Dear Forest Labs Stockholder,

We share a deep, common interest: identifying the best path forward for Forest Laboratories. The company is at a critical juncture: (1) Lexapro and Namenda patent expirations likely to significantly reduce revenue and profits; (2) Company's response to US government action to exclude CEO and Chairman Howard Solomon from doing business with federal health programs reveals corporate governance failures and (3) lack of adequate succession planning. The current board lacks the independence, objectivity and experience to address successfully these challenges. Additionally, the current board's track record doesn't inspire confidence as they have presided over a loss of ~$17B in market capitalization since March 2004 while paying ~$60M to the CEO and Chairman. Furthermore, Howard Solomon has sold ~$500M of stock at prices higher than today's prices, decreasing his investment in Forest Labs by over ~75%. We believe all these factors make it abundantly clear that change is necessary at Forest Labs.

The four Icahn nominees have the necessary independence, objectivity and experience to help fix the problems at Forest Labs. Alex Denner and Richard Mulligan have both served as directors at Biogen Idec and ImClone Systems where they acquired significant operational experience helping fix problems at both companies, leading to returns of 102% and 97%, respectively, from the date of their election to the board. Eric Ende served as a director at Genzyme where he helped cut spending and examine licensing opportunities, leading to a return of 62% in the 10 months he was on the board. Lucian Bebchuk is a world renowned corporate governance expert and professor at Harvard Law School, making him uniquely qualified to help improve flawed governance and compensation provisions.

Forest Labs is at a critical juncture and change is needed at the board in order for the company to succeed. The four Icahn nominees will help deliver the necessary change to take Forest Labs into the future. Please support the Icahn nominees and vote the Gold Card!

We have included herewith a presentation outlining why we believe the Icahn nominees will help fix Forest Labs. Note that if elected, the Icahn nominees will be a minority of the directors and will not alone be able to adopt resolutions. However, the Icahn nominees expect to be able to actively engage other Board members in full discussion of the issues facing the Company and resolve them together. By utilizing their respective experiences and working constructively with Board members, the Icahn nominees believe they can together effect positive change at the Company.

Sincerely,

The Icahn Group
