AMERON INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS URGE STOCKHOLDERS TO REJECT BARINGTON'S NOMINEE

PASADENA, California The Independent Directors of Ameron International Corporation (NYSE: AMN) today released a statement urging stockholders to reject Barington Capital in its opportunistic effort to place James Mitarotonda on the Ameron Board. The Independent Directors statement reads as follows:

Dear Stockholders:

Ameron's Board recommends that stockholders vote in favor of the re-election of Directors James Marlen and David Davenport. In addition to concerns about James Mitarotonda's performance record and his empty plans for Ameron, his previous dealings with the current Board and Management have been aggressive and confrontational. Mr. Mitarotonda has repeatedly and unfairly portrayed Ameron's outstanding performance over the last 17 years. Further, he launched a vicious and unfounded personal attack against Ameron's Chief Executive Officer and Chairman, Mr. Marlen.

Confirming our worst fears regarding the type of director that he would be, Mr. Mitarotonda's most recent dismissal of Mr. Davenport's religious background was distasteful, unwarranted and inappropriate. Mr. Davenport has been an outstanding Director on our Board with significant contributions in a variety of areas. David Davenport is an ethical, well-rounded and balanced individual against whom Mr. Mitarotonda does not begin to compare.

Rather than champion the rights of his fellow stockholders, Mr. Mitarotonda has tried to distract stockholders by mischaracterizing the Company's past performance and by ignoring the effects of the global recession on a company that is highly-dependent on large-scale infrastructure projects. The facts are that the Company and its balance sheet were well managed before and during the global recession. Management aggressively cut costs, made timely divestitures and wisely invested in strategic organic initiatives. The Company's five-year total stockholder return of 12 percent per year significantly outperformed those of its peers and market indices despite the effects of the global recession. Most importantly, the Company has a stellar balance sheet and is well positioned for future growth in each of its segments when the Company's markets improve.

In stark contrast to Ameron's performance, Mr. Mitarotonda has been unable to effectively manage his own organization and investments. Numerous managers and analysts have left him due to his management style, and his fund's assets under management have fallen in recent years by over 80%, from over $500 million to less than $100 million – a powerful indictment of his poor record with his portfolio companies.

The Ameron Board continues to urge stockholders to vote the GOLD proxy and re-elect Mr. Davenport and Mr. Marlen.

Sincerely,

The Independent Directors of Ameron International Corporation
