Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 15, 2010, American National Bankshares Inc. (American) and MidCarolina Financial Corporation (MidCarolina) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization (the Merger Agreement) with respect to a business combination transaction. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, MidCarolina will merge with and into ANB Merger Subsidiary, Inc. (ANB Sub), a wholly-owned subsidiary of American formed solely to facilitate the business combination (the Merger). ANB Sub will be the surviving corporation in such merger. As soon as practicable thereafter, ANB Sub will be merged with and into American, and MidCarolina Bank, MidCarolina s wholly-owned bank subsidiary, will be merged with and into American National Bank and Trust Company, American s wholly-owned bank subsidiary (American National Bank).

As a result of the Merger, the holders of shares of MidCarolina common stock will receive 0.33 shares of American common stock for each share of MidCarolina common stock held immediately prior to the effective date of the Merger. Each share of American common stock outstanding immediately prior to the Merger will continue to be outstanding after the Merger. Each option to purchase a share of MidCarolina common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of the Merger will be converted into an option to purchase shares of American common stock, adjusted for the 0.33 exchange ratio. Additionally, the holders of shares of noncumulative perpetual Series A preferred stock of MidCarolina will receive one share of a newly authorized noncumulative perpetual Series A preferred stock of American which will have terms, preferences, rights and limitations that are identical in all material respects to the MidCarolina Series A preferred stock.

Following the Merger, Charles T. Canaday, Jr., President and Chief Executive Officer of MidCarolina, will serve as President of North Carolina Banking for American National Bank. At the effective date of the Merger, three members of the current MidCarolina Board of Directors to be selected by MidCarolina will be appointed to serve on the Board of Directors of American.

In the Merger Agreement, which was approved by the Boards of Directors of both companies, each of American and MidCarolina has made customary representations, warranties and covenants. The completion of the Merger is subject to various closing conditions, including obtaining the requisite approvals of American s and MidCarolina s common stockholders and receiving certain regulatory approvals.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, MidCarolina has agreed not to solicit proposals relating to alternative business combination transactions or, subject to certain exceptions, to enter into discussions or negotiations or provide confidential information in connection with any proposals for alternative business combination transactions. The Merger Agreement also provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, MidCarolina may be required to pay to American a termination fee of $1,700,000. If the Merger Agreement is terminated because of a breach of one party s representations, warranties, covenants or agreements, then the other party is entitled to reimbursement of all of its expenses relating to the Merger up to $250,000.

The Merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization for federal income tax purposes.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this report and is incorporated herein by reference. The Merger Agreement has been included to provide information regarding the terms of the Merger, and is not intended to provide any other factual or financial information about American or MidCarolina or their subsidiaries.

The representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates; were solely for the benefit of American and MidCarolina; may be subject to limitations and qualifications agreed upon by American and MidCarolina, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between American and MidCarolina instead of establishing these matters as facts; may be limited to the knowledge of specified officers of American and MidCarolina; and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to American and MidCarolina that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors should not rely on the representations and warranties or any description thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of American or MidCarolina or any of their respective subsidiaries. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures by American and MidCarolina. For the foregoing reasons, you should not rely on the representations and warranties as accurate or complete or as characterizations of the actual state of facts as of any specified date.
