Registration Rights Waiver Extension Letter

On February 10, 2005, Computer Software Innovations, Inc. (the Company) and Barron Partners LP (Barron) entered into a registration rights agreement (the Registration Rights Agreement) whereby the Company is obligated to register the resale of shares of its common stock underlying the shares of preferred stock and warrants held by Barron. Among other things, the Registration Rights Agreement required that the Company use its best efforts to cause its registration statement to be declared effective by June 11, 2005, or be subject to liquidated damages. The Registration Rights Agreement was previously disclosed in the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed on February 16, 2005.

The Company and Barron have, on three previous occasions (June 6, 2005; July 8, 2005; and August 16, 2005), agreed to extend the required effective date for the registration statement. The most recent extension provided for a required effectiveness date of September 30, 2005. The three previous extensions were disclosed in Current Reports on Form 8-K filed on June 9, 2005 and July 13, 2005 and in the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-QSB filed on August 22, 2005.

Effective September 30, 2005, the Company and Barron entered into a letter agreement further extending the required effective date of the registration statement to November 30, 2005. In partial consideration of the waiver, the Company paid to Barron the sum of $50,000. A copy of the letter agreement is filed as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
