ITEM 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer.
Amended and Restated Investor Rights Agreement

The Reporting Persons and certain other stockholders (collectively, the Holders) of the Issuer have entered into an Investors Rights Agreement dated March 23, 2007 (the Investor Rights Agreement) with the Issuer. Subject to the terms of the Investor Rights Agreement, holders of shares having registration rights (Registrable Securities) can demand that the Issuer file a registration statement or request that their shares be covered by a registration statement that the Issuer is otherwise filing.

Demand and Form S-3 Registration Rights. Subject to specified limitations, the Holders of at least thirty percent of the Issuer s preferred stock having registration rights may demand that the Issuer register all or a portion of its Registrable Securities under the Securities Act. The Issuer is not obligated to file a registration statement pursuant to this provision:

until 180 days after the completion of the IPO; and on more than three occasions.

In addition, the Holders of the Issuer s Registrable Securities may demand that the Issuer register on Form S-3 all or a portion of the Registrable Securities held by them. The Issuer is not obligated to file a Form S-3 pursuant to this provision on more than two occasions in any 12-month period.

Incidental Registration Rights. Limitations and Expenses. In the event that any registration in which the holders of Registrable Securities participate pursuant to the Investor Rights Agreement is an underwritten public offering, the number of Registrable Securities to be included may, in specified circumstances, be limited due to market conditions. Pursuant to the Investor Rights Agreement, the Issuer is required to pay all registration expenses, including the fees and expenses of one counsel to represent the selling holders, other than any underwriting discounts, selling commissions and similar discounts relating to underwriters or commissions related to sales, related to any demand or incidental registration. The Issuer is also required to indemnify each participating holder with respect to each registration of Registrable Securities that is effected.

Lock-up Agreements

The Reporting Persons, along with the Issuer s officers and directors and the holders of substantially all its outstanding shares of capital stock have agreed with the underwriters of its IPO, subject to certain exceptions, not to dispose of or hedge any of their Common Stock or securities convertible into or exchangeable for shares of Common Stock for a period through the date 180 days after February 3, 2011, as modified as described below, except with the prior written consent of Barclays Capital Inc. and Piper Jaffray & Co. on behalf of the underwriters.

The 180-day restricted period will be automatically extended or reduced under the following circumstances: (1) during the last 17 days of the 180-day restricted period, if the Issuer issues an earnings release or announces material news or a material event, the restrictions described in the preceding paragraph will continue to apply until the expiration of the 18-day period beginning on the issuance of the earnings release or the announcement of the material news or material event; or (2) prior to the expiration of the 180-day restricted period, if the Issuer announces that it will release earnings results or other material news during the 16-day period following the last day of the 180-day period, the restrictions described in the preceding paragraph will continue to apply until the expiration of the 18-day period beginning on the issuance of the earnings release or other material news.

Other than as described in this Statement, to the best of the Reporting Persons' knowledge, there are no other contracts, arrangements, understandings or relationships (legal or otherwise) among the persons named in Item 2 and between such persons and any person with respect to any securities of the Issuer.
