Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements (Unaudited)

Note A - Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements for the three and nine month periods ended March 31, 2006 and 2005 are unaudited. In the opinion of management, all adjustments considered necessary for the fair presentation of the periods presented have been included. Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America have been condensed or omitted. These condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2005. The consolidated results of operations for the three and nine month periods ended March 31, 2006 are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year. The results for the nine months ended March 31, 2005 includes 4 months of contributions from Marlow Industries, Inc. which was acquired by the Company in December 2004.

Note B - Stock-Based Compensation

The Company had a stock option plan, the II-VI Incorporated Stock Option Plan of 2001, under which stock options had been granted by the Board of Directors to directors, officers and key employees. All options to purchase shares of common stock granted under this plan had been at market price at the date of grant. Generally, twenty percent of the options may be exercised one year from the date of grant with comparable annual increases on a cumulative basis each year thereafter. The stock option plan also had vesting provisions predicated upon the death, retirement or disability of the optionee. All stock options expire 10 years after the grant date.

On August 13, 2005, the Board of Directors unanimously adopted, subject to approval of the shareholders of the Company, the II-VI Incorporated 2005 Omnibus Incentive Plan. The 2005 Omnibus Incentive Plan provides for the grant of stock options, stock appreciation rights, restricted shares, deferred shares or performance shares in the aggregate not to exceed 1,800,000 shares of common stock and performance units. The 2005 Omnibus Incentive Plan was approved by the shareholders of the company on November 4, 2005, and consequently, no further stock option grants will be made under the predecessor plan.

The Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123 (revised 2004), (SFAS 123R) Share-Based Payment, effective July 1, 2005. SFAS 123R requires the recognition of the fair value of stock compensation in net earnings. The Company recognizes the stock compensation expense over the requisite service period of the individual grantees, which generally equals the vesting period. Prior to July 1, 2005, the Company followed Accounting Principles Board (APB) Opinion 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, and related interpretations in accounting for its stock compensation.

Table of Contents

The Company elected the modified retrospective transition method for adopting SFAS 123R. Under this method, all prior period financial statements were retrospectively adjusted effective July 1, 2005 to recognize compensation cost in the amounts previously reported in the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements. The Consolidated Balance Sheet at June 30, 2005 has been retrospectively adjusted for the modified retrospective adoption of SFAS 123R resulting in a $7.2 million increase in common stock, a $5.6 million reduction in retained earnings and a $1.6 million increase in deferred tax asset.

The fiscal year 2005 Statements of Earnings have been retrospectively adjusted to reflect the Company's adoption of the modified retrospective transition method under SFAS 123R. The following are stock compensation, net of related income tax effects, for each of the prior periods during fiscal year ended June 30, 2005 ($000):

Period Ended	Stock Compensation,
	Net of Related Income Taxes	Net Earnings, Net of Stock Compensation	Basic Earnings per Share, Net of Stock Compensation	Diluted Earnings per Share, Net of Stock Compensation
Three Months Ended September 30, 2004	$ 320	$ 5,639	$ 0.19	$ 0.19
Three Months Ended December 31, 2004	399	5,394	0.19	0.18
Six Months Ended December 31, 2004	719	11,033	0.38	0.37
Three Months Ended March 31, 2005	456	5,805	0.20	0.19
Nine Months Ended March 31, 2005	1,174	16,839	0.58	0.56
Three Months Ended June 30, 2005	414	6,417	0.22	0.22
Year Ended June 30, 2005	$ 1,588	$ 23,255	$ 0.80	$ 0.78

Under the provisions of SFAS 123R, the Company recorded $0.7 million and $1.6 million in stock compensation expense in its Condensed Consolidated Statements of Earnings for the three and nine months ended March 31, 2006, respectively, and $0.5 million and $1.6 million for the three and nine months ended March 31, 2005, respectively. The stock compensation expense is allocated 35% to cost of goods sold and 65% to selling, general and administrative expense in the Condensed Consolidated Statements of Earnings based upon the employee classification of the grantee. The Company utilized the Black-Scholes valuation model for estimating the fair value of the stock compensation expense. During the nine months ended March 31, 2006 and 2005, the weighted-average fair value of options granted under the plans were $10.80 and $11.70, respectively, per option using the following assumptions:

	Three Months Ended March 31, 2006	Three Months Ended March 31, 2005	Nine Months Ended March 31, 2006	Nine Months Ended March 31, 2005
Risk free interest rate	4.91%	4.08%	4.49%	3.83%
Expected volatility	58%	63%	59%	64%
Expected life of options	6.36 years	7.11 years	6.36 years	7.11 years
Dividend yield	none	None	None	none

The risk-free interest rate is derived from the average U.S. Treasury Note rate during the period, which approximates the rate in effect at the time of grant related to the expected life of the options. Expected volatility is based on the historical volatility of the Company's common stock over the period commensurate with the expected life of the options. The expected life calculation is based on the observed time to post-vesting exercise and/or forfeitures of options by our employees. The dividend yield of zero is based on the fact the Company never paid cash dividends and has no intention to pay cash dividends in the future. The estimated annualized forfeitures are based on the Company's historical experience of option pre-vesting cancellations and are estimated at a rate of 22%. Under the provisions of SFAS 123R, the Company will record additional expense in future periods if the actual forfeiture rate is lower than estimated, and will record a recovery of expense in future periods if the actual forfeitures are higher than estimated.

Table of ContentsNote C - Acquisitions*II-VI Deutschland GmbH

In July 2005, the Company exercised its call option and purchased the remaining 25% interest of II-VI Deutschland GmbH from L.O.T.-Oriel Laser Optik GmbH & Co. KG of Darmstadt, Germany (collectively L.O.T.) for approximately $1.6 million. In connection with the purchase of the remaining 25% interest, the Company received a three year non-compete agreement from L.O.T. The purchase price was allocated $1.5 million to goodwill and $0.1 million to the non-complete agreement.

Marlow Industries, Inc.

In December 2004, the Company acquired all the outstanding shares of Marlow Industries, Inc. (Marlow) for approximately $29.7 million net of cash acquired of $2.9 million and including transaction costs of approximately $0.3 million. Marlow is a global leader in the design and manufacture of thermoelectric solutions for both cooling and power generation based on compound semiconductor materials. Marlow's products are sold in a variety of markets, including defense and space, telecommunications, medical and industrial markets. As a result of the acquisition, the Company is expected to recognize synergies in material growth technology and utilization of its worldwide manufacturing and distribution networks to increase the operational and financial results of the combined companies.

This acquisition was accounted for using the purchase method in accordance with SFAS No. 141, Business Combinations. Accordingly, the Company recorded the net assets at their estimated fair values, and included operating results in the consolidated financial statements since December 2004. The following table presents allocation of the purchase price to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed at the date of acquisition ($000 s).

Table of Contents

Of the $11.7 million of acquired intangible assets, $6.0 million was assigned to a registered tradename with a indefinite life not amortized but tested annually for impairment. Acquired patents totaled $2.9 million and are amortized over a period ranging from 1.5 years to 8.5 years. Customer list acquired totaled $2.3 million and is amortized over 9.5 years and the non-compete agreements of $0.5 million are amortized over 3 years.

The following unaudited pro-forma consolidated results of operations have been prepared as if the acquisition of Marlow had occurred at July 1, 2004, the beginning of the Company's fiscal year 2005 ($000 except per share):

	Nine Months Ended March 31,
	2006	2005
Net Revenues	$ 167,581	$ 148,281
Net Earnings	$ 19,379	$ 16,205
Basic earnings per share	$ 0.66	$ 0.56
Diluted earnings per share	$ 0.65	$ 0.54

The pro-forma results are not necessarily indicative of what actually would have occurred if the transaction had taken place at the beginning of the period, are not intended to be a projection of future results and do not reflect any cost savings that might be achieved from the combined operations.

The Company has a $60.0 million secured credit facility. This facility has a five-year term and contains a term loan in the original amount of $30.0 million and a $30.0 million line of credit. The facility is collateralized by a pledge of 65% of the stock of certain of the Company's foreign subsidiaries. Additionally, the facility is subject to certain restrictive covenants, including those relating to minimum net worth, leverage and consolidated debt service coverage. The facility has an interest rate range of LIBOR plus 0.75% to LIBOR plus 1.50%. Principal payments of $1.9 million under the term loan are payable in quarterly installments and began January 2006. The weighted average interest rate of borrowings under this credit agreement were 4.6% and 3.2% for the nine months ended March 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively. The Company had available $23.4 million under its line of credit as of March 31, 2006. The amounts available under the Company's line of credit are reduced by outstanding letters of credit. At March 31, 2006 and June 30, 2005, total outstanding letters of credit supported by the credit facility were $0.6 million and $0.5 million, respectively. The Company has a 300 million Yen loan. This loan matures on September 25, 2007. Interest is at a rate equal to the Japanese Yen Base Rate, as defined in the loan agreement, plus 1.49%. The Japanese Yen Base Rate was 0.16% at March 31, 2006 and 0.07% at June 30, 2005.

Note K - Segment and Geographic Reporting

The Company reports its segments using the management approach model for segment reporting. The management approach model is based on the way a company's management organizes segments within the company for making operating decisions and assessing performance. Reportable segments are based on products and services, geography, legal structure, management structure or any other manner in which management segregates a company.

The Company's reportable segments offer similar products to different target markets. The segments are managed separately due to the production requirements and facilities that are unique to each segment. The Company has the following reportable segments: Infrared Optics, which is the Company's infrared optics and material products businesses and remaining corporate activities, primarily corporate assets, capital expenditures and stock-based compensation; Near-Infrared Optics, which is the Company's VLOC subsidiary, the Suzhou, China and Vietnam near-infrared operations; Military Infrared Optics, which is the Company's Exotic Electro-Optics subsidiary; and the Compound Semiconductor Group which is the aggregation of Marlow, the eV PRODUCTS division, the Wide Bandgap Materials (WBG) group and the Advanced Material Development Center (AMDC) group (which is responsible for the corporate research and development activities).

The Infrared Optics segment is divided into geographic locations in the United States, Singapore, China, Germany, Switzerland, Japan, Belgium and the United Kingdom. An Executive Vice-President of the Company directs the segment, while each geographic location is directed by a general manager, and is further divided into production and administrative units that are directed by managers. The Infrared Optics segment designs, manufactures and markets optical and electro-optical components and materials sold under the II-VI Infrared and II-VI brand names and used primarily in high-power CO₂ lasers.

The Near-Infrared Optics segment is located in the United States, China and Vietnam. The Near-Infrared Optics segment is directed by a general manager. The Near-Infrared Optics segment is further divided into production and administrative units that are directed by managers. The Near-Infrared Optics segment designs, manufactures and markets near-infrared and visible-light products for industrial, scientific, military and medical instruments and laser gain material and products for solid-state Yttrium Aluminum Garnet and Yttrium Lithium Fluoride lasers.

The Military Infrared Optics segment is located in the United States. The Military Infrared Optics segment is directed by a general manager with oversight by a Corporate Vice-President. The Military Infrared Optics segment is further divided into production and administrative units that are directed by managers. The Military Infrared Optics segment designs, manufactures and markets infrared products for military applications under the Exotic Electro-Optics brand name.

The Compound Semiconductor Group is located in the United States, the United Kingdom, Japan and Vietnam. The Compound Semiconductor Group segment is directed by a Corporate Vice-President. Marlow designs and manufactures thermoelectric cooling and power generation solutions for use in defense and space, telecommunications, medical, consumer and industrial markets. eV PRODUCTS division manufactures and markets solid-state x-ray and gamma-ray sensor materials and products for use in medical, security monitoring, industrial, environmental and scientific applications. WBG group manufactures and markets single crystal silicon carbide substrates for use in solid-state lighting, wireless infrastructure, radio frequency (RF) electronics and power switching industries. AMDC group directs the corporate research and development initiatives.

The accounting policies of the segments are the same as those of the Company. Substantially all of the Company's corporate expenses are allocated to the segments. The Company evaluates segment performance based upon reported segment earnings or loss, which is defined as earnings before income taxes, interest and other income or expense. Inter-segment sales and transfers have been eliminated.

The following table summarizes selected financial information of the Company's operations by segment ($000's):

Table of ContentsNote L - Derivative Instruments

The Company from time-to-time purchases foreign currency forward exchange contracts, primarily in Japanese Yen, that permit it to sell specified amounts of these foreign currencies expected to be received from its export sales for pre-established U.S. dollar amounts at specified dates. These contracts are entered into to limit transactional exposure to changes in currency exchange rates of export sales transactions in which settlement will occur in future periods and which otherwise would expose the Company, on the basis of its aggregate net cash flows in respective currencies, to foreign currency risk.

The Company recorded the fair value of contracts with a notional amount of approximately $4.8 million and $3.0 million as of March 31, 2006 and June 30, 2005, respectively, on the statement of financial position. The Company does not account for these contracts as hedges as defined by SFAS No. 133 and records the change in the fair value of these contracts in other income, net in the results of operations as they occur. The change in the fair value of these contracts decreased net earnings by $44,000 and increased net earnings by $228,000 for the three months ended March 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively. The change in the fair value of these contracts decreased net earnings by $16,000 and increased net earnings by $136,000 for the nine months ended March 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

To satisfy certain provisions of its credit facility, on March 8, 2005 the Company had entered into one-year interest rate cap agreements with a total notional amount of $15.0 million. These agreements were entered into to limit interest rate exposure on one-half of the remaining outstanding balance of the Company's term loan under the credit agreement. The floating rate option for the interest rate cap agreements was the one-month LIBOR rate. $10.0 million of the notional amount had a cap strike rate of 4.00% while $5.0 million of the notional amount had a cap strike rate at 3.50%. The Company is no longer required to utilize interest rate cap agreements under its credit facility and has allowed the agreements to expire. The Company had elected not to account for these agreements as hedges as defined by SFAS No. 133 but instead recorded the unrealized change in the fair value of these agreements as an increase or decrease to interest expense in the results of operations. The effect of these interest rate cap agreements on net earnings for the three and nine months ended March 31, 2006 was insignificant.

Note M - Warranty Reserve

The Company records a warranty reserve as a charge against earnings based on a percentage of sales utilizing actual returns over the last twelve months.

The following table summarizes the change in the carrying value of the Company's warranty reserve as of and for the nine months ended March 31, 2006 and is included in other accrued liabilities in the Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets ($000 s):

	Nine Months Ended March 31, 2006

Note N - Investment in 5N Plus, Inc.

During the year ended June 30, 2002, the Company acquired for $1.7 million a 25% ownership interest in 5NPlus, Inc., a supplier to the Company. In July 2002, the Company increased its ownership interest to 33% as a result of a loan conversion to equity in accordance with the original purchase agreement in the amount of $0.4 million. In April 2005, the Company increased its ownership to 36% as a result of acquiring a pro-rata ownership percentage of an exiting shareholder for $0.2 million. This investment is accounted for under the equity method of accounting.

At March 31, 2006 and June 30, 2005, the Company had outstanding notes receivable of approximately $0.5 million from equipment and supply agreements with this supplier. Payments on these notes are made quarterly with interest calculated at up to the Canadian Prime Rate plus 1.50% on the unpaid balance. Raw materials purchased from this supplier were $0.4 million and $1.0 million for the three and nine months ended March 31, 2006, respectively and were $0.1 million and $0.6 million for the three and nine months ended March 31, 2005, respectively. The Company's pro rata share of the earnings from this investment and the interest received from these agreements was approximately $0.1 million for both the three and nine months ended March 31, 2006 and 2005.

Note O - Stock Repurchase Program

On May 18, 2005, the Board of Directors authorized the Company to purchase up to 500,000 shares of its Common Stock. The repurchase program calls for shares to be purchased in the open market or in private transactions from time-to-time. The Company may suspend or discontinue this purchase program at any time. Shares purchased by the Company will be retained as treasury stock and will be available for general corporate purposes. The Company repurchased 107,100 shares of common stock totaling $1.9 million under the share repurchase program as of March 31, 2006. During the nine months ended March 31, 2006 the Company repurchased 96,100 shares totaling $1.7 million. The Company expects the repurchase of shares over time to at least partially offset the dilutive effect of the issuance of shares from the Company's stock incentive plan.

Note P - Incomes Taxes Repatriation of Dividends

During the quarter ended March 31, 2006, pursuant to the provisions of the American Jobs Creation Act of 2004 (the Act), the Company adopted a domestic reinvestment plan for the purpose of facilitating the repatriation of foreign dividends. The Company is anticipating to repatriate approximately $5.5 million during the fourth quarter of fiscal 2006.

It is the Company's intention to permanently reinvest undistributed earnings of its foreign subsidiaries beyond the amount of the anticipated repatriation; therefore, no provision has been made for future income taxes on the undistributed of foreign subsidiaries, as they are considered indefinitely reinvested.

Note Q - Legal Proceedings

The Company and its subsidiaries are involved in various claims and lawsuits incidental to the business. In addition, during the quarter ended September 30, 2003, the Company was awarded a jury verdict in the amount of $0.8 million in a trade secret lawsuit which it had initiated. The Company and the defendant appealed the decision by the lower court and the appeals have been exhausted. During the quarter ended September 30, 2005, the Company received the verdict award in the amount of $0.8 million and recorded this amount in other income, net in the Condensed Consolidated Statements of Earnings.

Item 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Forward-Looking Statements

This Management's Discussion and Analysis contains forward-looking statements as defined by Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, including the statements regarding projected growth rates, markets, product development, financial position, capital expenditures and foreign currency exposure. Forward-looking statements are also identified by words such as "expects," "anticipates," "intends," "plans," "projects" or similar expressions.

Actual results could materially differ from such statements due to the following factors: materially adverse changes in economic or industry conditions generally (including capital markets) or in the markets served by the Company, the development and use of new technology and the actions of competitors.

There are additional risk factors that could affect the Company's business, results of operations or financial condition. Investors are encouraged to review the risk factors set forth in the Company's most recent Form 10-K as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on September 9, 2005.

Introduction

The Company generates revenues, earnings and cash flows from developing, manufacturing and marketing high technology materials and derivative products for precision use in industrial, medical, military, security and aerospace applications. We also generate revenue, earnings and cash flows from external customer and government funded research and development contracts relating to the development and manufacture of new technologies, materials and products.

Our customer base includes original equipment manufacturers (OEM), laser end users, system integrators of high-power lasers, manufacturers of equipment and devices for industrial, security and monitoring applications, x-ray imaging manufacturers, U.S. government prime contractors, various U.S. government agencies and thermoelectric solutions suppliers.

The following discussion and analysis includes four months of financial results for the nine month period ended March 31, 2005 of the Company's recently acquired Marlow Industries, Inc. subsidiary included in the Compound Semiconductor Group, as the entity was acquired in December 2004.

All per share data for this year and former periods cited in this discussion and analysis have been adjusted to reflect the two-for-one split of the Company's common shares paid as a stock dividend to shareholders of record on March 2, 2005 and distributed on March 22, 2005.

Critical Accounting Policies

The preparation of financial statements and related disclosures in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and the Company's discussion and analysis of its financial condition and results of operations requires the Company's management to make judgments, assumptions, and estimates that affect the amounts reported in its consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes. Note A of the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements in the Company's most recent Form 10-K describes the significant accounting policies and methods used in the preparation of the Company's consolidated financial statements. Management bases its estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions that it believes to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

Table of Contents

Management believes the Company's critical accounting policies are those related to revenue recognition, allowance for doubtful accounts, warranty reserves, inventory valuation, valuation of long-lived assets including acquired intangibles and goodwill, accrual of bonus and profit sharing estimates, accrual of income tax liability estimates, workers compensation accrual for our self-insurance program, and accounting for share based payment. Management believes these policies to be critical because they are both important to the portrayal of the Company's financial condition and results of operations, and they require management to make judgments and estimates about matters that are inherently uncertain.

The Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123 (revised 2004), (SFAS 123R) Share-Based Payment, effective July 1, 2005. SFAS 123R requires the recognition of the fair value of stock compensation in net earnings. The Company recognizes the stock compensation expense over the requisite service period of the individual grantees, which generally equals the vesting period. Prior to July 1, 2005, the Company followed Accounting Principles Board (APB) Opinion 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, and related interpretations in accounting for its stock compensation.

The Company elected the modified retrospective transition method for adopting SFAS 123R. Under this method, all prior period financial statements were retrospectively adjusted effective July 1, 2005 to recognize compensation cost in the amounts previously reported in the Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements. The Consolidated Balance Sheet at June 30, 2005 has been retrospectively adjusted for the modified retrospective adoption of SFAS 123R resulting in a $7.2 million increase in common stock, a $5.6 million reduction in retained earnings and a $1.6 million increase in deferred tax asset.

Under the provisions of SFAS 123R, the Company recorded $0.7 million and $1.6 million in stock compensation expense in its Condensed Consolidated Statements of Earnings for the three and nine months ended March 31, 2006, respectively, and $0.6 million and $1.6 million for the three and nine months ended March 31, 2005, respectively. The stock compensation expense is allocated 35% to cost of goods sold and 65% to selling, general and administrative expense in the Condensed Consolidated Statements of Earnings based upon the employee classification of the grantee. The Company utilized the Black-Scholes valuation model for estimating the fair value of the stock compensation expense. During the nine months ended March 31, 2006 and 2005, the weighted-average fair value of options granted under the plans were $10.80 and $11.70, respectively, per option using the following assumptions:

	Three Months Ended March 31, 2006	Three Months Ended March 31, 2005	Nine Months Ended March 31, 2006	Nine Months Ended March 31, 2005
Risk free interest rate	4.91%	4.08%	4.49%	3.83%
Expected volatility	58%	63%	59%	64%
Expected life of options	6.36 years	7.11 years	6.36 years	7.11 years
Dividend yield	none	none	none	none

The risk-free interest rate is derived from the average U.S. Treasury Note rate during the period, which approximates the rate in effect at the time of grant related to the expected life of the options. Expected volatility is based on the historical volatility of the Company's common stock over the period commensurate with the expected life of the options. The expected life calculation is based on the observed time to post-vesting exercise and/or forfeitures of options by our employees. The dividend yield of zero is based on the fact the Company never paid cash dividends and has no intention to pay cash dividends in the future. The estimated annualized forfeitures are based on the Company's historical experience of option pre-vesting cancellations and are estimated at a rate of 22%. Under the provisions of SFAS 123R, the Company will record additional expense in future periods if the actual forfeiture rate is lower than estimated, and will record a recovery of expense in future periods if the actual forfeitures are higher than estimated. See also Note B to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for a discussion of the Company's stock option and incentive plans.

Table of Contents

As of March 31, 2006, there have been no other significant changes with regard to the critical accounting policies disclosed in Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2005.

Results of Operations*Overview ($000's except per share data)*

	Three Months Ended		%	Nine Months Ended		%
	March 31,			March 31,
	2006	2005	Increase	2006	2005	Increase
Bookings	$ 61,434	$ 50,454	22%	$ 183,439	$ 137,340	34%
Revenues	59,363	53,313	11%	167,581	137,033	22%
Net earnings	7,450	5,805	28%	19,379	16,839	15%
Diluted earnings per share	0.25	0.19	32%	0.65	0.56	16%

Net earnings for the third quarter of fiscal 2006 were $7,450,000 ($0.25 per share-diluted) on revenues of $59,363,000. This compares to net earnings of $5,805,000 ($0.19 per share-diluted) on revenues of $53,313,000 in the third quarter of fiscal 2005. For the nine months ended March 31, 2006, net earnings were $19,379,000 ($0.65 per share-diluted) on revenues of $167,581,000. This compares to net earnings of $16,839,000 ($0.56 per share-diluted) on revenues of $137,033,000 for the nine months ended March 31, 2005. The increase in net earnings for both the current fiscal three and nine months ended March 31, 2006 as compared to the same periods last fiscal year was primarily driven by higher revenues which increased 11% and 22%, respectively. The Infrared Optics segment led this increase due to stronger shipments of infrared optics and components to industrial Original Equipment Manufacturers (OEM) and aftermarket customers worldwide. Several of the largest OEM high-power laser manufacturers have been increasing their manufacturing output, thus driving higher optics and components consumption. The Company's Military Infrared Optics segment experienced a 31% increase in revenue from last year's third quarter. This segment's strong revenue performance was driven by increased shipment of products for heritage programs and next generation programs. In addition to the increased revenues, improved operating results from the Infrared Optics, Military Infrared Optics and Compound Semiconductor Groups segments impacted net earnings favorably as process improvements were implemented resulting in higher production yields and lower scrap costs as well as continued increased overseas manufacturing resulting in lower operating costs. The increase in net earnings for both the three and nine months ended March 31, 2006 were partially offset by an increase in the Company's effective income tax as more of the Company's current fiscal year's income will be United States sourced and taxed at a higher rate and due to the fact that the Company plans on repatriation of certain foreign earnings during the current fiscal year.

Net earnings for all periods presented were impacted from the Company's adoption of SFAS 123R related to the Company's share based payments. The Company recognized after-tax expense of $0.5 million and $1.2 million of stock option compensation in the Condensed Consolidated Statements of Earnings for the three and nine months ended March 31, 2006, respectively and $0.5 million and $1.2 million for the three and nine months ended March 31, 2005, respectively. The stock compensation expense of $0.7 million and $1.6 million for the three and nine months ended March 31, 2006, respectively, and $0.6 million and $1.6 million for the three and nine months ended March 31, 2005 is allocated 35% to cost of goods sold and 65% to selling, general and administrative expense in the Condensed Consolidated Statements of Earnings based upon the employee classification of the grantee.

Bookings for the third quarter of fiscal 2006 increased 22% to $61,434,000 compared to $50,454,000 for the same period last fiscal year. Bookings are defined as customer orders received that are expected to be converted to revenues over the next twelve months. For long-term customer orders, the Company does not include in bookings the portion of the customer order that is beyond 12 months due to the inherent uncertainty of an order that far out in the future.

Bookings for the nine months ended March 31, 2006 increased 34% to $183,439,000 compared to $137,340,000 for the same period last fiscal year. The increase in bookings for the current fiscal three and nine month periods compared to the same periods last fiscal year is primarily due to increased product demand across most of the Company's business segments. The Company's Infrared Optics segment reported the strongest increase in bookings for the current three and nine month periods at 31% and 21%, respectively. Demand for high power laser optics and laser optic materials are being driven by demand for both OEM and replacement laser optics as the installed worldwide base of laser machines continues to grow. Military Infrared Optics segment experienced strong bookings driven primarily by orders for sapphire window shroud assemblies for the Advanced Targeting Pod in support of F-16 and F-15 fighter jets and orders for heritage programs such as infrared windows for the Apache helicopter targeting system. The Company's Compound Semiconductor Group's bookings for the current fiscal three month period increased 26% as compared to the same period last fiscal year. The Group's Marlow Industries, Inc. experienced the largest increase in the Group due to bookings by two major customers in the defense and space and medical markets.

Bookings, revenues and segment earnings (loss) for the Company's reportable segments are discussed below. Segment earnings is a non-GAAP financial measure and differs from income from operations in that segment earnings excludes certain operational expenses included in other income net as reported in the Condensed Consolidated Statement of Earnings. Management believes segment earnings to be a useful measure as it reflects the results of segment performance over which management has direct control. See also Note K to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for further information on the Company's reportable segments and the reconciliation of segment earnings to earnings before income taxes.

Segment earnings	10,836	8,080	34%	26,653	22,337	19%

Bookings for the third quarter of fiscal 2006 for Infrared Optics increased 31% to $34,108,000 from $26,128,000 in the third quarter of last fiscal year. Bookings for the nine months ended March 31, 2006 increased 21% to $90,962,000 from $75,184,000 for the same period last fiscal year. The increase in bookings for both the current fiscal three and nine month periods compared to the same periods last year was driven by increased demand worldwide. In particular, European high-power laser system builders are producing laser systems at a higher rate than the prior year. This has led to increased bookings from our Germany and Switzerland sales offices as they meet these laser system builders' demands. The Company has also experienced increase demand from both Japan and North America OEM's and aftermarket customers. In addition, bookings for the segment's zinc selenide and zinc sulfide materials have increased compared to the same periods last fiscal year as market demand for these materials continues to strengthen. The Company expects that the infrared optics booking rates will remain strong for the remainder of fiscal 2006.

Revenues for the third quarter of fiscal 2006 for Infrared Optics increased 22% to $32,365,000 from $26,497,000 in the third quarter of last fiscal year. Revenues for the nine months ended March 31, 2006 increased 20% to $87,970,000 from $73,075,000 for the same period last fiscal year. The increase in revenues for the current fiscal three and nine month periods compared to the same periods last fiscal year was driven by increased shipment volume to both OEM and aftermarket customers. Demand for replacement optics has increased revenues as the installed worldwide base of laser machines continues to grow. Several of the largest OEM high-power laser manufacturers are increasing their manufacturing output, thus driving higher optics consumption while other system builders are developing new laser system models which have resulted in several large orders for prototype optics. In addition, the segment's material sales continue to increase due to the Company's ability to deliver high quality material on a timely basis.

Segment earnings for the third quarter increased 34% to $10,836,000 from $8,080,000 in the third quarter of last fiscal year. Segment earnings for the nine months ended March 31, 2006 increased 19% to $26,653,000 from $22,337,000 for the same period last fiscal year. The improvement in segment earnings for both the current fiscal three and nine month periods as compared to the same periods last fiscal year was primarily due to increased margins recognized on the additional sales volume.

Segment earnings	(279)	655	N/A	792	1,652	(52)%

Bookings for the third quarter of fiscal 2006 for Near-Infrared Optics decreased 12% to $8,734,000 from $9,978,000 in the third quarter of last fiscal year. The decrease in bookings for the current quarter compared to the same quarter last fiscal year was driven by the timing of an annual UV filter product booking that was received in the third quarter of last fiscal year. The current year's annual UV filter product booking was received in the second quarter of the current fiscal year. Bookings for the nine months ended March 31, 2006 increased 24% to $32,356,000 as compared to $26,048,000 for the same period last fiscal year. The increase in bookings for the nine month is primarily driven by an increase in customer demand requirements for the UV filter product line. In addition, stronger bookings have been received from medical laser markets.

Revenues for the third quarter of fiscal 2006 for Near-Infrared Optics decreased 21% to $6,886,000 compared to $8,708,000 in the third quarter of last fiscal year. Revenues for the nine months ended March 31, 2006 decreased 8% to $22,867,000 compared to $24,768,000 for the same period last fiscal year. The decrease in revenues for both the current three and nine month periods compared to the same periods last fiscal year was due to certain UV filter revenues being deferred into future accounting periods due to the change in the structure of the contract language. During the last two current fiscal quarters, the Near-Infrared Optics segment has been producing and stocking in inventory UV filter components. This inventory will begin to be assembled and shipped in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2006 and the segment expects to recognize over $2.0 million more in revenue for this product line during the fourth quarter of fiscal 2006 than in the just completed quarter.

Segment loss for the third quarter of fiscal 2006 was $279,000 compared to segment earnings of $655,000 in the third quarter of last fiscal year. Segment earnings for the nine months ended March 31, 2006 decreased 52% to $792,000 from $1,652,000 for the same period last fiscal year. The primary contributor to the decrease in segment earnings for both the three and nine month periods of the current fiscal year compared to the same periods last fiscal year was due to lower revenues from the revenue recognition on the UV filter product line as noted above. In addition, production yields and increased operating costs relating to utilities, repairs and maintenance and other outside service costs also impacted segment earnings negatively.

Bookings for the third quarter of fiscal 2006 for Military Infrared Optics increased 38% to $6,315,000 as compared to $4,578,000 in the third quarter of last fiscal year. Bookings for the nine months ended March 31, 2006 increased 32% to $20,528,000 as compared to $15,495,000 for the same period last fiscal year. The increase in bookings for both the three and nine month periods compared to the same periods last fiscal year were driven by orders for the segment's sapphire window assemblies for the Advanced Targeting Pod in support of the F-16 and F-15 fighter jets as well as increased orders for programs such as infrared windows for the Apache helicopter targeting system.

Revenues for the third quarter of fiscal 2006 for Military Infrared Optics increased 31% to $7,707,000 compared to $5,876,000 in the third quarter last fiscal year. Revenues for the nine months ended March 31, 2006 increased 15% to $21,806,000 compared to $18,971,000 for the same period last fiscal year. Strong revenue performance was due to increased shipment of infrared windows for heritage programs and the Arrowhead program for the Apache helicopter targeting system, combined with increased revenues for the sapphire development contract related to the Joint Strike Fighter program.

Segment earnings for the third quarter of fiscal 2006 were $411,000 compared to segment loss of $366,000 for the same period last fiscal year. The improvement in segment earnings for the current quarter compared to the same quarter last fiscal year was due to the implementation of process improvements for the core military products resulting in higher production yields, accelerated shipments and lower scrap costs as well as increased margins on the additional sales volume in both core military and sapphire product lines. The segment loss for the nine months ended March 31, 2006 was $495,000 compared to segment earnings of $273,000 for the same period last fiscal year. The segment loss for the nine months is the result of low production yields and higher than normal scrap costs experienced in the first half of the current fiscal year.

The Company's Compound Semiconductor Group includes the combined operations of the Company's Marlow subsidiary, eV PRODUCTS division, the Company's WBG group and the Company's AMDC group.

Bookings for the third quarter of fiscal 2006 for the Compound Semiconductor Group increased 26% to $12,277,000 as compared to $9,770,000 in the third quarter of last fiscal year. The increase in bookings for the current quarter compared to the same quarter last year was due to an increase in Marlow's bookings due to bookings from two major customers in the Defense and Space and Medical markets. The Group's WBG group increased bookings in the current quarter compared to the prior year's quarter due to the receipt of a $1.9 million in funding from the Air Force Research Laboratories for next generation Silicon Carbide substrates. Bookings for the Group's eV PRODUCTS division were down approximately $1.2 million from the prior year's third quarter due to the timing of an annual blanket order which was received in the first quarter of fiscal 2006. Bookings for the nine months ended March 31, 2006 were $39,593,000 compared to $20,613,000 for the same period last fiscal year. Included in the current fiscal nine months bookings were approximately $29.1 million from Marlow compared to $10.4 million from Marlow in the prior fiscal nine months which the Company acquired in December 2004. Exclusive of Marlow, bookings for the current nine month period for the remainder of the Group were essentially flat compared to the same period last fiscal year.

Revenues for the third quarter of fiscal 2006 for the Compound Semiconductor Group increased 1% to $12,405,000 compared to $12,232,000 in the third quarter of the last fiscal year. Revenues for the nine months ended March 31, 2006 were $34,938,000 compared to $20,219,000 for the same period last fiscal year. Included in the current fiscal nine month revenues were revenues of approximately $25.6 million from Marlow, compared to $11.6 from Marlow for the same period last fiscal year. Exclusive of revenues from Marlow, the remainder of the Compound Semiconductor Group experienced a 6% revenue increase for the current nine month period compared to the same period last fiscal year. This increase was primarily driven by the Group's eV PRODUCTS division's higher shipments to core-OEM customers in the Medical, Industrial and Defense markets.

Segment earnings for the third quarter of fiscal 2006 of $524,000 improved from the segment loss of $13,000 in the third quarter of the prior fiscal year. The segment earnings of $409,000 for the nine months ended March 31, 2006 increased from the segment loss of $1,333,000 for the same period last fiscal year. The improvement in segment earnings for both the three and nine month periods compared to segment losses for the same periods last fiscal year is primarily attributed to the performance of Marlow.

Overall

Manufacturing gross margin, which is defined as net sales less cost of goods sold, for the third quarter of fiscal 2006 was $23,682,000 or 42% of net sales compared to $20,430,000 or 40% of net sales for the same period last fiscal year. Manufacturing gross margin for the nine months ended March 31, 2006 was $64,922,000 or 40% of net sales compared to $55,771,000 or 43% of net sales for the same period last fiscal year. The improvement in manufacturing gross margin for the current three months compared to the same period last year was due the increase in revenues primarily from the infrared optics segment. Improvements in the gross margin of the military optics business unit resulting from increased production yields and lower scrap costs also contributed to the increase in manufacturing gross margin. The Company's margins continue to be challenged with increasing raw material and energy costs. However, the cost of the raw material selenium used in our infrared optics business has declined since the beginning of the current calendar year. If this decline continues, this should have a positive, longer-term influence on our gross margins. The decrease in gross margin percentage during the current nine month period compared to the same period last fiscal year was due to several factors. The addition of Marlow has lowered gross margins as the historical gross margins of Marlow's product mix are lower than the overall gross margin of the Company before the Marlow acquisition. Selenium and other raw material price increases primarily in our Infrared Optics segment negatively impacted gross margins. Low production yields and high scrap costs experienced by the Military Infrared Optics segment lowered gross margin. Finally, the weakening Japanese Yen negatively impacted gross margins for the current nine month period.

Contract research and development gross margin, which is calculated as contract research and development revenues less contract research and development expenses, for the third quarter of fiscal 2006 was $626,000 or 23% of research and development revenues compared to a gross margin of $416,000 or 20% of research and development revenues for the same period last fiscal year. Contract research and development gross margin for the nine months ended March 31, 2006 was $1,930,000 or 28% of research and development revenue compared to a gross margin of $1,633,000 or 25% of research and development revenue for the same period last fiscal year. The improvement in contract research and development gross margin for the current three and nine month periods compared to the same periods last fiscal year was primarily driven by the increase in contract revenues of 28% and 6%, respectively, compared to the same periods last fiscal year. The contract research and development revenues and costs are a result of development efforts in the Near-Infrared Optics and the Military Infrared Optics segments as well as activities in the Marlow, eV PRODUCTS division and the WBG group.

Company-funded internal research and development expenses for the third quarter of fiscal 2006 were $1,604,000 or 3% of revenue compared to $1,410,000 or 3% of revenues for the same period last fiscal year. Company funded internal research and development expenses for the nine months ended March 31, 2006 were $5,481,000 or 3% of revenues compared to $4,042,000 or 3% for the same period last fiscal year. The higher dollar expense is primarily the result of internal research and development at our Marlow subsidiary and more corporate research and development expense at our AMDC operations. Company funded internal research and development expenses combined with externally funded research and development expenses for the third quarter of fiscal 2006 were $3,699,000 or 6% of revenue compared to $3,114,000 or 6% for the same period last fiscal year. Company funded internal research and development expenses combined with externally funded research and development expenses for the nine months ended March 31, 2006 were $10,533,000 or 6% compared to $8,970,000 or 7% for the same period last fiscal year. The Company expects these percentages for both internally funded and externally funded research and development to be consistent for the remainder of fiscal 2006.

Selling, general and administrative expenses for the third quarter of fiscal 2006 were $11,212,000 or 19% of revenues compared to $11,080,000 or 21% of revenues for the same period last fiscal year. Selling, general and administrative expenses for the nine months ended March 31, 2006 were $34,012,000 or 20% of revenues compared to $30,433,000 or 22% of revenues for the same period last fiscal year. From a percentage of revenue standpoint, the addition of Marlow and this business's selling general and administration cost structure has lowered this metric for the Company as a whole. In addition, the Company had lower professional services for legal related matters during the current fiscal three and nine month periods compared to the same periods last fiscal year.

Interest expense for the third quarter of fiscal 2006 was $458,000 compared to $421,000 for the same period last fiscal year. For the nine months ended March 31, 2006, interest expense was $1,313,000 compared to $572,000 for the same period last fiscal year. The increase in interest expense for the nine months ended March 31, 2006 compared to the same period last fiscal year was due to a full period of the Company's debt obtained to finance the Marlow acquisition combined with higher interest rates.

Other income for the third quarter of fiscal 2006 was $164,000 compared to $16,000 for the same period last fiscal year. Other income for the third fiscal quarter of 2006 reflects several items including foreign currency gains, interest income and other income items partially offset by the minority interest from the 25% interest of II-VI LOT Suisse S.a.r.l. Other income for the nine months ended March 31, 2006 was $1,562,000 compared to $710,000 for the same period last fiscal year. The increase in other income was primarily due the receipt of an $800,000 award from a jury verdict in favor of the Company in a trade secret lawsuit.

The Company's year-to-date effective income tax rate is 29.8% compared to an effective income tax rate of 27.0% for the same period in fiscal 2005. The higher tax rate for the current fiscal year compared to the prior year reflects the Company's anticipation that the current fiscal year will contain more United States source income taxed at a higher rate than in the prior year and the fact that the Company plans on repatriation of certain foreign earnings during the current fiscal year.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Historically, our primary source of cash has been provided through operations. Other sources of cash include proceeds received from the exercise of stock options as well as through long-term borrowings. Our historical uses of cash have been for capital expenditures, purchases of businesses, payment of principal and interest on outstanding debt obligations and purchase of treasury stock. Supplemental information pertaining to our sources and uses of cash is presented as follows:

Sources (uses) of Cash:

	Nine Months Ended March 31,
	2006	2005
Net cash provided by operating activities	$ 27,469	$ 11,408
Proceeds from exercise of stock options	873	1,110

Purchases of treasury stock	(1,722)

In the first nine months of fiscal 2006, net cash provided by operations was approximately $27.5 million. The increase in cash was driven by the Company's net earnings of approximately $19.4 million along with depreciation and amortization of $11.4 million. The increase in cash was offset by working capital requirements of approximately $2.4 million.

Net cash used in investing activities during the first nine months of fiscal 2006 of approximately $14.3 million was primarily for property, plant and equipment expenditures of $12.7 million and the acquisition of the remaining 25% of II-VI Deutschland GmbH of $1.6 million. Net cash used in financing activities of $8.7 million was primarily for net payments on borrowings of $7.8 million, purchases of treasury stock of $1.7 million offset by proceeds from exercise of stock options of $0.9 million.

On December 10, 2004, the Company replaced its $45.0 million secured credit facility with a $60.0 million secured credit agreement in connection with the Company's acquisition of Marlow. This facility has a five-year term and contains a term loan in the original amount of $30.0 million and a $30.0 million line of credit. The facility is collateralized by a pledge of 65% of the stock of certain of the Company's foreign subsidiaries. Additionally, the facility is subject to certain restrictive covenants, including those relating to minimum net worth, leverage and consolidated debt service coverage. The facility has an interest rate range of LIBOR plus 0.75% to LIBOR plus 1.50%. Principal payments of $1.9 million under the term loan are payable quarterly and began in January 2006. The weighted average interest rate of borrowings under this credit agreement was 4.6% for the nine months ended March 31, 2006. The Company had available $23.4 million under its line of credit as of March 31, 2006. The amounts available under the Company's line of credit are reduced by outstanding letters of credit. At March 31, 2006, total outstanding letters of credit supported by the credit facility were $0.6 million.

On May 18, 2005, the Board of Directors authorized the Company to purchase up to 500,000 shares of its Common Stock. The repurchase program calls for shares to be purchased in the open market or in private transactions from time-to-time. The Company may suspend or discontinue this purchase program at any time. Shares purchased by the Company will be retained as treasury stock and will be available for general corporate purposes. The Company repurchased 107,100 shares of common stock totaling $1.9 million under the share repurchase program as of March 31, 2006. During the nine months ended March 31, 2006 the Company repurchased 96,100 shares totaling $1.7 million. The Company expects the repurchase of shares over time to at least partially offset the dilutive effect of the issuance of shares from the Company's stock incentive plan.

Our cash position, borrowing capacity and debt obligations are as follows:

	March 31, 2006	June 30, 2005
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 24,316	$ 21,675
Available borrowing capacity	23,400	17,600
Total debt obligations	36,992	44,981

The Company believes cash flow from operations, existing cash reserves and available borrowing capacity will be sufficient to fund its working capital needs, capital expenditures, scheduled debt payments, treasury stock repurchases and internal growth for fiscal 2006.

Item 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURE ABOUT MARKET RISK*Foreign Exchange Risks*

The Company is exposed to market risks arising from adverse changes in foreign currency exchange rates and interest rates. In the normal course of business, the Company uses a variety of techniques and derivative financial instruments as part of its overall risk management strategy primarily focused on its exposure to the Japanese Yen. No significant changes have occurred in the techniques and instruments used other than those described below.

The Company also has transactions denominated in Euros and Pounds Sterling. Changes in the foreign currency exchange rates of these currencies did not have a material impact on the results of operations for the quarter ended March 31, 2006.

In the normal course of business, the Company enters into foreign currency forward exchange contracts with its banks. The purpose of these contracts is to hedge ordinary business risks regarding foreign currencies on product sales. Foreign currency exchange contracts are used to limit transactional exposure to changes in currency rates. The Company enters into foreign currency forward contracts that permit it to sell specified amounts of foreign currencies expected to be received from its export sales for pre-established U.S. dollar amounts at specified dates. The forward contracts are denominated in the same foreign currencies in which export sales are denominated. These contracts provide the Company with an economic hedge in which settlement will occur in future periods and which otherwise would expose the Company to foreign currency risk. The Company monitors its positions and the credit ratings of the parties to these contracts. While the Company may be exposed to potential losses due to risk in the event of non-performance by the counterparties to these financial instruments, it does not anticipate such losses. The Company entered into a 300 million Yen loan in September 2002 in an effort to minimize the foreign currency exposure in Japan. A change in the interest rate of 1% for this Yen loan would have changed the interest expense by approximately $6,000 and $20,000 for the three months and nine months ended March 31, 2006, respectively, and a 10% change in the Yen to dollar exchange rate would have changed revenues in the range from a decrease of $490,000 to an increase of $591,000 for the three months ended March 31, 2006, and in the range from a decrease of $1,319,000 to an increase of $1,652,000 for the nine months ended March 31, 2006.

For II-VI Singapore Pte., Ltd. and its subsidiaries and the Company's majority-owned subsidiary II-VI LOT Suisse S.a.r.l., the functional currency is the U.S. dollar. Gains and losses on the remeasurement of the local currency financial statements are included in net earnings. Foreign currency remeasurement gains were $1,730,000 and $2,077,000 for the three and nine months ended March 31, 2006, respectively, and $237,000 and $389,000 for the three and nine months ended March 31, 2005, respectively.

Table of Contents

For all other foreign subsidiaries, the functional currency is the local currency. Assets and liabilities of those operations are translated into U.S. dollars using period-end exchange rates; while income and expenses are translated using the average exchange rates for the reporting period. Translation adjustments are recorded as accumulated other comprehensive income within shareholders' equity.

Interest Rate Risks

To satisfy certain provisions of its credit facility, on March 8, 2005 the Company had entered into one-year interest rate cap agreements with a total notional amount of $15.0 million. These agreements were entered into to limit interest rate exposure on one-half of the remaining outstanding balance of the Company's term loan under the credit agreement. The floating rate option for the interest rate cap agreements is the one-month LIBOR rate. $10.0 million of the notional amount has a cap strike rate of 4.00% while $5.0 million of the notional amount has a cap strike rate at 3.50%. The Company is no longer required to utilize interest rate cap agreements under its credit facility and has allowed the agreements to expire. The Company had elected not to account for these agreements as hedges as defined by SFAS No. 133 but instead recorded the unrealized change in the fair value of these agreements as an increase or decrease to interest expense in the results of operations. The effect of these interest rate cap agreements on net earnings for the three and nine months ended March 31, 2006 was insignificant. As of March 31, 2006, the total borrowings of $37.0 million included a $28.1 million term loan, $6.0 million under a line of credit, $2.6 million loan denominated in Japanese Yen and a $0.3 million Pennsylvania Industrial Development Authority (PIDA) term note. As such, the Company is exposed to changes in interest rates. A change in the interest rate of 1% would have changed the interest expense by approximately $0.1 million and $0.3 million for the three and nine months ended March 31, 2006, respectively.

Item 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

The Company's management evaluated, with the participation of Carl J. Johnson, the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, and Craig A. Creaturo, the Company's Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer, the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e)) as of the end of the period covered by this quarterly report on Form 10-Q. The Company's disclosure controls were designed to provide reasonable assurance that information required to be disclosed in reports that we file or submit under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the rules and forms of the Securities and Exchange Commission. It should be noted that the design of any system of controls is based in part upon certain assumptions about the likelihood of future events, and there can be no assurance that any design will succeed in achieving its stated goals under all potential future conditions, regardless of how remote. However, the controls have been designed to provide reasonable assurance of achieving the controls' stated goals. Based on that evaluation, Messrs. Johnson and Creaturo concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective at the reasonable assurance level. There were no changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the Company's most recent fiscal quarter that have materially affected or are reasonably likely to materially affect the Company's internal control over financial reporting.
