MUTUAL FUND PROXY SOLICITATION

For broker-dealer and CAM sales desk use only

What is the vote for?

To approve a new management agreement between your fund and its current investment adviser and any subadviser, and (for open-end funds only) to elect board members.

Why am I being asked to vote on a new management agreement and subadvisory agreement, if applicable?

Citigroup Inc. is the parent company of each of your funds' investment advisers and, if applicable, certain of your funds' subadvisers. Citigroup has entered into an agreement to sell its asset management business, Citigroup Asset Management, which includes the funds' investment advisers and subadvisers, to Legg Mason, Inc.

The sale will cause the funds' current management or advisory agreements to terminate, as well as for the relevant funds, the current subadvisory agreements. The sale will not be completed unless a number of conditions are met. One of these conditions is that shareholders of a certain number of the funds managed by Citigroup affiliates approve the proposed new agreements.

Each of your fund's Board of Directors or Trustees has approved, and recommends that you approve, the new agreements.

How would this change potentially benefit the shareholder?

We believe that being a pure play asset manager is an attractive model for our clients because the sole focus is on investment management. The combination of Legg Mason and Citigroup Asset Management (CAM) will create one of the world's largest asset management organizations representing over $800 billion in assets under management.

How do I vote?

You can vote your shares by attending the meeting, or if you do not expect to attend, by one of the following three methods:

-Via a toll-free number (please see the white proxy card for more information)

-Via an Internet site, by going to <https://vote.proxy-direct.com> and following the instructions, using your white proxy card as a guide

-By signing and dating each white proxy card you received and returning it in the accompanying postage-paid envelope

When is the final date for submitting your vote?

Votes must be submitted prior to the shareholder meetings scheduled to be held on October 21, 2005; you may also attend the meetings in person and vote at that time.

What is the % vote needed?

With respect to a fund's management agreement or subadvisory agreement, the lesser of the vote of (a) 67% or more of the voting securities of the fund present in person or by proxy (if the holders of more than 50% of the outstanding voting securities are present in person or by proxy) or (b) a majority of the outstanding voting securities of the fund (the legal requirement under the Investment Company Act of 1940). With respect to the election of directors or trustees, a plurality of the voting securities of the fund present in person or by proxy.

How many potential proxies could you receive?

The number of proxy cards you receive will depend on the number of funds that you hold and how you hold them. If you own shares in a number of funds, each proxy card that you receive may relate to more than one fund.

How do I get another proxy if I misplaced mine?

You can call our proxy solicitor at 1-866-718-0017.

What information is available for clients and or FCs & where is it located?

Clients will receive a proxy statement, cover letter, Q&A and white proxy card in the mail. This information will also be posted on FC Linx and on the CAM website.

When did the proxy statements mail?

Proxy statements for most funds were mailed over a period of days beginning on or about September 2.

Who is the proxy solicitor and when will they start calling clients?

The proxy solicitor is Computershare Fund Services, Inc. Calls are expected to begin on or about September 13.

To be mailed by internal or external brokers to their clients owning shares of CAM-advised mutual funds

[to be placed on firm letterhead]

RE: Citigroup Asset Management Fund Proxy Solicitations

Dear [valued client]:

This is an important letter regarding your mutual funds managed by Citigroup Asset Management.

On June 24, Citigroup and Legg Mason, Inc. announced that they had signed a definitive agreement under which Citigroup will sell substantially all of its asset management business in exchange for Legg Mason's broker/dealer business and other considerations.

In connection with this transaction, investors who own mutual funds managed by investment advisers that are part of Citigroup Asset Management are being asked to approve new management agreements and, in certain cases, subadvisory agreements and elect directors or trustees. Proxy statements seeking your approval were mailed in early September.

Please note that you may receive a separate proxy statement for each fund that you own. Therefore, you could receive a single proxy statement or many, depending on the number of funds that you own as well as whether other members of your household own fund shares.

Regardless of the number of proxy statements you receive, please be assured that the procedure for voting is simple and convenient. You can attend the meeting or use any of the three following methods to vote:

1. Call a toll-free phone number (please consult the white proxy card(s) enclosed with the proxy statement for more information);
2. Use the Web site (<https://vote.proxy-direct.com>) and following the instructions, using your white proxy card(s) for guidance, or,
3. Sign, date and return the white proxy card(s) enclosed with the proxy statement.

Also, keep in mind that I am available to offer any guidance you need during this important process. Please call my office if I can be of any assistance whatsoever.

Sincerely,

[insert financial professional information]
