Item 8.01. Other Events.

In November 2002, L-3 Communications Corporation brought suit against us in the District Court for the Southern District of New York seeking a declaratory judgment that L-3 Communications had not breached its obligations to us concerning the acquisition of PerkinElmer's Security Detection Systems Business. We asserted counterclaims against L-3 Communications for, among other things, fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, breach of contract and failure to negotiate in good faith.

On May 24, 2006, the jury in the case returned a verdict in our favor and awarded us $125 million in damages. The jury found that L-3 Communications had breached its fiduciary duty to us and had committed fraud. The jury awarded us $33 million in compensatory damages and $92 million in punitive damages. In addition, the jury also found that we had breached a confidentiality agreement and awarded L-3 Communications nominal damages of one dollar.

In response to the verdict, L-3 Communications moved for judgment as a matter of law or, in the alternative, a new trial or a reduction in the amount of the verdict. On February 26, 2007, U.S. District Judge Paul A. Crotty denied L-3 Communications' motion, upholding the jury's verdict in full. On February 27, 2007, we issued a press release announcing Judge Crotty's decision in this case. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein in its entirety by this reference.

L-3 Communications has announced that it intends to appeal the case.
