with the provisions of the merger agreement relating to the non-solicitation of competing transaction proposals or in responding to unsolicited competing transaction proposals.

We may terminate the merger agreement without Bank of the West's consent if our board of directors authorizes us to enter into an agreement with respect to a competing transaction; provided that:

our board of directors complies with the provisions of the merger agreement relating to the non-solicitation of competing transaction proposals and in responding to unsolicited competing transaction proposals;

our board of directors, after consultation with a financial advisor of nationally recognized reputation in similar transactions, reasonably determines in good faith that the competing transaction is a superior proposal;

our board of directors has reasonably determined in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that the failure to exercise its right to terminate the merger agreement would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law; and we pay a termination fee to Bank of the West.

We May Be Obligated to Pay Bank of the West a Termination Fee under Some Circumstances (page 40)

We must pay Bank of the West a termination fee of $40 million if:

Bank of the West terminates the merger agreement because we have materially breached any of our obligations with respect to the non-solicitation of third-party offers or in responding to unsolicited third-party offers, or we have recommended a competing transaction or failed to recommend against a competing transaction within the time frame in which we are required to do so;

either party terminates the agreement after the stockholders fail to approve the merger agreement, and between the date of the merger agreement and the date of the special meeting, a competing transaction has been publicly announced, and within 12 months of termination, we enter into an agreement with a third party that constitutes a competing transaction; or we terminate the merger agreement in order to enter into an agreement providing for a competing transaction proposal.

In addition, if:

either party terminates the merger agreement because an applicable closing condition is not satisfied by March 31, 2006 (unless the terminating party's material noncompliance with an obligation is the cause of that failure) or Bank of the West terminates the merger agreement due to our breach of our representations, warranties or covenants that cannot be cured and our breach causes a failure of a condition to Bank of the West's obligation to close, and:

- (1) at any time after the date of the merger agreement and before the termination, a competing transaction has been announced or communicated to our board; and
- (2) following that announcement, we intentionally breach our obligations under the merger agreement (which breach materially contributed to the failure of the completion of the merger to occur prior to the March 31, 2006); then we must pay one-half of the termination fee ($20 million) on the next business day following termination, and, if we enter into a competing transaction in the next 12 months following termination, we must pay Bank of the West the other half of the termination fee (an additional $20 million) at that time.

Our Directors and Executive Officers Have Financial Interests in the Merger that Are Different from Your Interests (page 26)

Our executive officers and directors have financial interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of our stockholders. These interests include:

the rights of some of the Commercial Federal executive officers who are currently party to employment agreements with Commercial Federal or current participants in Commercial Federal plans to receive severance payments and/or benefits after the merger, which rights may be revised in connection with the merger;

the rights of the Commercial Federal executive officers and directors in respect of outstanding stock options and compensatory stock unit awards under the Commercial

Federal equity-based plans, which options and awards will vest and be cancelled upon completion of the merger in exchange for consideration based on the $34.00 per share merger price;

the rights of holders of stock options and compensatory stock unit awards under the Commercial Federal equity-based plans to receive a special retention bonus of $.50 per award; and a consulting agreement between William A. Fitzgerald and Bank of the West that provides him with payments for consulting services.

The aggregate amount of cash severance payable to the executive officers, as a group, assuming that the merger is completed as of December 2, 2005 and each executive officer's employment is terminated by Commercial Federal immediately thereafter is approximately $17,898,584. The aggregate amount payable to the directors and executive officers, as a group, with respect to their equity-based compensation awards, based on their holdings as of August 16, 2005 and assuming that the merger is completed as of December 2, 2005 is approximately $25,834,124.

Also, following completion of the merger, Bank of the West will indemnify and provide directors' and officers' insurance for the directors and officers of Commercial Federal for customary events occurring at or prior to the merger, including those that are related to the merger agreement.

Structure of the Merger (page 10)

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Bank of the West will merge with and into Commercial Federal. Immediately following the merger, Commercial Federal, as the surviving company, will merge with and into Bank of the West and, immediately following that merger, Commercial Federal's subsidiary Commercial Federal Bank, a Federal Savings Bank, will merge with and into Bank of the West. Bank of the West will be the sole surviving company as a result of these mergers. In this proxy statement we refer to the merger of Bear Merger Co., Inc. with and into Commercial Federal as the merger, and the subsequent mergers of Commercial Federal with and into Bank of the West and Commercial Federal Bank with and into Bank of the West as the subsequent mergers.

Regulatory Matters (page 25)

We and the other parties to the merger agreement have agreed to use our reasonable best efforts to obtain all regulatory approvals and provide all notices necessary, proper or advisable to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. These approvals include the approval of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the California Department of Financial Institutions, a waiver letter from the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, and various required notices, including notices to the Office of Thrift Supervision and to certain state regulatory authorities and self-regulatory organizations. The filing of these applications and notices has been, or will promptly be, completed. Although we do not know of any reason why these regulatory approvals cannot be obtained in a timely manner, we cannot be certain when or if they will be obtained or what conditions these approvals might include.

Commercial Federal Stockholders Do Not Have Appraisal Rights in the Merger (page 41)

Under Nebraska law, you have no appraisal rights.

THE SPECIAL MEETING

The Proposal

This proxy statement is being furnished to Commercial Federal stockholders in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Commercial Federal board of directors for use at a special meeting to be held at the [], [], on [], [] [], 2005, at [] a.m. Central time. The purpose of the special meeting is for you to consider and vote upon a proposal to adopt and approve the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of June 13, 2005, by and among Commercial Federal, Bank of the West, and Bear Merger Co., Inc., which provides for the merger of Bear Merger Co. with and into Commercial Federal. Following this merger, Commercial Federal will merge with and into Bank of the West and, following that merger, Commercial Federal's subsidiary Commercial Federal Bank, a Federal Savings Bank, will merge with and into Bank of the West. Bank of the West will be the sole surviving company as a result of these mergers. A copy of the merger agreement is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement. This proxy statement and the enclosed form of proxy are first being mailed to Commercial Federal stockholders on or about [] [], 2005. You also will be asked to vote on a proposal to approve the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in the event that there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the merger proposal. In this proxy statement, we refer to the merger of Bear Merger Co. with and into Commercial Federal as the merger, and the subsequent mergers of Commercial Federal with and into Bank of the West and Commercial Federal Bank with and into Bank of the West as the subsequent mergers.

Record Date and Voting

The holders of record of Commercial Federal common stock as of the close of business on the record date, which was [] [], 2005, are entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting. On the record date, there were [] shares of Commercial Federal common stock outstanding.

The holders of a majority of the shares of Commercial Federal common stock that were outstanding on the record date, represented in person or by proxy, will constitute a quorum for purposes of the special meeting. A quorum is necessary to hold the special meeting. Any shares of Commercial Federal common stock held in treasury by Commercial Federal or by any of its subsidiaries are not considered to be outstanding for purposes of determining a quorum. In accordance with Nebraska law, abstentions and properly executed broker non-votes will be counted as shares present and entitled to vote for the purposes of determining a quorum. Broker non-votes result when the beneficial owners of shares of common stock do not provide specific voting instructions to their brokers. Under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange, brokers are precluded from exercising their voting discretion with respect to the approval of non-routine matters such as the merger proposal, and, thus, absent specific instructions from the beneficial owner of those shares, brokers are not empowered to vote the shares with respect to the approval of those proposals.

Required Vote

Each share of Commercial Federal common stock that was outstanding on the record date entitles the holder to one vote at the special meeting. Completion of the merger requires the adoption and approval of the merger agreement by the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Commercial Federal common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. Because the vote is based on the number of shares of Commercial Federal common stock outstanding rather than on the number of votes cast, failure to vote your shares (including as a result of broker non-votes), and votes to abstain, are effectively votes against the merger. The proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in the event that there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve and adopt the merger agreement requires the approval of the majority of shares present at the special meeting, in person or by proxy, whether or not a quorum is present.

by attending the special meeting and voting in person by ballot.

Edgar Filing: COMMERCIAL FEDERAL CORP - Form PRER14A

If you do not hold your shares of Commercial Federal common stock in your own name, you may revoke or change a previously given proxy by following the instructions provided by the bank, brokerage firm, nominee or other party that is the registered owner of the shares.

Commercial Federal will pay the costs of soliciting proxies for the special meeting. Our officers, directors and employees may solicit proxies by telephone and facsimile, by mail, on the Internet or in person. However, they will not be paid any additional amounts for soliciting proxies. THE MERGER

Background of the Merger

The Commercial Federal board of directors, together with Commercial Federal management, has periodically reviewed and discussed Commercial Federal's business, strategic direction, performance and prospects in the context of developments in the financial services industry and the competitive landscape in the markets in which Commercial Federal operates and elsewhere. The Commercial Federal board of directors has also at times discussed various potential strategic alternatives involving possible acquisitions or other business combinations. In this regard, the management of Commercial Federal has from time to time communicated informally with representatives of other financial institutions regarding industry trends and issues, their respective companies' strategic direction and the potential benefits and issues arising from potential business combinations or other strategic transactions.

In February, 2005, Don McGrath, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Bank of the West, contacted William Fitzgerald, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Commercial Federal, and suggested that he and Mr. Fitzgerald meet to discuss developments in the banking industry. In early March, 2005, in response to Mr. McGrath's request, Mr. Fitzgerald and Mr. McGrath met and Mr. McGrath expressed Bank of the West's interest in expanding further into the Midwest, including by way of a potential transaction with Commercial Federal. However, in view of the fact that Commercial Federal was engaged at that time in a comprehensive process to exit its mortgage loan servicing and wholesale mortgage loan origination businesses, Mr. Fitzgerald indicated that any further discussions would have to follow the completion of these restructuring efforts.

On April 19, 2005, Mr. Fitzgerald received a letter from Mr. McGrath, indicating that Bank of the West continued to believe in the possibility of a compelling transaction with Commercial Federal, and had engaged Morgan Stanley to help them with a possible transaction. Also on that day, Mr. McGrath spoke with Mr. Fitzgerald and indicated that Bank of the West was interested in engaging in further discussions regarding a potential transaction, including with respect to matters relating to the potential fit between the companies, the potential strategic benefits that a transaction might offer and the possible terms of a transaction. In view of the fact that Bank of the West is a subsidiary of a non-U.S. financial institution without publicly traded common stock, the transaction would of necessity be an all-cash transaction, and Mr. McGrath indicated that Bank of the West would be willing to agree to a potential per share transaction valuation as high as the low thirties depending upon the results of due diligence. Mr. Fitzgerald informed Mr. McGrath that this range of valuation was not sufficiently compelling, but indicated that Commercial Federal would be willing to consider a transaction reflecting a higher valuation for Commercial Federal.

Following this discussion, Bank of the West and Commercial Federal and their respective financial advisors had further discussions regarding a potential transaction. These discussions covered a range of issues, including further discussions regarding the potential fit of the two companies within the Midwest, the opportunities for the combined organization to expand the product offerings to customers and to increase the relative scale of their operations, as well as further discussions around potential transaction valuations. Mr. Fitzgerald periodically updated the Commercial Federal board of directors' executive committee regarding the discussions with Bank of the West.

On May 3, 2005, representatives for Commercial Federal contacted representatives for Bank of the West and suggested that if Bank of the West continued to have an interest in a potential transaction, Bank of the West might consider updating its intentions prior to Commercial Federal's upcoming board meeting on May 9, 2005. On May 5, 2005, representatives for Bank of the West communicated to representatives for Commercial Federal that Bank of the West might be willing to offer as much as $33.50 per share in a potential transaction.

On May 9, 2005, the Commercial Federal board met with its advisors and management to review and discuss information relating to the status of the communications with Bank of the West, the business, operations and financial condition of Commercial Federal, and the possibility of other strategic alternatives. The discussion of strategic alternatives, which the Commercial Federal board had periodically reviewed at prior meetings, included the possibility of business combinations involving Commercial Federal and other financial institutions, as well as the possibility of remaining an independent institution. In view of the knowledge of the Board, management and its advisors regarding the current environment and Commercial Federal's business, operations, financial condition and prospects, and informed in part by the fact that Commercial Federal had from time to time communicated informally with representatives of other financial institutions regarding their respective companies' strategic direction and the possibility of strategic combinations, the Board determined that a transaction such as that being proposed by Bank of the West could provide the best means of maximizing Commercial Federal stockholder value. The board further determined that controlled, one-off negotiations with Bank of the West presented the best means to effect a transaction at the highest value obtainable for Commercial Federal stockholders, and that a formal auction process would not be in the best interests of Commercial Federal. Accordingly, the Commercial Federal board authorized management to continue discussions with Bank of the West, and directed management to keep the executive committee of the board apprised of developments.

During the last two weeks of May, Mr. Fitzgerald and Mr. McGrath, as well as other members of management and the two companies' respective financial advisors, had a further conversations to discuss the potential combination, transaction valuations and the necessary due diligence investigation of Commercial Federal. Mr. McGrath indicated that it was possible that Bank of the West could increase its offer, but that it was his view that further price discussions should take place supported by an on-site due diligence examination of Commercial Federal. Both sides agreed to move forward with due diligence and, on June 2, 2005, the parties entered into a customary confidentiality agreement. On June 4 and 5 the members of management of Bank of the West met with Commercial Federal management to conduct on-site due diligence. Shortly following the completion of this diligence, Mr. McGrath and Mr. Fitzgerald tentatively agreed that they would be willing to recommend to their boards of directors proceeding with a transaction in which Commercial Federal's stockholders would receive cash merger consideration of $34.00 per Commercial Federal share, as well as a special one-time cash dividend of $0.50 per share. In addition, the parties and their outside counsel began drafting and negotiating the terms of the merger agreement and the related transaction documents, including a proposed consulting agreement between Bank of the West and Mr. Fitzgerald.

On June 13, 2005, the Commercial Federal board of directors held a special meeting. Mr. Fitzgerald and other members of senior management updated the Commercial Federal board of directors regarding the discussions with Bank of the West, and, together with Commercial Federal's financial and legal advisors, reviewed with the board of directors the terms of the proposed transaction with Bank of the West in light of the board's prior discussions.

Sandler O'Neill and Merrill Lynch, the financial advisors to Commercial Federal, then discussed a range of matters, including the amount and form of the merger consideration, the structure of the transaction, business and financial information regarding the parties, Commercial Federal's historical stock price performance, valuation methodologies and analyses and the other matters set forth under Opinion of Commercial Federal's Financial Advisors. After this discussion, Sandler O'Neill and Merrill Lynch each rendered to the Commercial Federal board of directors its respective opinion that, as of the date of the special meeting and based upon and subject to the considerations described in their opinions, the proposed $34.00 cash merger consideration, together with the $.50 to be received by the holders of our common stock pursuant to the special dividend, was fair, from a financial point of view, to holders of Commercial Federal common stock. Representatives of Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz, then discussed with the Commercial Federal board of directors matters relating to the proposed merger, including the legal standards applicable to its decisions and actions with respect to the proposed transactions, the legal terms of the proposed merger and matters related to the employees of Commercial Federal, anticipated transaction timing and other transaction-related matters.

Following these presentations, the Commercial Federal board meeting continued with discussions and questions among the members of the Commercial Federal board, management and Commercial Federal's legal and financial advisors. These discussions included the consideration by the Commercial Federal board of the factors set forth under Commercial Federal's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the Commercial Federal Board of Directors that supported the transaction, including the fact that the merger consideration and the special $0.50 per share cash dividend represented a substantial premium over recent market prices, that the transaction was not subject to any financing contingencies and that, although there could be no assurances, there was a high degree of certainty of completion of the merger. The board considered these factors in light of the negative factors set forth under Commercial Federal's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the Commercial Federal Board of Directors, including the fact that the Commercial Federal stockholders would not have an interest in the institution surviving the merger and that the merger consideration would be taxable to the Commercial Federal stockholders. The board also considered the interests of the officers and directors described under Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger that are in addition to and different from their interests as Commercial Federal stockholders. Following this discussion, the Commercial Federal board of directors determined that the proposed merger with Bank of the West was advisable and in the best interests of Commercial Federal and its stockholders, and unanimously approved and adopted the merger agreement.

Following approval of the Commercial Federal board, in the evening on June 13, the parties executed the definitive transaction agreements and publicly announced the transaction by joint press release.

Commercial Federal's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the Commercial Federal Board of Directors

The Commercial Federal board of directors reviewed and discussed the transaction with Commercial Federal's management and its financial and legal advisors in determining that the merger is fair to, and in the best interests of, Commercial Federal and our stockholders. In reaching its conclusion to approve and adopt the merger agreement, the Commercial Federal board of directors considered the following factors as generally supporting its decision to enter into the merger agreement:

the Commercial Federal board of directors' understanding of our business, operations, management, financial condition, earnings and prospects, which helped enable the Commercial Federal board to undertake its review of Commercial Federal and its prospects as an independent company, the merger consideration being offered and other matters relating to the general advisability of entering into the merger agreement;

the Commercial Federal board of directors' knowledge of the current and prospective environment in which Commercial Federal operates, including national and local economic conditions, the competitive environment, the trend toward consolidation in the financial services industry and the likely effect of these factors on our potential growth, development, productivity, profitability and strategic options, which similarly helped enable the Commercial Federal board to undertake its review of Commercial Federal and its prospects as an independent company, the merger consideration being offered and other matters relating to the general advisability of entering into the merger agreement;

the review by the Commercial Federal board of directors with its legal and financial advisors of the structure of the merger and the financial and other terms of the merger agreement, including the high degree of certainty of closing, the cash merger price of $34.00 per share and Commercial Federal's ability to declare and pay a special cash dividend of $.50 per share to the holders of our common stock;

the current and historical market prices of our common stock, and the current and historical market prices of our common stock relative to those of other industry participants and general market indices, which showed that the cash merger price of $34.00 per share together with the $.50 per share special dividend represents a premium of 33% over the closing price of our common stock on June 13, 2005, the last trading day prior to the public announcement of the merger agreement and a premium of 37% over the average price of Commercial Federal common stock for the 30 trading days prior to June 13, 2005;

the fact that the merger consideration consists solely of cash, and is not subject to any financing conditions, which provides the Commercial Federal shareholders greater certainty as to the value to be received if the merger is successfully completed; the likelihood that the merger will be completed, including the likelihood that the regulatory and stockholder approvals needed to complete the merger will be obtained;

management's view that the merger will allow for enhanced products and opportunities for our clients and customers;

the financial information and analyses presented by Sandler O'Neill and Merrill Lynch to the Commercial Federal board of directors, and the opinion of each of Sandler O'Neill and Merrill Lynch, each dated as of June 13, 2005, based upon and subject to the assumptions, conditions, limitations and other matters set forth in its opinion, that the $34.00 in cash per share to be received by the holders of our common stock pursuant to the merger together with the $.50 per share to be received by the holders of our common stock pursuant to the special dividend was fair from a financial point of view to the holders of our common stock (see "Opinion of Commercial Federal's Financial Advisors"); and the fact that the merger agreement permits the Commercial Federal board to engage in discussions and negotiations regarding a competing takeover proposal, to withdraw or change its recommendation of the merger agreement to the stockholders and to enter into an agreement providing for a competing proposal under the terms described in this proxy statement and subject to the prohibition against soliciting competing transaction proposals and the termination fee described below.

The Commercial Federal Board of Directors also considered the factors described below as generally weighing against a decision to enter into the merger agreement.

the fact that the all-cash price would not allow our stockholders to participate in any of the synergies created by the merger or in any future growth of the combined entity; and the fact that the merger consideration will be taxable to our stockholders upon completion of the merger;

the requirement that we conduct our business in the ordinary course and the other restrictions on the conduct of our business prior to completion of the merger, which may delay or prevent us from undertaking business opportunities that may arise pending completion of the merger; and the fact that under the merger agreement we cannot solicit competing proposals and a termination fee is payable to Bank of the West under specified circumstances, which may have the effect of discouraging such proposals.

The Commercial Federal board of directors also considered the fact that some of our officers and directors have interests in the merger described under "Financial Interests of Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger" that are in addition to and different from their interests as Commercial Federal stockholders. The discussion of the information and factors considered by the Commercial Federal board is not exhaustive, but includes all material factors considered by the Commercial Federal board of directors. In view of the wide variety of factors considered by the Commercial Federal board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the merger and the complexity of these matters, the Commercial Federal board of directors did not consider it practical to, nor did it attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered in reaching its decision. The Commercial Federal board of directors evaluated the factors described above, including asking questions of Commercial Federal's management and Commercial Federal's legal and financial advisors, and reached the unanimous decision that the merger was in the best interests of Commercial Federal and Commercial Federal stockholders. In considering the factors described above, individual members of the Commercial Federal board of directors may have given different weights to different factors. The Commercial Federal board of directors considered these factors as a whole, and overall considered them to be favorable to, and to support, its determination.

The Commercial Federal board of directors determined that the merger, the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby are advisable, fair to and in the best interests of Commercial Federal and its stockholders. Accordingly, the Commercial Federal board of directors unanimously approved and adopted the merger agreement and unanimously recommends that Commercial Federal stockholders vote FOR the approval and adoption of the merger agreement.

Opinions of Commercial Federal's Financial Advisors

Commercial Federal retained Sandler O'Neill and Merrill Lynch to act as its financial advisors in connection with the merger. Both investment banking firms provided Commercial Federal with assistance in the merger. Commercial Federal determined that it was advisable to engage two financial advisors because, among other things, of the nature of the proposed transaction and the experience and resources that the two financial advisors could bring to the transaction, including their knowledge and understanding of Commercial Federal's businesses and operations based on their longstanding relationships with us.

The full texts of the written opinions of Sandler O'Neill and Merrill Lynch, each dated June 13, 2005, that describe, among other things, the assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by each of Sandler O'Neill and Merrill Lynch in connection with their respective opinions, are attached as Appendices B and C, respectively, to this document and are incorporated into this document by reference. Sandler O'Neill and Merrill Lynch provided their respective advisory services and opinions for the information and assistance of the Commercial Federal board of directors in connection with its consideration of the merger. Neither the Sandler O'Neill opinion nor the Merrill Lynch opinion is a recommendation as to how any holder of shares of Commercial Federal common stock should vote with respect to the merger.

Opinion of Sandler O'Neill

Commercial Federal retained Sandler O'Neill to act as its financial advisor in connection with a possible business combination with Bank of the West. Commercial Federal selected Sandler O'Neill based on Sandler O'Neill's qualifications, expertise and reputation, and its substantial experience in transactions similar to the merger and its familiarity with Commercial Federal and its business. Sandler O'Neill is a nationally recognized investment banking firm whose principal area of focus is financial institutions. In the ordinary course of its investment banking business, Sandler O'Neill is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions.

At the June 13, 2005 meeting at which Commercial Federal's board considered and approved the merger agreement, Sandler O'Neill delivered to the board its oral opinion, subsequently confirmed in writing, that, as of such date, the per share consideration to be received by the holders of Commercial Federal common stock pursuant to the merger (consisting of $34.00 per share paid in the merger and $0.50 per share paid as a special dividend) was fair to such stockholders from a financial point of view.

Sandler O'Neill's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion is directed to the Commercial Federal board of directors in connection with its consideration of the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder of Commercial Federal as to how such stockholder should vote at any meeting of the stockholders called to consider and vote upon the merger agreement. The opinion is directed to only the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the per share cash consideration and the special dividend to be paid pursuant to the merger to Commercial Federal stockholders. It does not address any other aspect of the merger or the underlying business decision of Commercial Federal to engage in the merger, the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other alternative business strategies that might exist for Commercial Federal or the effect of any other transaction in which Commercial Federal might engage. The description of the opinion set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the opinion. Commercial Federal stockholders are urged to read the entire opinion carefully in connection with their consideration of the proposed merger.

In connection with rendering its opinion, Sandler O'Neill reviewed and considered, among other things:

the merger agreement;

certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Commercial Federal that Sandler O Neill deemed relevant;

certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of BNP Paribas that Sandler O Neill deemed relevant;

the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the savings institutions and commercial banking industries, to the extent publicly available; the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as Sandler O'Neill considered relevant.

Sandler O'Neill also discussed with certain members of senior management of Commercial Federal the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Commercial Federal. In connection with its engagement, Sandler O'Neill did not solicit indications of interest in a potential transaction from any third parties.

In performing its reviews and analyses and in rendering its opinion, Sandler O'Neill assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all the financial information, analyses and other information that was publicly available or otherwise furnished to, reviewed by or discussed with it and further relied on the assurances of senior management of each of Commercial Federal and Bank of the West that they were not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. Sandler O'Neill was not asked to and did not independently verify the accuracy or completeness of any of such information and did not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness of any of such information.

Sandler O'Neill did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities, contingent or otherwise, of Commercial Federal or Bank of the West or any of their respective subsidiaries, or the collectibility of any such assets, nor was it furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. Sandler O'Neill is not an expert in the evaluation of allowances for loan losses and it did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Commercial Federal or Bank of the West, nor did it review any individual credit files relating to Commercial Federal or Bank of the West. With Commercial Federal's consent, Sandler O'Neill assumed that the respective allowances for loan losses for both Commercial Federal and Bank of the West were adequate to cover such losses.

Sandler O'Neill's opinion was necessarily based upon financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Sandler O'Neill as of, the date of its opinion. Sandler O'Neill assumed, in all respects material to its analyses, that all of the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement and all related agreements were true and correct, that each party to such agreements would perform all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under such agreements and that the conditions precedent in the agreements would not be waived. Sandler O'Neill also assumed that there had been no material change in the assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of Commercial Federal or Bank of the West since the date of the last financial statements made available to it; and that Commercial Federal and Bank of the West would remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to its analyses. With Commercial Federal's consent, Sandler O'Neill relied upon the advice Commercial Federal received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. The internal budgets and estimates for Commercial Federal used and relied upon by Sandler O'Neill in its analyses were based upon internal financial projections provided by Commercial Federal, which Commercial Federal's senior management confirmed to Sandler O'Neill reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of the future financial performance of Commercial Federal, and Sandler O'Neill assumed for purposes of its analyses that such performance would be achieved. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to such budgets or estimates or the assumptions on which they are based.

Sandler O'Neill has in the past provided certain investment banking services to Commercial Federal and has received compensation for such services and may provide, and receive compensation for, such services in the future, including during the pendency of the merger. Since June 2003 Sandler O'Neill has received approximately $830,000 in fees from Commercial Federal. These fees primarily were a result of the fixed income trading services performed by Sandler O'Neill in connection with Commercial Federal's recent debt restructuring. In the ordinary course of its business as a broker-dealer, Sandler O'Neill may purchase securities from and sell securities to Commercial Federal and Bank of the West and their respective affiliates and may actively trade the equity and/or debt securities of Commercial Federal and and/or BNP Paribas and their respective affiliates for its own account and for the accounts of customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

Opinion of Merrill Lynch

At the meeting of Commercial Federal's board of directors on June 13, 2005, Merrill Lynch rendered its oral opinion that, as of that date and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in its opinion, the per share consideration to be received by the holders of Commercial Federal common stock pursuant to the merger (consisting of $34.00 per share paid in the merger and $0.50 per share paid as a special dividend) was fair, from a financial point of view, to such stockholders. This opinion was subsequently confirmed in writing as of June 13, 2005.

Merrill Lynch's opinion does not speak as of any date other than the date of that opinion. The opinion of Merrill Lynch will not reflect any developments that may occur or may have occurred after the date of its opinion and prior to the completion of the merger, including changes in the operations and prospects of Commercial Federal, general market and economic conditions and other factors that may influence the value of Commercial Federal or its common stock. Commercial Federal stockholders are urged to, and should, read Merrill Lynch's opinion carefully and in its entirety.

Merrill Lynch's opinion is directed to Commercial Federal's board of directors and addresses only the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the per share cash consideration and the special dividend to be paid pursuant to the merger to Commercial Federal stockholders. Merrill Lynch was not asked to, and did not, recommend the specific consideration payable in the merger, which consideration was determined through negotiations between Commercial Federal and Bank of the West. The opinion does not address any other aspect of the merger or any related transaction, nor does it constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how to vote at the meeting. The summary of Merrill Lynch's opinion set forth in this document is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion.

In arriving at its opinion, Merrill Lynch, among other things:

reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information relating to Commercial Federal that Merrill Lynch deemed to be relevant;

reviewed certain information, including financial forecasts, relating to the businesses, earnings, assets, liabilities and prospects of Commercial Federal furnished to Merrill Lynch by senior management of Commercial Federal;

conducted discussions with members of senior management and representatives of Commercial Federal concerning the matters described in the bullet points set forth above;

reviewed the market prices and valuation multiples for shares of Commercial Federal common stock and compared them with those of certain publicly traded companies that Merrill Lynch deemed to be relevant;

reviewed the publicly reported financial condition and results of operations of Commercial Federal and compared them with those of certain publicly traded companies that Merrill Lynch deemed to be relevant;

compared the proposed financial terms of the merger with the financial terms of certain other transactions that Merrill Lynch deemed to be relevant;

participated in certain discussions and negotiations among representatives of Commercial Federal and Bank of the West and their respective financial and legal advisors with respect to the merger;

reviewed the merger agreement; and reviewed such other financial studies and analyses and took into account such other matters as Merrill Lynch deemed necessary, including Merrill Lynch's assessment of general economic, market and monetary conditions.

In preparing its opinion, Merrill Lynch assumed and relied on the accuracy and completeness of all information supplied or otherwise made available to Merrill Lynch, or that was discussed with or reviewed by or for Merrill Lynch, or that was publicly available. Merrill Lynch did not assume any responsibility for independently verifying this information or undertake an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of Commercial Federal, and Merrill Lynch was not furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal. Merrill Lynch did not evaluate the solvency or fair value of Commercial Federal under any state or federal laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, or similar matters.

Merrill Lynch is not an expert in the evaluation of allowances for loan losses, and it neither made an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowances for loan losses of Commercial Federal, nor reviewed any individual credit files of Commercial Federal, nor was Merrill Lynch requested to conduct such a review. As a result, Merrill Lynch has assumed that the allowances for loan losses of Commercial Federal are adequate to cover such losses. In addition, Merrill Lynch did not assume any obligation to conduct, and Merrill Lynch did not conduct, any physical inspection of the properties or facilities of Commercial Federal.

With respect to the financial and operating information, including, without limitation, financial forecasts, valuations of contingencies, projections regarding under-performing or non-performing assets, net charge-offs, adequacy of reserves and future economic conditions, in each case furnished to or discussed with Merrill Lynch by Commercial Federal, Merrill Lynch assumed that all such information was reasonably prepared and reflects the best currently available estimates and judgments of the senior management of Commercial Federal as to the future financial and operating performance of Commercial Federal. Merrill Lynch's opinion is based upon market, economic and other conditions as in effect on, and on the information made available to Merrill Lynch as of, the date of its opinion.

For purposes of rendering its opinion, Merrill Lynch also assumed that, in all respects material to its analysis:

the merger will be completed substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the merger agreement; the representations and warranties of each party in the merger agreement and in all related documents and instruments referred to in the merger agreement are true and correct;

each party will perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by it under the merger agreement and any related documents and instruments;

all conditions to completing the merger will be satisfied without any waivers; and the special dividend will be duly declared and paid (or funds set aside for payment) prior to the merger in an amount of not less than $0.50 in cash per Commercial Federal common share.

Merrill Lynch's opinion does not address the merits of the underlying decision by Commercial Federal to engage in the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder of Commercial Federal as how such stockholder should vote on the proposed merger or any matter related to the proposed merger. In addition, the board of directors of Commercial Federal did not ask Merrill Lynch to address, and Merrill Lynch's opinion does not address, the fairness to, or any other consideration of, the holders of any class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of Commercial Federal other than the holders of Commercial Federal common stock.

The Commercial Federal board of directors selected Merrill Lynch as its financial advisor because of its reputation as an internationally recognized investment banking and advisory firm with substantial experience in transactions similar to the merger and because Merrill Lynch is familiar with Commercial Federal and its business. As part of its investment banking and financial advisory business, Merrill Lynch is continually engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive biddings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for corporate and other purposes.

In the ordinary course of its business, Merrill Lynch and its affiliates may actively trade the debt and equity securities of BNP Paribas and its affiliates and Commercial Federal and its affiliates for their own account and/or the accounts of their respective customers, and, accordingly, may at any time hold long or short positions in these securities. As of June 20, 2005, Merrill Lynch held through its retail brokerage accounts 432,731 shares of BNP Paribas common stock and 1,174,435 shares of Commercial Federal common stock. Merrill Lynch does not hold any of these shares as principal, which means that the voting and disposition power generally is held by the retail owner of the shares. In the past two years, Merrill Lynch has provided to BNP Paribas and BancWest Corporation financial advisory, investment banking and other services unrelated to the proposed merger, and has provided to Commercial Federal financial advisory, investment banking and other services unrelated to the proposed merger and in each case Merrill Lynch has received fees for these services. In the past two years, Commercial Federal has paid to Merrill Lynch approximately $50,000 in fees in connection with financing services provided by Merrill Lynch. Merrill Lynch may provide these types of services to BNP Paribas and its affiliates and/or Commercial Federal in the future and receive fees for those services.

Joint Financial Analyses of Merrill Lynch and Sandler O'Neill

In performing their analyses, Sandler O'Neill and Merrill Lynch made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Sandler O'Neill, Merrill Lynch and Commercial Federal. Any estimates contained in the analyses performed by Sandler O'Neill and Merrill Lynch are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses. Additionally, estimates of the value of businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which those businesses or securities might actually be sold. Accordingly, these analyses and estimates are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty. The Sandler O'Neill and Merrill Lynch opinions were among a number of factors taken into consideration by Commercial Federal's board in making its determination to adopt the plan of merger contained in the merger agreement and the analyses described below should not be viewed as determinative of the decision of Commercial Federal's board or management with respect to the fairness of the per share cash consideration and the special dividend to be paid pursuant to the merger.

At the June 13, 2005 meeting of Commercial Federal's board of directors, Sandler O'Neill and Merrill Lynch made a presentation of certain financial analyses of the merger. Sandler O'Neill and Merrill Lynch collaborated in performing each of the financial analyses summarized below.

The summary below is not a complete description of the analyses underlying the opinions of Sandler O'Neill and Merrill Lynch or the presentation made by Sandler O'Neill and Merrill Lynch to Commercial Federal's board but summarizes the material analyses performed and presented in connection with their opinions. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex analytic process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. Therefore, a fairness opinion is not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description.

In arriving at their opinions, neither Sandler O'Neill nor Merrill Lynch attributed any particular weight to any analysis or factor that they considered, but rather each made its own qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. Neither Sandler O'Neill nor Merrill Lynch formed an opinion as to whether any individual analysis or factor (positive or negative) considered in isolation supported or failed to support their respective opinions; rather, Sandler O'Neill and Merrill Lynch each made their determination as to the fairness of the per share cash consideration and the special dividend to be paid pursuant to the merger on the basis of their experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all their analyses taken as a whole. Accordingly, they believe that their analyses and the summary of their analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of their analyses and factors or focusing on the information presented below in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying their analyses and opinions. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses.

Calculation of Transaction Value

Sandler O'Neill and Merrill Lynch reviewed the terms of the merger agreement. They noted that the merger agreement provided for total consideration of $34.50 per share of Commercial Federal common stock, consisting of $34.00 per share to be paid in the merger plus the anticipated special dividend of $0.50 per share. Sandler O'Neill and Merrill Lynch also noted that the transaction had an implied aggregate offer value of approximately $1.36 billion.

Implied Transaction Pricing Multiples and Comparable Merger and Acquisition Transactions

Sandler O'Neill and Merrill Lynch calculated the implied transaction value as a multiple of Commercial Federal's book value and tangible book value at March 31, 2005 (adjusted to reflect payment of the $0.50 per share special dividend), and as a multiple of Commercial Federal's earnings per share for the twelve months ending March 31, 2005 (excluding charges related to exiting the mortgage servicing business in the first quarter of 2005) and estimated earnings (based on consensus Thomson One Analytics earnings estimates) for the next twelve months beginning April 1, 2005. Sandler O'Neill and Merrill Lynch also compared the tangible premium (defined as the implied offer value less Commercial Federal's tangible book value at March 31, 2005) to the total deposits, core deposits (which excludes certificates of deposit with a principal amount of greater than $100,000, brokered deposits and foreign deposits) and non-certificate of deposit deposits of Commercial Federal at March 31, 2005. Sandler O'Neill and Merrill Lynch also calculated the implied transaction value as a premium to Commercial Federal's closing price per share of common stock on June 10, 2005 and 30 days preceding the announcement of the merger. Thomson One Analytics is a recognized data service that monitors and publishes compilations of earnings estimates by selected research analysts regarding companies of interest to institutional investors.

For these selected merger and acquisition transactions, Sandler O'Neill and Merrill Lynch used publicly available financial information, including company investor presentations and information obtained from SNL Financial's online databases, to determine:

the multiples of the transaction price per share to both the next twelve month earnings estimates per share and last twelve months earnings per share at the time of announcement;

the multiples of the transaction price per share to both the book value per share and the tangible book value per share using the acquired companies' most recent financial reports at the time of announcement of the transactions;

the tangible premium to each of the total deposits, core deposits and non-CD deposits of the target company (where such data were available);

the target company's efficiency ratio, return on assets and return on equity; and the premium per share paid by the acquiror compared to the per share market price of the target company prevailing, respectively, one day prior to and 30 days prior to the announcement of those transactions.

The mean and median values of these premiums and multiples were then compared to those calculated for the merger. Sandler O'Neill and Merrill Lynch considered these selected merger and acquisition transactions to be reasonably similar, but not identical, to the merger. A complete analysis involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in the selected merger and acquisition transactions and other factors that could affect the premiums paid in such comparable transactions to which the merger is being compared. Mathematical analysis (such as determining the average) is not by itself a meaningful method of using selected merger and acquisition transaction data. SNL Financial is a recognized data service that collects, standardizes and disseminates relevant corporate, financial, market and mergers and acquisitions data for companies in the industries it covers.

Discounted Dividend Analysis

Sandler O'Neill and Merrill Lynch performed a discounted dividend analysis to estimate a range of the present values per share of Commercial Federal common stock, assuming consensus earnings estimates (based on consensus Thomson One Analytics) for Commercial Federal of $1.55 for the last nine months of 2005 and $2.33 for 2006. After 2006, earnings were estimated to increase annually at a range of 6-14%, which range was determined based on consensus earnings growth estimates (based on consensus Thomson One Analytics) for Commercial Federal and various hypothetical growth scenarios provided by management. The cash flows were modeled assuming that Commercial Federal continued to operate as an independent entity. The valuation range was determined by adding (i) the present value of Commercial Federal's earnings available for dividends, net of earnings necessary to maintain Commercial Federal's tangible common equity to tangible assets ratio of 5.8% (based on its ratio at March 31, 2005), through December 31, 2010 and (ii) the present value of the terminal value of Commercial Federal common stock. In calculating the terminal value of Commercial Federal common stock, Sandler O'Neill and Merrill Lynch applied multiples ranging from 10.0x to 13.0x to 2011 forecasted cash earnings. The dividend stream and the terminal value were then discounted back to June 30, 2005 using discount rates ranging from 10.0% to 14.0%, which are rates Sandler O'Neill and Merrill Lynch viewed as the appropriate range for a company with Commercial Federal's risk characteristics.

Edgar Filing: COMMERCIAL FEDERAL CORP - Form PRER14A

Based on the above assumptions, Sandler O'Neill and Merrill Lynch determined that the present value of the Commercial Federal common stock ranged from $20.29 to $35.11.

6 Month Closing Average	27.3

Comparable Companies Analysis

Sandler O'Neill and Merrill Lynch analyzed the public market statistics of certain comparable companies and examined various trading statistics and information. As part of this comparable companies analysis, Sandler O'Neill and Merrill Lynch examined public market data, including the following market statistics:

the multiple of market price per share to median estimated 2005 earnings per share;

the multiple of market price per share to median estimated 2006 earnings per share;

the multiple of market price per share to median estimated 2006 cash earnings per share;

the multiple of market price per share to median book value per share and median tangible book value per share; and the median dividend yield.

In addition, Sandler O'Neill and Merrill Lynch also compared certain balance sheet ratios of Commercial Federal at March 31, 2005, certain profitability ratios of Commercial Federal for the quarter ended March 31, 2005, and certain credit quality ratios of Commercial Federal at and for the quarter ended March 31, 2005, to the median of those ratios for the comparable companies. The estimated 2005 and 2006 earnings per share were obtained from Thomson One Analytics and the remaining information was obtained from publicly available financial information at or for the quarter ended March 31, 2005, and from SNL Financial's online database. The stock price data used for this analysis were the closing prices for the selected companies on June 10, 2005. Commercial Federal's results for the first quarter of 2005 were adjusted to exclude the charges related to exiting the mortgage servicing business.

Material Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following describes generally the material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger and the special dividend to U.S. holders (as defined below) of our common stock. The summary is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (which we refer to in this proxy statement as the Code), applicable current and proposed United States Treasury Regulations, judicial authority, and administrative rulings and practice, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect, and to differing interpretation. For purposes of this discussion, we use the term U.S. holder to mean:

a citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation, or other entity taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, created or organized under the laws of the United States or of any State or the District of Columbia;

a trust if it (1) is subject to the primary supervision of a court within the United States and one or more United States persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (2) was in existence on August 20, 1996 and has a valid election in effect under applicable United States Treasury Regulations to continue to be treated as a United States person; or an estate the income of which is subject to United States federal income tax regardless of its source.

If a partnership holds our common stock, the tax treatment of a partner will generally depend on the status of the partners and the activities of the partnership. If you are a U.S. holder that is a partner in a partnership holding our common stock, you should consult your tax advisor.

This discussion assumes that you hold the shares of our common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code. This discussion does not address all aspects of United States federal income taxation that may be relevant to you in light of your particular circumstances, or that may apply to you if you are subject to special treatment under the United States federal income tax laws (including, for example, insurance companies, dealers in securities or foreign currencies, tax-exempt organizations, financial institutions, mutual funds, United States expatriates, stockholders who hold shares of our stock as part of a hedge, straddle, constructive sale or conversion transaction, or stockholders who acquired their shares of our common stock through the exercise of employee stock options or other compensation arrangements). In addition, the discussion does not address any tax considerations under state, local or foreign laws or federal laws other than those pertaining to the federal income tax that may apply to you. We urge you to consult your own tax advisor to determine the particular tax consequences to you (including the application and effect of any state, local or foreign income and other tax laws) of the receipt of cash in exchange for our common stock pursuant to the merger and upon payment of the special dividend.

The Merger

The receipt of cash in the merger by U.S. holders of our common stock will be a taxable transaction for United States federal income tax purposes (and may also be a taxable transaction under applicable state, local, foreign and other tax laws). In general, for United States federal income tax purposes, a U.S. holder of our common stock will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between (1) the amount of cash received in exchange for such shares and (2) the stockholder's adjusted tax basis in such shares. If the holding period in our shares surrendered in the merger is greater than one year as of the date of the merger, the gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss. Long-term gains recognized by U.S. holders that are not corporations generally will be subject to a maximum U.S. federal income tax rate of 15%. The deductibility of a capital loss recognized on the exchange is subject to limitations. If you acquired different blocks of our stock at different times or different prices, you must determine your tax basis and holding period separately with respect to each block of our stock. The cash merger consideration will be taxable to you when received or accrued, in accordance with your regular method of income tax accounting. For federal income tax purposes, if you are a cash method taxpayer, you will be considered to have received the cash when your ability to receive it is no longer subject to any substantial limitations or restrictions, as will be the case when you have received the letter of transmittal following completion of the merger.

The Special Dividend

Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, we will also declare a special dividend of $.50 per share immediately prior to the completion of the merger. We intend to take the position that the special dividend will constitute a dividend for United States federal income tax purposes. Generally, U.S. holders that are not corporations and that meet applicable holding period requirements under the Code for qualified dividends will be taxed on the special dividend at a maximum federal income tax rate of 15%. U.S. holders should consult their tax advisors regarding any alternative characterization of the special dividend, including as consideration received from us in exchange for their shares of our common stock. In addition, holders that are corporations should consult their tax advisors regarding the potential applicability of the extraordinary dividend provisions of the Code.

Backup Withholding

Under the Code, you, as a holder of our stock, may be subject, under certain circumstances, to backup withholding at a rate of 28% with respect to the amount of cash received in the merger, unless you (1) provide a correct taxpayer identification number and any other required information to the exchange agent, or (2) are a corporation or come within certain exempt categories and otherwise comply with applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Backup withholding is not an additional tax and any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be refunded or credited against your United States federal income tax liability, if any, provided that you furnish the required information to the Internal Revenue Service in a timely manner.

Governmental and Regulatory Approvals

Consummation of the merger and the subsequent mergers are subject to prior receipt of all required approvals and consents by all applicable federal and state regulatory authorities.

Federal Reserve Board. The merger is subject to the prior approval of, or waiver, from the Federal Reserve Board under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended. Pursuant to the Bank Holding Company Act, the Federal Reserve Board may not approve the merger if:

such transaction would result in a monopoly or would be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy to monopolize or attempt to monopolize the business of banking in any part of the United States, or the effect of such transaction, in any section of the country, may be to substantially lessen competition, or tend to create a monopoly, or in any manner restrain trade, unless in each case the Federal Reserve Board finds that the anticompetitive effects of the proposed transaction are clearly outweighed in the public interest by the probable effect of the transaction in meeting the convenience and needs of the communities to be served.

In every case, the Federal Reserve Board is required to consider the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of the bank holding company or companies and the banks concerned, the convenience and needs of the communities to be served and the effectiveness of the parties in combating money-laundering activities. Under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977, the Federal Reserve Board also must take into account the record of performance of each participating bank holding company in meeting the credit needs of the entire community, including low and moderate-income neighborhoods, served by each bank holding company and its subsidiaries. In addition, the Bank Holding Company Act requires that the Federal Reserve Board take into account the record of compliance of each bank holding company with applicable state community reinvestment laws. Applicable regulations require publication of notice of an application for approval of the merger and an opportunity for the public to comment on the application in writing and to request a hearing.

Any bank holding company merger approved by the Federal Reserve Board may not be completed until 30 days after such approval, during which time the U.S. Department of Justice may challenge the transaction on antitrust grounds and seek divestiture of certain assets and liabilities. The commencement of an antitrust action would stay the effectiveness of an approval unless a court specifically ordered otherwise. With the approval of the Federal Reserve Board and the concurrence of the U.S. Department of Justice, the waiting period may be reduced to no less than 15 days.

Section 225.12(d)(2) of the Federal Reserve Board's Regulation Y provides that the approval of the Federal Reserve Board is not required for certain acquisitions by bank holding companies if the acquisition has a component that will be approved by a federal supervisory agency under the Bank Merger Act and certain other requirements are met. Under this regulation, the acquiring bank holding company must submit a notice to the Federal Reserve Board at least ten days prior to the transaction and no application for approval of the proposed acquisition under the Bank Holding Company Act will be required unless the Federal Reserve Board informs the proposed acquiror to the contrary prior to expiration of this period. BancWest Corporation, Bank of the West and Commercial Federal believe that the merger and subsequent mergers satisfy these requirements and, accordingly, BancWest Corporation intends to submit a notice to the Federal Reserve Board under this regulation.

Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. Immediately after Bear Merger Co., Inc. merges with and into Commercial Federal, the parties intend to merge Commercial Federal, and then Commercial Federal Bank, with and into Bank of the West. These mergers are subject to the prior approval of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation under the Bank Merger Act. The FDIC will review the bank merger under statutory criteria which are substantially the same as those required to be considered by the Federal Reserve Board in evaluating transactions for approval under Section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act, as discussed above. Applicable regulations require publication of notice of the application for approval of the bank merger and an opportunity for the public to comment on the application in writing and to request a hearing.

Any bank merger approved by the FDIC may not be completed until 30 days after such approval, during which time the U.S. Department of Justice may challenge such transaction on antitrust grounds and seek divestiture of certain assets and liabilities. The commencement of an antitrust action would stay the effectiveness of an approval unless a court specifically ordered otherwise. With the approval of the FDIC and the concurrence of the U.S. Department of Justice, the waiting period may be reduced to no less than 15 days. The merger will also require prior notice to the Office of Thrift Supervision.

State Approvals and Notices. The prior approval of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of the State of California is required under the California Financial Code for the merger of Commercial Federal Bank into Bank of the West. The Commissioner will review the bank merger under statutory criteria that include factors similar to those required to be considered by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation as summarized above. In addition, the Commissioner must also determine that the terms of the merger are fair, just and equitable.

Status of Applications and Notices. Bank of the West and Commercial Federal have filed with the FDIC under the Bank Merger Act and have, or promptly will, prepare and file all other required applications and notices with applicable regulatory authorities in connection with the merger and the bank merger. There can be no assurance that all requisite approvals will be obtained, that such approvals will be received on a timely basis or that such approvals will not impose conditions or requirements that, individually or in the aggregate, would or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Bank of the West (measured on a scale relative to Commercial Federal). If any such condition or requirement is imposed, Bank of the West may elect not to consummate the merger. See "Conditions to the Merger" beginning on page 38.

Financial Interests of Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of the Commercial Federal board of directors with respect to the merger agreement, Commercial Federal's stockholders should be aware that some of Commercial Federal's executive officers and directors have interests in the merger and have arrangements that are different from, or in addition to, those of Commercial Federal's stockholders generally. The Commercial Federal board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in reaching its decisions to approve the merger agreement and to recommend that Commercial Federal's stockholders vote in favor of approving the merger agreement.

Equity Compensation Awards. The merger agreement provides that upon completion of the merger, each Commercial Federal stock option, including those held by executive officers and directors of Commercial Federal, will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive upon completion of the merger an amount in cash per share subject to the option equal to the excess, if any, of the merger consideration (plus the value of the special dividend) over the per share exercise price of the option. In addition, the merger agreement provides that, upon completion of the merger, each other stock-based award based upon shares of Commercial Federal common stock (other than restricted shares), including those held by executive officers and directors of Commercial Federal, will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive upon completion of the merger an amount in cash equal to the merger consideration (plus the value of the special dividend). Upon completion of the merger, each restricted share will vest and be treated as all other stockholders and each stock option and other stock-based award will vest in full. The aggregate amount payable to the directors and executive officers, as a group, with respect to the equity-based compensation awards, based on their holdings as of August 16, 2005 and assuming that the merger is completed as of December 2, 2005, is approximately $25,834,124.

Change in Control Agreements. Each of Commercial Federal's executive officers, including Frederick R. Kulikowski, David S. Fisher, John S. Morris, Robert F. Rivers, Patrick J. Corrigan and Robert E. Gruwell, is party to a change in control agreement. Under the terms of the change in control agreements, if, in anticipation of a change in control, such as completion of the merger, or during the three-year period after a change in control, such as completion of the merger, the executive's employment is terminated other than for cause or the executive resigns for good reason (as each term is defined in the agreements), the executive officer will be entitled to continue to receive, in equal monthly installments, the base salary and all commissions and bonuses (including short-term and long-term incentive programs and stock options) in effect at the time of the termination for a period of 35.88 months from the date of termination reduced by the number of months the executive remains in the employ of Commercial Federal after the change in control. During the months for which the executive receives installment payments under the agreements, the executive will also continue to participate in any health, disability and life insurance plans to the same extent as if the executive were an employee of Commercial Federal or its successor. Further, the executive will continue to participate in any perquisite program through the end of the period for which compensation is being paid. In the event that an executive would be subject to the excise tax under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), the payments to the executive under the agreement will be reduced to the maximum amount that the executive could receive without being subject to the tax. The aggregate amount of cash severance payable to the executive officers (including Mr. Fitzgerald, whose severance will be paid under his Consulting Agreement as of immediately prior to completion of the merger), as a group, assuming that the merger is completed as of December 2, 2005 and each of the executive officer's employment is terminated immediately thereafter is approximately $17,898,584.

Amendment to the Change in Control Agreement with Mr. Fitzgerald. In connection with the approval of the merger agreement, the board of directors of Commercial Federal approved an amendment to Mr. Fitzgerald's change in control agreement to eliminate the Section 280G cutback provision described in the immediately preceding sentence and to implement a Section 280G gross-up provision that provides that, in the event that an executive would be subject to the excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code, Mr. Fitzgerald will receive an additional payment such that he is placed in the same after-tax position as if no excise tax had been imposed.

Consulting Agreement with Mr. Fitzgerald. In connection with the approval of the merger agreement, Mr. Fitzgerald entered into a consulting agreement with Bank of the West, which will become effective as of completion of the merger. Under the terms of the consulting agreement, Mr. Fitzgerald will provide consulting services for the three year period following completion of the merger. In consideration for agreeing to provide the consulting services, the Mr. Fitzgerald will be paid a monthly amount equal to $25,000 during the consulting period. In the event of Mr. Fitzgerald's voluntary termination or termination by Bank of the West for cause (as defined in the consulting agreement), the obligation to pay the consulting fees in respect of the months remaining in the consulting period as of the date of any such event will cease. In the event that the Bank of the West terminates Mr. Fitzgerald's services as a consultant other than for cause or Mr. Fitzgerald's services as a consultant terminate upon Mr. Fitzgerald's death or permanent and total disability, Mr. Fitzgerald will receive the consulting fees for the remainder of the consulting period in a lump sum within ten business days of the date of termination. During the three-year period following completion of the merger, Mr. Fitzgerald will continue to participate in any health, disability and life insurance plan of Commercial Federal and its affiliates to the same extent as if Mr. Fitzgerald were an employee of Commercial Federal. Following such three-year period, Mr. Fitzgerald will receive retiree medical benefits provided to senior executives of Commercial Federal as of immediately prior to completion of the merger. Mr. Fitzgerald will also continue to receive until the end of such three-year period reimbursement for country club dues and assessments that Mr. Fitzgerald received as of immediately prior to completion of the merger.

Upon completion of the merger, Mr. Fitzgerald will terminate employment with Commercial Federal and Commercial Federal will pay Mr. Fitzgerald in a lump sum immediately prior to completion of the merger all amounts due to Mr. Fitzgerald under the change in control agreement described above. In addition, immediately prior to completion of the merger, Mr. Fitzgerald will be paid the lump sum present value of the benefit under Commercial Federal's Survivor Income Plan and the Agreement by and between Mr. Fitzgerald and Commercial Federal Savings and Loan Association dated as of May 15, 1974, as amended.

Mr. Fitzgerald will not disclose to others or use any confidential information relating to the business of Bank of the West.

Proposed Amendments to Change in Control Agreements. It is currently contemplated that, effective upon completion of the merger, Commercial Federal will offer to amend its change in control agreements to provide each executive officer (other than Mr. Fitzgerald) who signs the amendment with a payment equal to the estimated amount, if any, by which the executive's estimated aggregate parachute payments (assuming a termination of employment without cause immediately following completion of the merger) exceed the maximum amount that the executive could receive without being subject to the excise tax under Section 280G of the Code plus $10,000 in consideration for a 12 month non-compete that would commence upon completion of the merger.

The amendment would further provide that, if the executive officer is offered a comparable position, (as defined below) accepts such offer, and, during the three-year period following completion of the merger, the executive officer's employment is terminated without cause or for good reason (as each such term is defined in the change in control agreement), the executive officer will receive a severance payment equal to 2.99 times the executive officer's base amount within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code and, if the executive officer is subject to the excise tax under Section 280G of the Code, the executive officer will receive an additional payment such that he is placed in the same after-tax position as if no excise tax had been imposed. If any such termination occurs after the first anniversary of completion of the merger, the amount of the executive officer's severance will be reduced on a declining balance in the same manner as the current change in control agreement.

The amendment would further provide that if the executive officer is offered a comparable position, accepts such offer, and the executive officer subsequently terminates employment during the 30-day period following the first anniversary of the change in control, the executive officer will receive a severance payment equal to 23.88 times the monthly amount of executive's compensation (as determined under the executive officer's change in control agreement) and, if the executive officer is subject to the excise tax under Section 280G of the Code, the executive officer will receive an additional payment such that he is placed in the same after-tax position as if no excise tax had been imposed.

In addition, the amendment would provide that if the executive officer is offered a comparable position, accepts such offer, and, during the three-year period following completion of the merger, the executive officer terminates employment under circumstances other than those described above, the executive officer will receive a severance payment equal to 2.99 times the executive officer's base amount within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code (minus the amount paid to the executive officer in consideration for his agreement not to compete) and no Section 280G gross-up. If any such termination occurs after the first anniversary of completion of the merger, the amount of such severance will be reduced on a declining balance in the same manner as the current change in control agreement.

If the executive officer receives but does not accept a comparable position, the executive officer will receive a severance payment equal to 2.99 times the executive officer's base amount within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code (minus the amount paid to the executive officer in consideration for his agreement not to compete) and no Section 280G gross-up.

If the executive officer does not receive a comparable position, the executive officer will receive a severance payment equal to 2.99 times the executive officer's base amount within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code and, if the executive officer is subject to the excise tax under Section 280G of the Code, the executive officer will receive an additional payment such that he is placed in the same after-tax position as if no excise tax had been imposed.

For purposes of the amendments, a comparable position means an offer of employment made not later than 30 days prior to completion of the merger pursuant to which (1) the executive officer incurs no material diminution in duties, authority, reporting relationship or title from those in effect immediately prior to completion of the merger (except that any diminution occurring solely as a result of Commercial Federal's ceasing to be a publicly-traded entity or a change in the executive officer's reporting relationship will not constitute a material diminution so long as the executive officer reports to a management official of Bank of the West substantially similar to the management official to which a similarly situated executive officer of Bank of the West reports), (2) the executive officer's annual base salary, short term bonus opportunities and long term incentive compensation (based on the methodology and assumptions used to value such long-term incentive compensation in Commercial Federal's financial statements) are no less favorable than immediately prior to completion of the merger, (3) the executive officer's employee benefits in the aggregate are no less favorable than those provided to similarly situated employees of Bank of the West and (4) the executive officer is not asked to relocate more than 50 miles from the executive officer's location of employment as of immediately prior to completion of the merger.

2005 Bonus Plan. Bank of the West will continue to maintain Commercial Federal's Management Incentive Plan for the 2005 fiscal year and will pay in cash to participants who are employed on February 28, 2006, including executive officer participants, 50% of the maximum amount due under the Management Incentive Plan for 2005 pursuant to the terms of the Management Incentive Plan. Any participant in the Management Incentive Plan who incurs an involuntary termination of employment without cause following completion of the merger and prior to February 28, 2006 will be paid a pro rata bonus under the Management Incentive Plan at such time as bonuses are paid to similarly situated active participants. Assuming that the merger is completed as of December 2, 2005, the aggregate amount payable to the executive officers, as a group, under the 2005 bonus plan is approximately $1,478,207.

Indemnification and Insurance. The merger agreement provides that, upon completion of the merger, Bank of the West will indemnify and hold harmless, and provide advancement of expenses to, all past and present officers, and directors of Commercial Federal and its subsidiaries and any persons who presently serves or formerly served as a director, officer, employee, agent, trustee or fiduciary of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise or under or with respect to any employee benefit plan at the request of Commercial Federal, in each case, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable laws, and Commercial Federal's certificate of incorporation and by-laws.

The merger agreement also provides that Bank of the West will maintain for a period of six years after completion of the merger, the current directors' and officers' liability insurance policies maintained by Commercial Federal, or policies of at least the same coverage and amount and containing terms and conditions that are not less advantageous than the current policy, with respect to acts or omissions occurring prior to the effective time of the merger, although Bank of the West will not be required to make annual premium payments in excess of 200% of the annual premiums paid by Commercial Federal for directors' and officers' liability insurance as of the date of the merger agreement. In the event that Bank of the West is unable to maintain or obtain such insurance, Bank of the West will use all reasonable efforts to obtain as much comparable insurance as is available for annual premium payments equal to 200% of the annual premiums paid by Commercial Federal for directors' and officers' liability insurance as of the date of the merger agreement.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following summary of the terms of the merger agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the merger agreement, a copy of which we attach to this proxy statement as Appendix A.

Structure and Effective Time

The merger agreement provides that Bear Merger Co., Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Bank of the West, will merge with and into Commercial Federal. Commercial Federal will survive that merger. Immediately following the merger, Commercial Federal as the surviving company will merge with and into Bank of the West and, immediately following that merger, Commercial Federal Bank, our wholly-owned subsidiary, will merge with and into Bank of the West. Bank of the West will be the sole surviving company as a result of these mergers. In this proxy statement we refer to the merger of Bear Merger Co., Inc. with and into Commercial Federal as the merger, and the subsequent mergers of Commercial Federal with and into Bank of the West and Commercial Federal Bank with and into Bank of the West as the subsequent mergers.

The completion date for the merger will be no later than the third business day following the satisfaction or waiver of all conditions to completion in the merger agreement but in no event before December 2, 2005 unless the parties agree to close earlier. We will seek to complete the merger late in the fourth quarter of 2005. However, we cannot assure you when, or if, all the conditions to completion of the merger will be satisfied or waived. See Conditions to the Merger.

The merger will be effective when we file a certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Nebraska, or at such later time as we and Bank of the West specify in the certificate of merger.

Merger Consideration and Special Dividend

The merger agreement provides that each share of our common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger (other than shares owned by us for our own account or by Bank of the West for its own account, which will be cancelled) will be converted at the effective time of the merger into the right to receive $34.00 in cash, without interest. We will also declare and pay a special dividend of $.50 per share to stockholders of record immediately prior to the completion of the merger. No interest will be paid on the cash merger consideration or the special dividend.

Treatment of Commercial Federal Stock Options and Stock-Based Awards

If the merger occurs:

the merger agreement permits us, and we intend, to pay each holder of an outstanding stock option or compensatory common stock unit a special retention bonus of $.50 per share of common stock associated with each award; and each outstanding stock option granted under a Commercial Federal equity compensation plan will be canceled at the effective time of the merger, whether or not fully vested, and each option holder will be entitled to receive a cash payment (less applicable withholding taxes and without interest), as soon as practicable after the effective time of the merger, equal to the excess, if any, of $34.00 plus the amount of the special dividend, less the amount of the special retention bonus we pay, over the applicable exercise price per share of the stock option, multiplied by the number of shares of our common stock subject to that stock option immediately prior to the effective time of the merger; and each of our outstanding compensatory common stock units will become fully vested at the effective time of the merger and will entitle its holder to receive a cash payment (less applicable withholding taxes and without interest), as soon as practicable after the effective time of the merger, equal to the number of shares subject to the award immediately prior to the effective time of the merger multiplied by $34.00 plus the amount of the special dividend less the amount of the special retention bonus we pay.

Board of Directors Covenant to Recommend

In the merger agreement, we agreed to recommend, through our board of directors, that our stockholders approve and adopt the merger agreement and the merger at the special meeting. Our board of directors may not withdraw, modify or change this recommendation unless the board of directors reasonably determines in good faith (after consultation with outside legal counsel) that failure to take that action would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law and, if the change in this recommendation is related to a competing transaction (as discussed below), we provide Bank of the West with three business days notice to propose revisions to the terms of the merger agreement.

No Solicitation of Other Offers

The merger agreement provides that neither we nor our representatives will:

initiate, solicit or knowingly encourage (including by way of furnishing information or assistance), or take any other action to facilitate inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes, or would reasonably be expected to lead to, a competing transaction; negotiate a competing transaction with any person or engage in any discussions with any person to obtain a competing transaction; provide any nonpublic information relating to us or provide access to our personnel, properties, books or records to any person that has made, or, to our knowledge is considering making, a competing transaction; agree to or endorse any competing transaction; or approve or recommend, or propose to approve or recommend, or execute or enter into, any letter of intent, agreement in principle, merger agreement, asset purchase or share exchange or issuance agreement, option agreement, or other similar agreement related to any competing transaction.

The merger agreement permits us to comply with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or other applicable law, with regard to disclosures to our stockholders concerning a competing transaction. In addition, if we receive an unsolicited bona fide written proposal for a competing transaction prior to the special meeting and if we enter into a confidentiality agreement with the person making the proposal for a competing transaction having terms that are no less favorable to us than those contained in the confidentiality agreement between us and Bank of the West:

we may discuss with, or provide nonpublic information to the person making that proposal for a competing transaction, and recommend such proposal to the holders of our common stock, if our board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with a financial advisor of nationally recognized reputation in similar transactions, that the proposal for a competing transaction is, or has a reasonable likelihood of resulting in, a superior proposal, as described below; and our board of directors may recommend a superior proposal to our stockholders if our stockholders have not yet approved the merger agreement and our board of directors reasonably determines in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that the failure to take any such action would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law.

We have agreed to give Bank of the West three business days prior notice of our intent to take any action with respect to any proposal for a competing transaction or with respect to our board of directors changing its recommendation and to keep Bank of the West informed of the identity of any person making a proposal for a competing transaction and the status and terms of any proposals, discussions or negotiations.

For purposes of the merger agreement, the term competing transaction means any of the following involving us or any of our subsidiaries:

a merger, consolidation, share exchange or other business combination;

a sale, lease or other disposition or assumption of assets representing 15% or more of our consolidated assets and those of our subsidiaries;

a sale of shares of capital stock representing 15% or more of our total voting power, or that of any of our subsidiaries; or a tender offer or exchange offer for 15% or more of our outstanding shares.

For purposes of the merger agreement, the term superior proposal means a bona fide written proposal for a competing transaction which the board of directors concludes in good faith, after consultation with a financial advisor of nationally recognized reputation in similar transactions and its legal advisors, taking into account all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the proposal and the person making the proposal:

is more favorable to our stockholders from a financial point of view than the merger;

is fully financed or reasonably capable of being fully financed;

is reasonably likely to receive all required governmental approvals on a timely basis; and is otherwise reasonably capable of being completed on the terms proposed.

For purposes of this definition of superior proposal, all references to 15% or more in the definition of competing transaction are deemed references to a majority.

Efforts to Complete the Merger

We and Bank of the West have agreed to use our commercially reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement as promptly as practicable.

At Bank of the West's request, and at its expense, we and our subsidiaries will cooperate in all reasonable respects to facilitate the divestiture to third parties of any of our branches or assets which may be required by any governmental entity as a condition to approval or consent to the merger; any such divestiture will be subject to the consummation of the merger.

Subsequent Mergers

We have agreed to cooperate in all reasonable respects with Bank of the West in their efforts to obtain the approval of or consent to the subsequent mergers by all governmental entities. Each of us and Bank of the West have agreed to take all action necessary and appropriate to cause the subsequent mergers to occur immediately following the merger.

Conditions to the Merger

Conditions to Each Party's Obligations. Each party's obligation to complete the merger is subject to the satisfaction of the following conditions:

the merger must be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the total number of shares of Commercial Federal common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting;

there must not be in effect any judgment, decree, injunction, order or proceeding by any governmental authority prohibiting the merger; and all regulatory approvals and consents necessary to complete the merger must have been obtained and all applicable waiting periods must have expired, and these regulatory approvals and consents must not have been granted with a condition or restriction upon Bank of the West as a result of the combination of us and Commercial Federal Bank with Bank of the West that would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect (measured on a scale relative to us) on Bank of the West.

Conditions to Bank of the West's and Bear Merger Co.'s Obligations. The obligations of Bank of the West and Bear Merger Co., Inc. to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following additional conditions:

our representations and warranties must be true and correct as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the date we complete the merger, except representations and warranties that speak as of an earlier date, which must be true and correct as of that earlier date, subject to the materiality standards set forth in the merger agreement and we must have delivered to Bank of the West a certificate to that effect;

we must have performed in all material respects all obligations that we are required to perform prior to the date we complete the merger, and we must have delivered to Bank of the West a certificate to that effect;

Termination of the Merger Agreement

We and Bank of the West may by mutual written consent terminate the merger agreement at any time prior to the completion of the merger, whether before or after stockholder approval has been obtained.

In addition, either we or Bank of the West may terminate the merger agreement if:

the merger agreement is not approved by two-thirds the shares outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting;

there is enacted or adopted any law or regulation that makes consummation of the merger illegal or otherwise prohibited, or any governmental entity of competent jurisdiction issues a final nonappealable order, injunction, judgment or decree permanently enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the merger;

any governmental entity that must grant a required regulatory approval has denied approval of the merger and such denial has become final and nonappealable, except that this right to terminate will not be available to any party whose failure to materially comply with their obligations under the merger agreement causes or results in that action;

the merger is not completed on or before March 31, 2006 because any of the applicable conditions to that party's completion of the merger shall not have been met by such date, except that this right to terminate will not be available to any party whose failure to comply with the merger agreement in all material respects causes or results in the failure of the relevant condition by that date; or the other party breaches any of its representations, warranties or covenants, which breach would result in the failure of the applicable merger condition and the breach is not, or cannot be, cured within 60 days after written notice of the breach.

Bank of the West may terminate the merger agreement if:

our board of directors fails to recommend adoption of the merger agreement at the special meeting or withdraws or modifies or qualifies its recommendation for adoption of the merger agreement in a manner which is adverse to Bank of the West;

our board of directors recommends to our stockholders any competing transaction by a third party or fails to recommend against a competing transaction within the 10-business-day time period in which we are required to respond by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; or

if we breach in any material respect our obligation to comply with the provisions of the merger agreement relating to the non-solicitation of competing transaction proposals or in responding to unsolicited competing transaction proposals, or requiring us to call the special meeting or to promptly prepare and mail this proxy statement.

We may terminate the merger agreement without Bank of the West's consent if our board of directors authorizes us to enter into an agreement with respect to a competing transaction; provided, that:

our board of directors complies with the provisions of the merger agreement relating to the non-solicitation of competing transaction proposals and in responding to unsolicited competing transaction proposals (including providing Bank of the West three business days notice prior to our termination);

our board of directors, after consultation with a financial advisor of nationally recognized reputation in similar transactions, reasonably determines in good faith that the competing transaction is a superior proposal;

our board of directors has reasonably determined in good faith (after consultation with outside legal counsel) that the failure to exercise its right to terminate the merger agreement would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law; and we pay a termination fee to Bank of the West as described below.

Table of Contents

For purposes of determining whether a transaction is a competing transaction which may permit us to terminate the merger agreement, all references to 15% or more in the definition of competing transaction above are deemed references to a majority.

Termination Fee

We must pay to Bank of the West a fee of $40 million if the merger agreement is terminated:

by us in connection with exercise of our termination rights as set forth above to enter into a competing transaction concurrently with our acceptance of a competing transaction;

by Bank of the West if we breach in any material respect our obligation to comply with the provisions of the merger agreement relating to the non-solicitation of competing transaction proposals or in responding to unsolicited competing transaction proposals or requiring us to call the special meeting;

by Bank of the West if our board of directors (1) fails to recommend adoption of the merger agreement at the special meeting, or (2) withdraws or modifies or qualifies its recommendation for adoption of the merger agreement in a manner which is adverse to Bank of the West, or (3) recommends to our stockholders any competing transaction by a third party, or (4) we fail to recommend against a competing transaction within the 10 business day time period in which we are required to respond by the Exchange Act;

by either Bank of the West or us if stockholder approval of the merger agreement is not obtained at the special meeting;

by either Bank of the West or us if the merger is not completed on or before March 31, 2006; or by Bank of the West if we have intentionally breached any of our representations, warranties or covenants in the merger agreement and such breach would cause Bank of the West's conditions to the merger not to be satisfied, and the breach is not or cannot be cured within 60 days after written notice of the breach.

In the case of the circumstances described under fourth bullet point above, a termination fee will be payable only if (1) prior to the date of the special meeting, a competing transaction (or a proposal therefor) was publicly announced or there was otherwise publicly communicated an intention to make a competing transaction and (2) within 12 months of the termination of the merger agreement, we or one of our subsidiaries completes a competing transaction or enters into a definitive agreement with respect to a competing transaction.

In the case of the circumstances described under fifth and sixth bullets above, a termination fee will be payable as follows and only if the following events occur:

50% of the termination fee will be payable if, prior to the termination, (1) a competing transaction (or a proposal therefor) was made to our board of directors or publicly announced, and (2) following such public announcement or communication, we intentionally breached any of our representations, warranties, covenants or agreements in the merger agreement, which breach materially contributed to the failure of the effective time of the merger to occur; and the remaining 50% of the termination fee will be payable if, within 12 months of the date of termination of the merger agreement, we or one of our subsidiaries completes a competing transaction or enters into a definitive agreement with respect to a competing transaction.

For purposes of determining whether a transaction is a competing transaction in the context of the payment of a termination fee, all references to 15% or more in the definition of competing transaction above are deemed references to a majority.

Employee Benefits

The merger agreement contains agreements of the parties with respect to various employee benefit matters, which are briefly described below.

Following completion of the merger, Commercial Federal employees will become eligible for the compensation and benefit plans of the Bank of the West. However, employees of Commercial Federal whose employment is terminated during the one-year period following the merger will receive severance payments under Commercial Federal's existing severance plan.

Individuals currently receiving retiree welfare benefits from Commercial Federal and Commercial Federal employees who retire within one year following completion of the merger will be entitled to retiree welfare benefits under Commercial Federal's retiree welfare plans. Commercial Federal employees who retire after such one year period will receive the retiree medical benefits as may be in effect from time to time for similarly situated employees of the Bank of the West. Commercial Federal employees will receive service credit under Bank of the West compensation and benefit plans (other than any defined benefit pension plans).

Bank of the West will pay bonuses to Commercial Federal employees based on actual performance of Commercial Federal (or in the case of the Management Incentive Plan, 50 percent of the maximum amount due under such plan) no later than two and a half months after the end of the fiscal year.

Expenses

The party incurring any costs and expenses in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement will pay those costs and expenses.

Amendment

The parties may mutually agree to amend the merger agreement by action taken or authorized by their respective boards of directors, at any time before or after adoption of the merger agreement by our stockholders. All amendments to the merger agreement must be in writing signed by us, Bank of the West and Bear Merger Co.

Surrender of Stock Certificates; Payment for Shares

We and Bank of the West have appointed Wells Fargo Shareowner Services as the exchange agent. As of the effective time of the merger, Bank of the West will deliver to the exchange agent an amount in cash equal to the aggregate merger consideration.

Edgar Filing: COMMERCIAL FEDERAL CORP - Form PRER14A

Promptly following the completion of the merger, the exchange agent will mail to each holder of record of our shares a letter of transmittal disclosing the procedure for exchanging certificates representing shares of common stock. After the effective time of the merger, each holder of a certificate previously representing shares of our issued and outstanding common stock will, upon surrender to the paying agent of a stock certificate together with a properly completed letter of transmittal, be entitled to receive $34.00 in cash, without interest, for each share of common stock represented by such certificate. No interest will be paid or accrued on the merger consideration upon the surrender of any stock certificate for the benefit of the holder of the certificate.

Appraisal Rights

Under Nebraska law, stockholders of Commercial Federal common stock do not have the right to dissent to the merger, because the Nebraska dissenters' rights statute does not apply to stockholders of a bank or bank holding company.

These forward-looking statements include, without limitation, statements with respect to anticipated future operating and financial performance. These forward-looking statements are based on currently available competitive, financial and economic data and management's views and assumptions regarding future events. These forward-looking statements are inherently uncertain, and investors must recognize that actual results may differ from those expressed or implied in the forward-looking statements. identify these forward-looking statements. The important factors discussed below, as well as other factors discussed elsewhere in this proxy statement and factors identified in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission and those presented elsewhere by our management from time to time, could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated by the forward-looking statements made in this proxy statement. Among the factors that could cause our actual results to differ from these forward-looking statements are:

the strength of the United States economy in general and the strength of the local economies in which we conduct our operations; general economic conditions, either nationally or regionally, may be less favorable than expected, resulting in, among other things, a deterioration in the credit quality of our loans and leases and other assets;

the effects of, and changes in, trade, monetary and fiscal policies and laws, including interest rate policies of the Federal Reserve Board;

financial markets, monetary and interest rate fluctuations, particularly the relative relationship of short-term interest rates to long-term interest rates;

the timely development of and acceptance of new products and services of Commercial Federal and the perceived overall value of these products and services by users, including the features, pricing and quality compared to competitors' products and services;

the impact of changes in financial services laws and regulations (including laws and regulations concerning taxes, accounting standards, banking, securities and insurance); legislative or regulatory changes may adversely affect the business in which we are engaged;

the impact of technological changes;

our ability to successfully integrate acquisitions into our existing operations, and the availability of new acquisitions, joint ventures and alliance opportunities that build stockholder value;

changes in consumer spending and saving habits; and our success at managing the risks involved in the foregoing.

Commercial Federal disclaims any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements based on the occurrence of future events, the receipt of new information, or otherwise.

4.20. Employee Benefit Plans.

(a) Company has previously made available to Parent copies of each employee benefit plan, as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA, of which Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries is a sponsor or participating employer or as to which Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries makes contributions or is required to make contributions and which is subject to any provision of ERISA and covers any employee, whether active or retired, of Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries, together with all amendments thereto, all currently effective and related summary plan descriptions, the determination letter from the IRS, the annual reports for the most recent three years (Form 5500 including, if applicable, Schedule B thereto, and Form 11-K, if applicable) and a summary of material modifications prepared in connection with any such plan. Such plans are hereinafter referred to collectively as the Employee Plans, and are listed in Section 4.20(a) of the Company Disclosure Letter. No Employee Plan is a multiemployer plan within the meaning of Section 3(37) of ERISA. Each Employee Plan that is intended to be qualified in form and operation under Section 401(a) of the Code has received a favorable determination letter from the IRS and the associated trust for each such Employee Plan is exempt from tax under Section 501(a) of the Code. No event has occurred that will subject such Employee Plans to a material amount of tax under Section 511 of the Code. All amendments required to bring each Employee Plan into conformity with all of the applicable provisions of ERISA, the Code and all other applicable Laws have been made, except to the extent that such amendments may be retroactively adopted under Section 401(b) of the Code and the regulations issued thereunder. Except as disclosed in the Company Disclosure Letter, all Employee Plans were in effect prior to January 1, 2005, and there has been no material amendment thereof (other than amendments required to comply with applicable Law).

(b) Company has previously made available to Parent copies or descriptions of each employment agreement, plan or arrangement maintained or otherwise contributed to by Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries which is not an Employee Plan and which (exclusive of base salary and base wages and any benefit required solely under the Law of any state) provides for any form of current or deferred compensation, bonus, stock option, stock awards, stock-based compensation or other forms of incentive compensation or post-termination benefits or insurance, profit sharing, benefit, retirement, severance, change-in-control, group health or insurance, disability, workers' compensation, vacation benefits, welfare or similar benefits to or for the benefit of any employee or class of employees, or former employees or class of former employees, or directors or former directors, whether active or retired, of Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries. Such plans and arrangements are hereinafter collectively referred to as Benefit Arrangements and are listed in Section 4.20(b) of the Company Disclosure Letter. Except as disclosed in the Company Disclosure Letter, all Benefit Arrangements which are in effect were commenced or in effect prior to January 1, 2005. Except as disclosed in the Company Disclosure Letter, there has been no amendment thereof. Except as set forth in the Company Disclosure Letter, there has been no increase in the compensation of or benefits payable to any senior executive employee of Company or any Company Subsidiary since January 1, 2005 nor any employment, severance or similar contract entered into with any such employee, nor any amendment to any such contract, since January 1, 2005.

(c) With respect to all Employee Plans and Benefit Arrangements, Company and the Company Subsidiaries are in compliance (other than noncompliance the cost or liability for which would not have, or would not reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect) with the requirements prescribed by any and all statutes, governmental or court orders, or governmental rules or regulations currently in effect, including but not limited to ERISA and the Code, applicable to such plans or arrangements. All government reports and filings required by Law have been properly and timely filed and all information required to be distributed to participants or beneficiaries has been distributed with respect to each Employee Plan and Benefit Arrangement, including, if applicable, Form S-8 registration statements, Forms 11-K and prospectus disclosures with respect to Company Stock offered under any Employee Plan and Benefit Arrangement (other than noncompliance the cost or liability for which would not have, or would not reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect). Company and the Company Subsidiaries have performed all of their obligations under all such Employee Plans and Benefit Arrangements in all material aspects. There is no pending or, to the best of Company's or Company Subsidiaries' knowledge, threatened legal action, proceeding or investigation against or involving any Employee Plan or Benefit Arrangement, other than routine claims for benefits (other than claims which would not have, or would not reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect). No condition exists that could constitute grounds for the termination of any Employee Plan under Section 4042 of ERISA. No prohibited transaction, as defined in Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code, has occurred with respect to any Employee Plan, or any other employee benefit plan maintained by Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries which is covered by Title I of ERISA, which could subject any person (other than a person for whom Company or any Company Subsidiary is not directly or indirectly responsible) to liability under Title I of ERISA or to the imposition of tax under Section 4975 of the Code (other than any such transaction the cost or liability of which would not have, or would not reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect). No Employee Plan subject to Part 3 of Subtitle B of Title I of ERISA or Section 412 of the Code, or both, has incurred any accumulated funding deficiency, as defined in Section 412 of the Code, whether or not waived, nor has Company or any Company Subsidiary failed to make any contribution or pay any amount due and owing as required by the terms of any Employee Plan or Benefit Arrangement. No reportable event as defined in ERISA has occurred with respect to any of the Employee Plans. Neither Company nor any of the Company Subsidiaries has incurred nor expects to incur, directly or indirectly, any liability under Title IV of ERISA arising in connection with the termination of, or a complete or partial withdrawal from, any plan covered or previously covered by Title IV of ERISA which could constitute a liability of the Surviving Corporation or of any of its Affiliates (including the Company Subsidiaries) at or after the Effective Time of the Merger (other than plans maintained prior to the Effective Time of the Merger by Parent and any of the Company Subsidiaries).

(d) Neither Company nor any of the Company Subsidiaries has provided or is required to provide security to any Employee Plan pursuant to Section 401(a)(29) of the Code. Each of the Employee Plans that is intended to be a qualified plan under Section 401(a) of the Code has received a favorable determination letter from the IRS and neither Company nor any Company Subsidiary knows of any fact that would adversely affect the qualified status of any such Employee Plan and which would not be correctible under the Employee Plans Correction Resolution System (Rev. Proc. 2003-44) without material cost to Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries. All contributions required to be made to each of the Employee Plans under the terms of the Employee Plans, ERISA, the Code or any other applicable laws have been timely made. Except as disclosed in the Company Disclosure Letter, as of the date hereof, the Financial Statements of Company properly reflect all amounts required to be accrued as liabilities to date under each of the Employee Plans. Except as disclosed in the Company Disclosure Letter, the fair market value of the assets of each Employee Plan and Benefit Arrangement that is funded, or required to be funded under the terms of the Employee Plan or Benefit Arrangement, ERISA, the Code or any other applicable Law, equals or exceeds the present value of benefit obligations, of such Employee Plan or Benefit Arrangement. Except as disclosed in the Company Disclosure Letters, Company and the Company Subsidiaries have no obligation to provide post-termination or retiree welfare benefits to any person for any reason, except as may be required by The Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985, as amended or similar state statute.

(g) Neither Company nor any of the Company Subsidiaries has used the services of (i) workers who have been provided by a third party contract labor supplier for more than six months or who may otherwise be eligible to participate in any of the Employee Plans or to an extent that would result in the disqualification of any of the Employee Plans or the imposition of penalties or excise taxes with respect to the IRS, the Department of Labor, the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation or any other Governmental Entity; (ii) temporary employees who have worked for more than six months or who may otherwise be eligible to participate in any of the Employee Plans or to an extent that would result in the disqualification of any of the Employee Plans or the imposition of penalties or excise taxes with respect to the IRS, the Department of Labor, the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation or any other Governmental Entity; (iii) individuals who have provided services to Company or the Company Subsidiaries as independent contractors for more than six months or who may otherwise be eligible to participate in the Employee Plans or to an extent that would result in the disqualification of any of the Employee Plans or the imposition of penalties or excise taxes with respect to the IRS, the Department of Labor, the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation or any other Governmental Entity; or (iv) leased employees, as that term is defined in section 414(n) of the Code.

(h) With respect to each Employee Plan that is funded wholly or partially through an insurance policy, there will be no material liability of Company or the Company Subsidiaries, as of the Closing Date, under any such insurance policy or ancillary agreement with respect to such insurance policy in the nature of a retroactive rate adjustment, loss sharing arrangement or other actual or contingent liability arising wholly or partially out of events occurring prior to the Closing Date.

(i) Except as set forth in the Company Disclosure Letter, no Company Employee Plan or Benefit Arrangement provides a gross-up for any Taxes which may be imposed under Section 4999 of the Code relating to parachute payments or for failure to comply with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code.

(j) As of the date hereof, the compensation information that Company has furnished to Parent for purposes of calculating the amount of any excess parachute payments (within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code) that may be payable in connection with the Merger, assuming the Merger is consummated in 2005, is true and correct in all respects (except with respect to any omissions or errors that are in the aggregate de minimis in amount.)

4.28. Indemnification. Other than pursuant to the provisions of their respective Certificate of Incorporation or Articles of Association, as the case may be, or Bylaws, or as disclosed in the Company Disclosure Letter, the Company SEC Filings, the Merrill Lynch Agreement, the Sandler O'Neill Agreement, the Scheduled Contracts, or pursuant to non-material leases, vendor or other similar contracts entered into in the ordinary course of business, neither Company nor any of the Company Subsidiaries is a party to any indemnification agreement with any of its present or past officers, directors, employees, agents or other persons who serve or served in any other capacity with any other enterprise at the request of Company or the Company Subsidiaries (Covered Parties), and, to the best knowledge of Company, there are no claims for which any Covered Party would be entitled to indemnification by Company or the Company Subsidiaries if such provisions were deemed in effect.

For purposes of this Agreement, Competing Transaction shall mean any of the following involving any Person other than Parent or any of its Affiliates: any merger, consolidation, share exchange or other business combination with or into the Company or any Company Subsidiary; a sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition of assets of Company or the Company Subsidiaries representing 15% or more of the consolidated assets of Company and the Company Subsidiaries; a sale of shares of capital stock (or securities convertible or exchangeable into or otherwise evidencing, or any agreement or instrument evidencing, the right to acquire capital stock), representing 15% or more of the voting power of Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries; or a tender offer or exchange offer for at least 15% of the outstanding shares of Company. Company will immediately cease and cause to be terminated (and will cause the Company Subsidiaries to cease and terminate) any existing activities, discussions or negotiations with any parties (other than Parent and its Affiliates and representatives) conducted heretofore with respect to any of the foregoing. Company shall (and shall cause the Company Subsidiaries to) take the necessary steps to inform promptly the appropriate individuals or entities referred to above of the obligations undertaken in this Section. Company shall notify Parent (orally and in writing) within 24 hours of the receipt of any such inquiries, proposals or offers, the request for any such information, or the initiation or continuation of any such negotiations or discussions which are sought to be initiated or continued with Company and the Company Subsidiaries. Company shall promptly request each other Person, other than Parent or its Affiliates, that has, in the past twelve months, executed a confidentiality agreement in connection with its consideration of entering into a business combination with Company and the Company Subsidiaries (other than a business combination in which Company or a Company Subsidiary would acquire control of such Person) to return all confidential information heretofore furnished to such person by or on behalf of Company and the Company Subsidiaries and enforce any such confidentiality agreements. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Section 6.7 or any other provision of this Agreement, prior to (but not after) the date of the Company Stockholder Approval, and subject to compliance with the other terms of this Section 6.7, and to first entering into a confidentiality agreement with any such Person having provisions that are no less favorable to Company than those contained in the Confidentiality Agreement, the Board of Directors of Company shall be permitted to engage in discussions or negotiations with, and provide nonpublic information or data to, any Person in response to a bona fide written proposal for a Competing Transaction by such Person first made after the date hereof which was not solicited, initiated or knowingly encouraged by Company or any of its Affiliates or any Representative on or after the date hereof and which the Board of Directors of Company concludes in good faith (after consultation with a financial advisor of nationally recognized reputation in similar transactions) constitutes or is reasonably likely to result in a Superior Proposal (as defined below), if and only to the extent that the Board of Directors of Company reasonably determines in good faith (after consultation with outside legal counsel) that failure to do so would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable Law; provided, that Company shall have given Parent (orally and in writing) at least three (3) Business Days prior written notice of its intent to do so before taking the first of any such actions with any one such Person; provided, further, that Company and the Board of Directors of Company shall keep Parent informed of the status and terms of any such proposals, offers, discussions or negotiations on a prompt basis, including by providing a copy of all material documentation or correspondence relating thereto. For purposes of this Agreement, Superior Proposal shall mean a bona fide unsolicited written proposal for a Competing Transaction which the Board of Directors concludes in good faith, after consultation with a financial advisor of nationally recognized reputation in similar transactions and its legal advisors, taking into account all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the proposal (including, without limitation, all the terms and conditions of such proposal, including any break-up fees, expense reimbursement provisions and conditions to consummation, as well as any revisions to the terms of the Merger or this Agreement proposed by Parent) and the Person making the proposal (i) is more favorable to Company's stockholders from a financial point of view, than the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and (ii) is fully financed or reasonably capable of being fully financed, reasonably likely to receive all required governmental approvals on a timely basis and otherwise reasonably capable of being completed on the terms proposed; provided, that, for purposes of this definition of Superior Proposal the term Competing Transaction shall have the meaning assigned to such term in this Section 6.7, except that the reference to 15% or more in the definition of Competing Transaction shall be deemed to be a reference to a majority ;

6.8. Applications. Company will promptly prepare or cause to be prepared the Proxy Statement and will duly send the same to the holders of the Company Stock in connection with the Company Stockholders Meeting, and further agrees to provide any information requested by Parent for the preparation of any applications necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. Company shall afford Parent a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on the Proxy Statement and all amendments and supplements thereto before the filing thereof with the SEC. Company covenants and agrees that, with respect to the information relating to Company or the Company Subsidiaries, the Proxy Statement will comply in all material respects with the provisions of applicable Law, and will not contain any untrue statement of material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements contained therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. Company will use its commercially reasonable efforts to assist Parent in obtaining all approvals or consents of Governmental Entities necessary to effect the Merger and the transactions contemplated herein.

6.9. Subsequent Mergers. Company shall, and shall cause Bank to, cooperate in all reasonable respects with Parent in Parent's efforts to obtain the approval of or consent to the Subsequent Mergers by all Governmental Entities whose approval or consent is required for the consummation thereof (including without limitation the execution and filing by Bank along with Parent of an application to the FDIC under the Bank Merger Act). Company and Parent shall take all action necessary and appropriate to cause the merger of Bank with and into Parent, with Parent as the surviving institution, immediately following the Merger, including by executing (in the case of Parent) and causing Bank to execute (in the case of Company), upon request of Parent, the Merger Agreement. After such approvals or consents have been obtained with respect to the Subsequent Mergers, as well as all required approvals or consents by any Governmental Entity with respect to the Merger, or prior thereto if notices are being sent pursuant to Section 7.2, Company and Bank will cooperate in all reasonable respects with Parent to facilitate the mailing or posting in a timely fashion of any notices to customers of the Bank or other Persons with respect to the Subsequent Mergers deemed necessary or appropriate by Parent, the cost thereof to be borne by Parent. At Parent's request, and at its expense, Company and the Company Subsidiaries shall cooperate in all reasonable respects to facilitate the divestiture to third parties of any branches or assets of Company or any Company Subsidiary which may be required by any Governmental Entity as a condition to approval or consent to the Merger, any such divestiture to be subject to consummation of the Merger. By its execution of this Agreement, Company, in its capacity as the sole shareholder of Bank, shall be deemed to have duly approved the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated therein. For the avoidance of doubt, the consummation of the Subsequent Mergers pursuant to the Merger Agreement shall be subject to and conditioned upon the prior consummation of the Merger pursuant to the terms and provisions of this Agreement, and the Subsequent Mergers shall be consummated immediately following the Merger, subject to the terms and conditions hereof.

6.10. Takeover Statute. If any Takeover Statute is or may become applicable to the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, each of Parent and Company and their respective Board of Directors shall grant such approvals and take such actions as are necessary so that such transactions may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms contemplated by this Agreement or by the Merger, and otherwise act to eliminate or minimize the effects of such statute or regulation on such transactions.

7.1. Limitation on Conduct Prior to Effective Time of the Merger. Between the date hereof and the Effective Time of the Merger, except as contemplated by this Agreement and subject to requirements of Law, each of Parent and its Subsidiaries shall not, without the prior written consent of Company:

(a) take any action which would or is reasonably likely to (i) adversely affect the ability to obtain any necessary approvals of any Governmental Entity required for the transactions contemplated hereby; (ii) adversely affect Parent's ability to perform its covenants and agreements under this Agreement; or (iii) result in any of the conditions to the performance of Company's or Parent's obligations hereunder, as set forth in Articles 10 or 11 herein not being satisfied; or

(b) agree or make any commitment to take any actions prohibited by this Section 7.1.

Parent shall afford Company a reasonable opportunity to review, subject to applicable Law, all such applications (except for confidential portions thereof) and all correspondence, amendments and supplements thereto before the filing thereof and provide Company with copies of any such correspondence, amendments or supplements at the time that they are filed. With the cooperation of Company and Bank pursuant to Section 6.9, Parent will provide (or cooperate to enable Company or Bank to provide notices required by Company or Bank) as promptly as practicable any required notices to customers or other Persons with respect to the Subsequent Mergers in order to facilitate the Closing at the earliest date practical, consistent with Section 3.1, including providing such notices in advance of receipt of the required approvals or consents for the Subsequent Mergers if the date thereof can be reasonably anticipated. Parent agrees to timely provide any information reasonably requested by Company which is necessary for the preparation of the Proxy Statement and all amendments and supplements thereto, and agrees that the information provided by it for use in the Proxy Statement will comply in all material respects with the provisions of applicable Law, and will not contain any untrue statement of material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements contained therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation whether civil, criminal, or administrative, based in whole or in part on or arising in whole or in part out of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of Company or any Subsidiary of Company, or pertaining to any matter existing or occurring, or any acts or omissions occurring, at or prior to the Effective Time of the Merger, whether asserted or claimed prior to, or at or after, the Effective Time of the Merger (including matters, acts or omissions occurring in connection with the approval of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby) (Indemnified Liabilities) (x) to the same extent such persons are indemnified or have the right to advancement of expenses as of the date of this Agreement by Company pursuant to Company's Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws and indemnification agreements, if any, in existence on the date hereof (all such agreements being listed in the Company Disclosure Letter) with any directors or officers of Company and its Subsidiaries and (y) without limitation of, and in addition to clause (x), to the fullest extent permitted by Law.

(b) For a period of six years after the Effective Time of the Merger, Parent shall cause to be maintained in effect the current policies of directors and officers' liability insurance maintained by Company (provided, that the Surviving Corporation may substitute therefor policies with a substantially comparable insurer of at least the same coverage, amounts and retentions containing terms and conditions which are no less advantageous to the insured) with respect to claims arising from facts or events which occurred at or before the Effective Time of the Merger; provided, however, that the Surviving Corporation shall not be obligated to make annual premium payments for such insurance to the extent such premiums exceed 200% of the premiums paid as of the date hereof by Company for such insurance (Company's Current Premium), and if such premiums for such insurance would at any time exceed 200% of Company's Current Premium, then the Surviving Corporation shall cause to be maintained policies of insurance which, in the Surviving Corporation's good faith determination, provide the maximum coverage available at an annual premium equal to 200% of Company's Current Premium.

(c) Parent shall pay (as incurred) all expenses, including reasonable fees and expenses of counsel, that an Indemnified Person may incur in enforcing the indemnity and other obligations provided for in this Section 7.4.

(d) If the Surviving Corporation or any of its successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other person and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger, or (ii) transfers or conveys all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any person, then, and in each such case, to the extent necessary, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of the Surviving Corporation, as the case may be, shall assume the obligations set forth in this Section 7.4.

(e) The provisions of this Section 7.4, (i) are intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnified Party, his or her heirs and representatives and (ii) are in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other rights to indemnification or contribution that any such person may have or contract or otherwise.

7.5. Limitation on Parent Conduct Prior to Effective Time of the Merger. Parent agrees that it shall not, and it shall not permit Merger Sub, to take any action which would or could reasonably be expected to (i) materially adversely affect the ability of Parent to obtain any necessary approval of any Governmental Entity required for the transactions contemplated hereby; (ii) materially adversely affect Parent's ability to perform its covenants and agreements under this Agreement; or (iii) result in any of the conditions to the performance of Parent's or Company's obligations hereunder, as set forth in Articles 9, 10 or 11 herein not being satisfied.

(b) Following the Effective Time of the Merger and until on or after the Payroll Conversion Date, Continuing Employees shall continue to participate in the Company Employee Plans and Benefit Arrangements (other than equity-based plans or arrangements). On and after the Payroll Conversion Date, Continuing Employees shall become eligible for the compensation and employee benefit plans and benefit arrangements of Parent (including, without limitation, the medical, dental, vision, 401(k) and pension plans of Parent) on the same terms as such plans and arrangements are generally offered from time to time to employees of Parent in comparable positions with Parent (subject to any applicable restrictions or limitations on new entrants or categories of entrants), it being understood that, except as otherwise provided in this Section 12.1 or under the terms of any such Company Employee Plan or Benefit Arrangement, or compensation and employee benefit plans and arrangements or applicable Law, Parent shall be entitled from time to time to modify, terminate or supplement any such employee plans or benefit arrangements or to substitute new employee plans or benefit arrangements for such employee plans or benefit arrangements in the exercise of their business judgment.

(c) With respect to any employee plans and benefit arrangements of Parent in which any Continuing Employee first becomes eligible to participate on or after the Effective Time of the Merger (New Plans), Parent shall (i) waive all pre-existing conditions, exclusions and waiting periods with respect to participation and coverage requirements under any such New Plans, except to the extent such conditions or exclusions would have been recognized under the Company Employee Plans or Benefit Arrangements, (ii) recognize service of the Continuing Employees which was credited under Company Employee Plans or Benefit Arrangements prior to the Payroll Conversion Date for purposes of eligibility, vesting and benefit accruals under the New Plans (but not for purposes of benefit accrual under any employee pension plans), (iii) credit any deductibles, co-payments or other out-of-pocket expenses for the current calendar year for each employee and dependent recognized or recognizable under the Company Employee Plans or Benefit Arrangements, and (iv) apply any increase in any of the employee's portion of the premium cost, deductibles, co-payments and other out-of-pocket costs no earlier than the later of the first day of the first plan year beginning after the Effective Time of the Merger of either the Company Employee Plan or Benefit Arrangement or the employee plan or benefit arrangement of the Parent. In addition to the foregoing, with respect to all vacation, volunteer time, funeral time, school conferences, sick time, personal time, and sabbatical leave that has been accrued through the Effective Time of the Merger (PTO) by any Continuing Employee under the applicable PTO Plan, Parent shall, or shall cause its Subsidiaries to, at its discretion, either pay the Continuing Employee his or her PTO as soon as practicable after the Effective Time of the Merger or allow such Continuing Employee to convert such PTO into vacation or sick leave (or a combination thereof); provided, however, that any such converted PTO may be subject to a maximum cap, with any excess PTO to be paid in cash to the Continuing Employee as soon as practicable after the Effective Time of the Merger. Company agrees that it will accrue as a liability on its financial statements prior to the Closing its good faith estimate of the dollar amount attributable to such PTO and will advise Parent in writing of the amount of such accrual at least five (5) Business Days prior to the Closing Date. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, those individuals who are currently receiving retiree welfare benefits from the Company and individuals who retire within the twelve month period following the Effective Time of the Merger and are eligible for retiree welfare benefits from the Company under the terms of the applicable retiree welfare plan as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time of the Merger, shall be entitled to retiree welfare benefits in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time of the Merger for employees of the Company and its Subsidiaries. Continuing Employees who retire after the twelve month period following the Effective Time of the Merger shall be eligible for retiree welfare benefits of Parent as may be in effect from time to time for similarly situated employees of the Parent.

(d) Parent agrees that after the Effective Time of the Merger, Parent will pay or provide for the year ending December 31, 2005, to those persons employed by Company or the Company Subsidiaries immediately prior to the Effective Time of the Merger and who are eligible, a credit to the employee's account under the Commercial Federal Bank Amended and Restated Deferred Compensation Plan for Highly Compensated Employees (the Deferred Compensation Plan) a percentage of compensation through December 31, 2005, or if earlier, the date of termination of employment (provided such termination of employment shall be involuntary and not due to death, Disability or Cause) as a result of the consummation of the transactions contemplated under this Agreement in accordance with the terms of the Deferred Compensation Plan as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time of the Merger. Company agrees that it will accrue as a liability on its financial statements prior to the Closing its good faith estimate of the dollar amount attributable to such deferred compensation account credit and will advise Parent in writing of the amount of such accrual at least five (5) Business Days prior to the Closing Date. Company also represents and warrants that the only employees of Company and the Company Subsidiaries who are participating in the Deferred Compensation Plan are those that are identified as such in the Company Disclosure Letter and agrees that after the execution and delivery of this Agreement, no other employees shall be designated as participants therein.

(e) (i) Except with respect to employees described in Section 12.1(e)(ii) below, Parent will pay and provide to employees of Company or the Company Subsidiaries whose employment terminates on or within twelve months after the Effective Date of the Merger as a result of the consummation of the transactions contemplated under this Agreement severance benefits under conditions and in an amount that are no less favorable to the employee than those contained in the Company Severance Plan as disclosed in the Company Disclosure Letter as in effect on the date this Agreement is executed.

(ii) Parent will pay and provide to Employees of the Company or the Company Subsidiaries whose employment terminates on or after the Effective Time of the Merger and who, as a result, become eligible for benefits under the terms of the Change in Control Agreements as disclosed in the Company Disclosure Letter, the benefits to which the employee is entitled under the terms of the Change in Control Agreements.

(f) Parent will cause the Surviving Corporation to assume and perform all of the obligations of Company under the terms of the Deferred Compensation Plan and any directors plans, subject to Parent's right to amend such plans in accordance with their terms, other than to reduce the amount of benefits previously accrued or required to be credited under Section 12.1(d) hereof or to adversely affect the timing or manner of payment of any benefits due or the intended tax effect to any participant (other than the right, after the Effective Time of the Merger, to receive distributions in the form of Company Stock).

12.2. Company Stock Options, Company Awards and the Company Stock Option Plans.

(a) As soon as practicable following the date of this Agreement, the Board of Directors of Company (or, if appropriate, any committee administering the Company Stock Option Plans) shall adopt such resolutions or take such other actions as are required (including, if necessary, amending any of the Company Stock Option Plans) to provide for the cancellation of all outstanding Company Stock Options upon the Effective Time of the Merger, in exchange for a cash payment by Parent of an amount equal to (i) the excess, if any, of (x) the Merger Consideration plus the Special Dividend less the amount, if any, of the Special Retention Bonus paid over (y) the exercise price per share of Company Stock subject to such Company Stock Option, multiplied by (ii) the number of shares of Company Stock subject to such Company Stock Option for which such Company Stock Option shall not theretofore have been exercised, whether vested or unvested and whether or not then exercisable. Such payment shall be made by Parent as soon as practicable, but no more than two business days after the Effective Time of the Merger.

(b) At the Effective Time of the Merger, each right of any kind, contingent or accrued, to receive shares of Company Stock or benefits measured by the value of a number of shares of Company Stock, granted under the Employee Plans and Benefit Arrangements (including, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock units, deferred stock units, phantom units and other deferral amounts), other than Company Stock Options and shares of Company Stock subject to restriction (each, a Company Award), which is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time of the Merger shall cease to represent a right or award with respect to shares of Company Stock and shall be converted, at the Effective Time of the Merger, into a right or award with respect to (i) the Merger Consideration plus the Special Dividend less the amount, if any, of the Special Retention Bonus paid multiplied by (ii) the number of shares of Company Stock subject to such Company Award, whether vested or unvested (and the Company Awards otherwise shall remain subject to the terms of the Employee Plans and Benefit Arrangements and the agreements or letters evidencing grants thereunder). Company agrees that it or its relevant committee shall take such action prior to the Effective Time of the Merger as may be required under the terms of any Company Employee Plan or Benefit Arrangement to pay such Company Awards in cash.

(c) All amounts payable pursuant to this Section 12.2 shall be subject to any required withholding of taxes and shall be paid without interest. It is understood that any payments made by Parent to holders of Company Stock Options and Company Awards pursuant to this Section 12.2 shall be allocable to the portion of the Closing Date following the Effective Time of the Merger for purposes of Section 1.1502-76(b)(1)(ii)(B) of the Treasury Regulations.

(d) The Board of Directors of Company (or, if appropriate, any committee administering the Company Stock Option Plans and the Employee Plans and Benefit Arrangements) shall adopt such resolutions or take such actions as are required to delete as of the Effective Time of the Merger the provision in any other Benefit Arrangements of Company providing for the issuance, transfer or grant of Company Stock or any interest in respect of Company Stock and to ensure that following the Effective Time of the Merger no holder of a Company Stock Option or Company Award or any participant in any Company Stock Option Plan or other Employee Plan or Benefit Arrangements shall have any right thereunder to acquire any Company Stock or any capital stock of the Surviving Corporation.

(e) (i) Parent shall, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, continue to maintain the Company's 2005 annual bonus plan(s) (other than the Management Incentive Plan) (the Bonus Plans) for the 2005 fiscal year and shall pay in cash to employees all bonus amounts due under such Bonus Plans pursuant to the terms of the Bonus Plans. Any participant in the Bonus Plans who incurs an involuntary termination of employment without cause following the Effective Time of the Merger and prior to the date on which bonuses are paid under the Bonus Plans shall be paid a bonus at such time as bonuses are paid to similarly situated active participants equal to the product of (x) the amount of bonus that would have been paid to such participant had such participant continued in the employ of the Company through the applicable payment date and (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in the bonus plan year during which the participant was employed by the Company and the denominator of which is 365. Company agrees that it will accrue as a liability on its financial statements prior to the Closing its good faith estimate of the dollar amount attributable to such bonus amounts and will advise Parent in writing of the amount of such accrual at least five (5) Business Days prior to the Closing Date. Bonuses for the 2005 fiscal year will be paid no later than 2 ½ months following the end of the fiscal year.

(ii) Parent shall continue to maintain the Company's Management Incentive Plan (the Management Incentive Plan) for the 2005 fiscal year and shall pay in cash to participants who are employed on February 28, 2006, 50% of the maximum amount due under such Management Incentive Plan for 2005 pursuant to the terms of the Management Incentive Plan, regardless of whether Bank meets its performance goal(s) for 2005. Any participant in the Management Incentive Plan who incurs an involuntary termination of employment without cause following the Effective Time of the Merger and prior to February 28, 2006 shall be paid a bonus under the Management Incentive Plan at such time as bonuses are paid to similarly situated active participants equal to the product of (x) the amount of bonus that would have been paid to such participant had such participant continued in the employ of the Company through the applicable payment date and (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in the Management Incentive Plan year during which the participant was employed by the Company and the denominator of which is 365. Company agrees that it will accrue as a liability on its financial statements prior to the Closing its good faith estimate of the dollar amount attributable to such bonus amounts payable under the Management Incentive Plan and will advise Parent in writing of the amount of such accrual at least five (5) Business Days prior to the Closing Date. Bonuses for the 2005 fiscal year will be paid no later than 2 ½ months following the end of the fiscal year.

(a) By mutual agreement of the parties, in writing;

(b) By Parent or Company upon the failure of the stockholders of Company to give the Company Stockholder Approval at the duly convened Company Stockholders Meeting;

(c) By Company, upon written notice to Parent, if there shall have been a breach by Parent or Merger Sub of any of the covenants or agreements or any of the representations or warranties set forth in this Agreement on the part of Parent or Merger Sub, which breach, either individually or in the aggregate, would result in the failure of the condition set forth in Section 10.1 and which breach has not been cured within 60 days following written notice thereof to Parent or, by its nature, cannot be cured within such time period;

(d) By Parent, upon written notice to Company, if there shall have been a breach by Company of any of the covenants or agreements or any of the representations or warranties set forth in this Agreement on the part of Company, which breach, either individually or in the aggregate, would result in the failure of the condition set forth in Section 11.1 and which breach has not been cured within 60 days following written notice thereof to Company or, by its nature, cannot be cured within such time period;

(e) By Company or Parent if (i) there shall be enacted or adopted hereafter any Law or regulation that makes consummation of the Merger illegal or otherwise prohibited or if any judgment, injunction, order or decree enjoining Parent or Company from consummating the Merger is entered by any Governmental Entity of competent jurisdiction and such judgment, injunction, order or decree shall become final and nonappealable, or (ii) any Governmental Entity which must grant a regulatory approval or consent required for consummation of the Merger has denied such approval or consent and such denial has become final and nonappealable; provided, however, that such right to terminate this Agreement under clause (ii) of this Section 13.1(e) shall not be available to Company or Parent if either such party's failure to comply in all material respects with Section 6.8 or 7.2, respectively, was a cause of such action;

(f) By Company or Parent if any conditions set forth in Article 9 shall not have been met by March 31, 2006; provided, however, that this Agreement shall not be terminated pursuant to this Section 13.1(f) if the relevant condition shall have failed due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate to comply in all material respects with its obligations under this Agreement;

(g) By Company if any of the conditions set forth in Article 10 shall not have been met or waived (to the extent such can be legally waived) by March 31, 2006; provided, however, that this Agreement shall not be terminated pursuant to this Section 13.1(g) if the relevant condition shall have failed due to the failure of Company to comply in all material respects with its obligations under this Agreement;

(h) By Parent if any of the conditions set forth in Article 11 shall not have been met or waived (to the extent such can be legally waived) by March 31, 2006; provided, however, that this Agreement shall not be terminated pursuant to this Section 13.1(h) if the relevant condition shall have failed due to the failure of Parent to comply in all material respects with its obligations under this Agreement;

(i) By Parent if Company or the Company Subsidiaries shall have breached in any material respect any of their obligations contained in Sections 6.6 or 6.7 or Company shall have breached in any material respect its obligation under Section 6.8 to promptly prepare or cause to be prepared the Proxy Statement and to send the same to the holders of Company Stock in connection with the Company Stockholders Meeting;

(j) By Parent if the Board of Directors of Company shall have failed to recommend adoption of this Agreement at the duly convened Company Stockholders Meeting, or there has otherwise been a Change in Company Recommendation, whether or not permitted by the terms hereof; or

(k) By Company if the Board of Directors of Company shall, concurrently with such termination, authorize Company to enter into an agreement with respect to a Competing Transaction; provided, however, that Company may only exercise its right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 13.1(k) if (i) Company shall have complied in all material respects with Section 6.7 (including, without limitation, providing to Parent at least three (3) Business Days prior written notice of its intention to take such termination action); (ii) the Board of Directors of Company concludes in good faith (after consultation with a financial advisor of nationally recognized reputation in similar transactions) that such Competing Transaction constitutes a Superior Proposal; (iii) the Board of Directors of Company reasonably determines in good faith (after consultation with outside legal counsel) that the failure to exercise such right of termination would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable Law; and (iv) simultaneously with such termination, Company shall make a payment to Parent in an amount equal to the Termination Fee (as such term is defined below) ; provided, that for purposes of this Section 13.1(k) the term Competing Transaction shall have the meaning set forth in Section 6.7, except that the reference to 15% or more in the definition of Competing Transaction shall be deemed to be a reference to a majority.

13.2. Effect of Termination.

(a) In the event of termination of this Agreement by either Company or Parent as provided in Section 13.1, neither Company nor Parent shall have any further obligation or liability to the other party except with respect to the last sentence of Section 6.3, Section 13.1(k)(iv) and this Section 13.2; provided, however, that nothing herein shall relieve any party from liability for any willful and material breach of the warranties and representations made by it, or willful and material failure in performance of any of its covenants, agreements or obligations hereunder.

(b) Company shall pay Parent (by Fed wire transfer of immediately available funds to such account as may be designated by Parent in writing to Company) an amount equal to $40,000,000 (the Termination Fee) if this Agreement is terminated as follows:

(i) if Parent shall terminate this Agreement pursuant to Sections 13.1(i) or (j) then Company shall pay Parent the Termination Fee on the Business Day following such termination;

(ii) if (A) either party shall terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 13.1(b) and (B) at any time after the date of this Agreement and before the date of the Company Stockholders Meeting, a bona fide Competing Transaction (or a proposal therefor) shall have been publicly announced or otherwise publicly communicated to Company's stockholders; and if (C) within twelve (12) months of the date of such termination of this Agreement, Company or any of its Subsidiaries executes any definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates, any Competing Transaction, then Company shall pay to Parent the Termination Fee on the Business Day following such execution or consummation; provided, that for purposes of this paragraph (ii) the term Competing Transaction shall have the meaning set forth in Section 6.7, except that the reference to 15% or more in the definition of Competing Transaction shall be deemed to be a reference to a majority ; and

(iii) if (A) either party shall terminate this Agreement pursuant to Sections 13.1(f), (g) or (h) or Parent shall terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 13.1(d), (B) at any time after the date of this Agreement and before such termination a bona fide Competing Transaction (or a proposal therefor) shall have been publicly announced or otherwise communicated to the Board of Directors of Company and (C) following such public announcement or communication of such Competing Transaction (or a proposal therefor), Company shall have intentionally breached (and not cured after notice thereof) any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement, which breach shall have materially contributed to the failure of the Effective Time of the Merger to occur prior to the termination of this Agreement, then Company shall pay to Parent 50% of the Termination Fee on the Business Day following such termination; and if (D) within twelve (12) months of the date of such termination of this Agreement, Company or any of its Subsidiaries executes any definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates, any Competing Transaction, then Company shall pay to Parent the remaining 50% of the Termination Fee on the Business Day following such execution or consummation; provided, that for purposes of this paragraph (iii) the term Competing Transaction shall have the meaning set forth in Section 6.7, except that the reference to 15% or more in the definition of Competing Transaction shall be deemed to be a reference to a majority.

(c) If Company fails to pay all amounts due to Parent on the dates specified in this Section 13.2, then Company shall pay all costs and expenses (including legal fees and expenses) incurred by Parent in connection with any action or proceeding (including the filing of any lawsuit) taken by it to collect such unpaid amounts, together with interest on such unpaid amounts at the prime lending rate prevailing at such time, as published in the Wall Street Journal, from the date such amounts were required to be paid until the date actually received by Parent.

(d) Parent (for itself and its Affiliates) hereby agrees that, upon any termination of this Agreement under circumstances where Parent is entitled to a Termination Fee under this Section 13.2 and Parent receives such Termination Fee, Parent and its Affiliates shall be precluded from any other remedy against Company, at law or in equity or otherwise, and neither Parent nor any of its Affiliates shall seek (and Parent shall cause its Affiliates not to seek) to obtain any recovery, judgment, or damages of any kind, including consequential, indirect, or punitive damages, against Company or any Company Subsidiary or any of their respective directors, officers, employees, partners, managers, members or stockholders in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby.

Gentlemen:

Commercial Federal Corporation (Commercial Federal), Banc of the West (Banc of the West) and Bear Merger Co., a wholly owned subsidiary of Bank of the West (Merger Sub), have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of June 13, 2005 (collectively, the Agreement), pursuant to which Merger Sub will merge with and into Commercial Federal (the Merger). Under the terms of the Agreement, upon consummation of the Merger, each share of Commercial Federal common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Merger, other than certain shares specified in the Agreement (the Commercial Federal Shares), will be converted into the right to receive $34.00 in cash, without interest (the Closing Date Consideration). In addition, it is contemplated that prior to the consummation of the Merger, Commercial Federal will pay a special dividend to its shareholders in an amount not to exceed $0.50 per share (the Closing Date Consideration and the special dividend, assuming that it will be in an amount of $0.50 per share, are collectively referred to as the Merger Consideration). The other terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Agreement. You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to the holders of Commercial Federal Shares.

Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P., as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions. In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed, among other things: (i) the Agreement; (ii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Commercial Federal that we deemed relevant; (iii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Banc of the West that we deemed relevant; (iv) internal budgets for Commercial Federal for the years ending December 31, 2005 and 2006 prepared by and reviewed with senior management of Commercial Federal and earnings growth estimates for the years thereafter furnished by and discussed with senior management of Commercial Federal; (v) earning per share estimates for Commercial Federal for the years ending December 31, 2005 and 2006 and earnings per share growth rates for the years thereafter, in each case, published by IBES; (vi) the publicly reported historical price and trading activity for Commercial Federal's common stock, including a comparison of certain financial and stock market information for Commercial Federal with similar publicly available information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded; (vii) to the extent publicly available, the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the savings institutions and commercial banking industries; (viii) the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and (ix) such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as we considered relevant.

We also discussed with certain members of the senior management of Commercial Federal the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Commercial Federal. In connection with our engagement, we did not solicit indications of interest in a potential transaction from any third parties.

In performing our review, we have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to us from public sources, that was provided to us by Commercial Federal or Banc of the West or their respective representatives or that was otherwise reviewed by us and we have assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering this opinion. We have further relied on the assurances of the senior management of each of Commercial Federal and Banc of the West that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. We have not been asked to undertake, and have not undertaken, an independent verification of any of such information and we do not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. We did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Commercial Federal or Banc of the West or any of their subsidiaries, or the collectibility of any such assets, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. We did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Commercial Federal or Banc of the West nor have we reviewed any individual credit files relating to Commercial Federal or Banc of the West. We have assumed, with your consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for both Commercial Federal and Banc of the West are adequate to cover such losses.

With respect to the internal budgets and estimates for Commercial Federal used by Sandler O'Neill in its analyses, the senior management of Commercial Federal confirmed to us that those projections and estimates reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of the future financial performances of Commercial Federal. We assumed that the financial performances reflected in all budgets and estimates used by us in our analyses would be achieved. We express no opinion as to such budgets, or estimates or the assumptions on which they are based. We have also assumed that there has been no material change in the assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of Commercial Federal or Banc of the West since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to us. We have assumed in all respects material to our analysis that Commercial Federal and Banc of the West will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to our analyses, that all of the representations and warranties contained in the Agreement and all related agreements are true and correct, that each party to the agreements will perform all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under the agreements and that the conditions precedent in the agreements are not waived. Finally, with your consent, we have relied upon the advice Commercial Federal has received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Agreement.

Our opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Events occurring after the date hereof could materially affect this opinion. We have not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw this opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date hereof. We are expressing no opinion herein as the price at which the common stock of Commercial Federal may trade at any time.

We have acted as Commercial Federal's financial advisor in connection with the Merger and will receive a fee for our services, a substantial portion of which is contingent upon consummation of the Merger. We will also receive a fee for rendering this opinion. Commercial Federal has also agreed to indemnify us against certain liabilities arising out of our engagement.

In the ordinary course of our business as a broker-dealer, we may purchase securities from and sell securities to Commercial Federal and Banc of the West and their affiliates. We may also actively trade the equity and/or debt securities of Commercial Federal and/or its affiliates and/or of Banc of the West for our own account and for the accounts of our customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

Our opinion is directed to the Board of Directors of Commercial Federal in connection with its consideration of the Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of Commercial Federal as to how such shareholder should vote at any meeting of shareholders called to consider and vote upon the Agreement. Our opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to holders of Commercial Federal Shares and does not address the underlying business decision of Commercial Federal to engage in the Merger, the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any other alternative business strategies that might exist for Commercial Federal or the effect of any other transaction in which Commercial Federal might engage. Our opinion is not to be quoted or referred to, in whole or in part, in a registration statement, prospectus, proxy statement or in any other document, nor shall this opinion be used for any other purposes, without Sandler O'Neill's prior written consent.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion, as of the date hereof, that the Merger Consideration to be received by the holders of Commercial Federal Shares is fair to such shareholders from a financial point of view.

Board of Directors

Commercial Federal Corporation

13220 California Street

Omaha, NE 68154

Members of the Board:

We understand that Commercial Federal Corporation (Commercial Federal) and its subsidiary Commercial Federal Bank (Commercial Federal Bank) have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of June 13, 2005 (the Agreement), with Bank of the West (Parent) and its subsidiary Bank of the West Merger Co., Inc. (Merger Sub), pursuant to which Merger Sub will merge into Commercial Federal (the Merger), following which the surviving counterparties of the Merger will merge into Parent and then Commercial Federal Bank will merge into Parent. In the Merger, each outstanding share of Commercial Federal common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the Commercial Federal Shares), will be converted into the right to receive per share consideration in cash in the amount of $34.00. In addition, the Agreement permits Commercial Federal to pay a special cash dividend prior to the Merger to the holders of Commercial Federal Shares in an amount not to exceed $0.50 per share (the Special Dividend and together with the $34.00 per share cash consideration paid in the Merger, the Consideration).

You have asked us whether, in our opinion, the Consideration to be received by the holders of the Commercial Federal Shares pursuant to the merger is fair from a financial point of view to such holders.

In arriving at the opinion set forth below, we have, among other things:

- (1) Reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information relating to Commercial Federal that we deemed to be relevant;
- (2) Reviewed certain information, including financial forecasts, relating to the businesses, earnings, assets, liabilities and prospects of Commercial Federal furnished to us by senior management of Commercial Federal;

Edgar Filing: COMMERCIAL FEDERAL CORP - Form PRER14A

- (3) Conducted discussions with members of senior management and representatives of Commercial Federal concerning the matters described in clauses (1) and (2) above;
- (4) Reviewed the market prices and valuation multiples for the Commercial Federal Shares and compared them with those of certain publicly traded companies that we deemed to be relevant;
- (5) Reviewed the publicly reported financial condition and results of operations of Commercial Federal and compared them with those of certain publicly traded companies that we deemed to be relevant;
- (6) Compared the proposed financial terms of the Merger with the financial terms of certain other transactions that we deemed to be relevant;

- (7) Participated in certain discussions and negotiations among representatives of Commercial Federal and Bank of the West and their respective financial and legal advisors with respect to the Merger;
- (8) Reviewed the Agreement; and
- (9) Reviewed such other financial studies and analyses and took into account such other matters as we deemed necessary, including our assessment of general economic, market and monetary conditions.

In preparing our opinion, we have assumed and relied on the accuracy and completeness of all information supplied or otherwise made available to us, discussed with or reviewed by or for us, or publicly available, and we have not assumed any responsibility for independently verifying such information or undertaken an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of Commercial Federal or been furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal nor have we evaluated the solvency or fair value of Commercial Federal under any state or federal laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, or similar matters. We are not experts in the evaluation of allowances for loan losses, and we have neither made an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Commercial Federal, nor have we reviewed any individual credit files of Commercial Federal or been requested to conduct such a review, and, as a result, we have assumed that the allowance for loan losses for Commercial Federal are adequate to cover such loss. In addition, we have not assumed any obligation to conduct, nor have we conducted, any physical inspection of the properties or facilities of Commercial Federal. With respect to the financial and operating information, including without limitation, financial forecasts, valuations of contingencies, projections regarding under-performing or non-performing assets, net charge-offs, adequacy of reserves and future economic conditions, furnished to or discussed with us by Commercial Federal, we have assumed that all such information has been reasonably prepared and reflects the best currently available estimates and judgments of the senior management of Commercial Federal as to the future financial and operating performance of Commercial Federal.

Our opinion is necessarily based upon market, economic and other conditions as in effect on, and on the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. For the purposes of rendering this opinion, we have assumed that the Merger will be consummated substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the Agreement, including in all respects material to our analysis, that the representations and warranties of each party in the Agreement and in all related documents and instruments (collectively, the Documents) that are referred to therein are true and correct, that each party to the Documents will perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by such party under such Documents and that all conditions to the consummation of the Merger will be satisfied without waiver thereof. We have also assumed that the Special Dividend will be duly declared and paid (of funds set aside for payment) prior to the Merger in an amount of not less than $0.50 in cash per Commercial Federal Share.

We have been retained by the Board of Directors of Commercial Federal to act as financial advisor to Commercial Federal in connection with the Merger and will receive a fee from Commercial Federal for our services, a significant portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the Merger. In addition, Commercial Federal has agreed to indemnify us for certain liabilities arising out of our engagement. We have in the past two years provided financial advisory, investment banking and other services to Commercial Federal and to Bank of the West and its affiliates and have received fees for the rendering of such services, and we may continue to provide such services in the future. In addition, in the ordinary course of our business, we may actively trade the Commercial Federal Shares and other securities of Commercial Federal and its affiliates, as well as affiliates of Bank of the West, for our own account and for the accounts of our customers, and, accordingly, may at any time hold long or short positions in such securities.

This opinion is for the use and benefit of the Board of Directors of Commercial Federal. Our opinion does not address the merits of the underlying decision by Commercial Federal to engage in the Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of Commercial Federal as to how such shareholder should vote on the proposed Merger or any matter related thereto. In addition, you have not asked us to address, and this opinion does not address, the fairness to, or any other consideration of, the holders of any class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of Commercial Federal.

On the basis of and subject to the foregoing, we are of the opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Consideration to be received by the holders of Commercial Federal Shares pursuant to the Merger is fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of such shares.
