ITEM 2. MANAGERMENTS DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following discussion should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and notes thereto appearing elsewhere in this report. This Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws. We caution investors that any forward-looking statements presented in this report, or which management may make orally or in writing from time to time, are based on beliefs and assumptions made by, and information currently available to, management. When used, the words anticipate, believe, estimate, expect, intend, may, might, plan, project, result, should, will and similar expressions which do not relate solely to historical matters to identify forward-looking statements. Such statements are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions and are not guarantees of future performance, which may be affected by known and unknown risks, trends, uncertainties and factors that are beyond our control. Should one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those anticipated, estimated or projected by the forward-looking statements. We caution you that while forward-looking statements reflect our good-faith beliefs when we make them, they are not guarantees of future performance and are impacted by actual events when they occur after we make such statements. Accordingly, investors should use caution in relying on forward-looking statements, which are based on results and trends at the time they are made, to anticipate future results or trends.

Results of Operations

The following discussion is based on our Statement of Operations within our Financial Statements as presented in Part 1, Item 1 of this report for the six months ended June 30, 2010 and 2009. The discussion is not meant to be an all inclusive discussion of the changes within our operations. Instead, we have focused on the significant items relevant to obtain an understanding of the changes in our operations.

Our sole source of income is from interest on notes receivables from two affiliated entities. The ability of these entities to make payments on these note obligations is imperative for us to continue as a going concern. The outstanding principal balance on these notes is currently not being paid down, thus, the income from these notes are consistent and comparable to prior periods.

Comparison of the three months ended June 30, 2010 to the same period ended 2009.

We reported a net income applicable to common shareholders of $9,610 for the three months ended June 30, 2010 as compared to a net income to common shareholders of $9,039 for the same period ended 2009.

The increase was due to a decrease in the legal and professional fees expenses as compared to the period ended 2009. Income tax expense marginally increased due to the increase in earnings.

Comparison of the six months ended June 30, 2010 to the same period ended 2009.

We reported a net income applicable to common shareholders of $11,851 for the six months ended June 30, 2010 as compared to a net income to common shareholders of $13,883 for the same period ended 2009.

The decrease was due to an increase in G&A expenses and in the audit and filing fees as compared to the period ended 2009. Income tax expense marginally decreased due to the reduction in earnings.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

General

Our principal liquidity needs for the next twelve months are funding of normal recurring expenses including interest expense, leases, legal and administrative fees, and federal income tax payments.

Our principal source of cash is proceeds from interest income on our notes receivables.

The following significantly impacted our balance sheet as of June 30, 2010:

Our notes receivable and accrued interest affiliates increased as we did not collect the interest owed us on those notes.

Our accounts payables increased due to the accruals for lease and administrative expenses incurred and not paid.

Our accounts payables and accrued interest affiliates decreased due to the payment of interest expense.

Cash Flow Summary

The following summary discussion of our cash flow is based on the statements of cash flows as presented in Item 1 and is not meant to be an all-inclusive discussion of the changes in our cash flow.

We had a significant change in cash from operating activities as compared to prior year primarily due to the advancing additional amounts to affiliates. Interest income and expense was offset by collecting and paying interest due.

We anticipate that our cash flows from operating activities will be sufficient to provide for our current cash flow needs.
