RISK FACTORS

Investing in our securities involves risk. Please carefully consider the risk factors described under the heading "Risk Factors" in our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the Commission, which are incorporated by reference into this prospectus, in each case as may be amended or supplemented by subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, which have been or will be incorporated by reference into this prospectus, as well as any risks that may be set forth in the prospectus supplement relating to a specific security. Before making an investment decision, you should carefully consider these risks as well as other information we include or incorporate by reference in this prospectus or include in any applicable prospectus supplement. These risks could materially affect our business, results of operations or financial condition and cause the value of our securities to decline. You could lose all or part of your investment. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to us or that we deem currently immaterial may also impair our business operations.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The use of proceeds from the sale of our securities will be specified in the applicable prospectus supplement.

Unless stated otherwise in an accompanying prospectus supplement, we will use the net proceeds from the sale of securities described in this prospectus for general corporate purposes.

When a particular series of securities is offered, the accompanying prospectus supplement will set forth our intended use for the net proceeds received from the sale of those securities. Pending application for specific purposes, the net proceeds may be invested in marketable securities.

RATIO OF EARNINGS TO COMBINED FIXED CHARGES AND PREFERRED STOCK DIVIDENDS

The following table sets forth our ratio of earnings to fixed charges and earnings to combined fixed charges and preferred stock dividends for the periods indicated.

	Year Ended December 31,					Six Months
	2012	2011	2010	2009	2008	Ended June 30, 2013
Ratio of Earnings to Fixed Charges	2.8	2.5	2.1	2.4	(A)	1.8
Ratio of Earnings to Combined Fixed Charges and Preferred Stock Dividends	2.8	2.5	2.1	2.4	(A)	1.8

(A) Due to the loss in 2008, additional net income of $32.3 million would have been necessary to achieve a ratio of 1:1. The ratio of earnings to fixed charges equals earnings before fixed charges divided by fixed charges. The ratio of earnings to combined fixed charges and preferred stock dividends equals earnings before fixed charges and preferred stock dividends divided by fixed charges and preferred stock dividends. For purposes of calculating these ratios, earnings before fixed charges (and earnings before fixed charges and preferred stock dividends) consist of earnings from continuing operations before income taxes, extraordinary items and cumulative effects of changes in accounting principles, plus fixed charges. Fixed charges consist of interest expense (including loss on early extinguishment of debt amortization of debt expense and discount or premium relating to any indebtedness), preferred stock dividend requirements of consolidated subsidiaries, capitalized interest and that portion of rental expense representative of the interest factor.

Unless otherwise specified in a prospectus supplement, the debt securities will be our direct unsecured obligations. The indenture does not limit the aggregate principal amount of debt securities that we may issue and provides that we may issue debt securities from time to time in one or more series, in each case with the same or various maturities, at par or at a discount. Unless indicated in a prospectus supplement, we may issue additional debt securities of a particular series without the consent of the holders of the debt securities of such series outstanding at the time of the issuance. Any such additional debt securities, together with all other outstanding debt securities of that series, will constitute a single series of debt securities under the indenture.

DESCRIPTION OF GUARANTEES OF THE DEBT SECURITIES

If specified in the applicable prospectus supplement, certain of our domestic subsidiaries will guarantee the debt securities. The particular terms of any guarantee will be described in the related prospectus supplement. Any guarantees will be joint and several and full and unconditional obligations of the guarantors. The obligations of each guarantor under its guarantee will be limited as necessary to prevent that guarantee from constituting a fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer under applicable law.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

We may sell the securities in any of three ways (or in any combination) from time to time:

through underwriters or dealers;

directly to a limited number of purchasers or to a single purchaser; or through agents.

The applicable prospectus supplement will set forth the terms of the offering of such securities, including:

the name or names of any underwriters, dealers or agents and the amounts of shares underwritten or purchased by each of them;

the public offering price of the shares;

the net proceeds to us;

any discounts, commissions or concessions or other compensation allowed or reallocated or paid to underwriters, dealers or agents; and any exchange or market on which the securities are listed or to which application will be made to list the securities.

We may designate agents to solicit purchases for the period of their appointment and to sell securities on a continuing basis, including pursuant to at the market offerings.

We may offer these securities to the public through underwriting syndicates represented by managing underwriters or through underwriters without a syndicate. If underwriters are used, the securities will be acquired by the underwriters for their own account. The underwriters may resell the securities in one or more transactions, including negotiated transactions at a fixed public offering price or at varying prices determined at the time of sale. Unless otherwise indicated in the related prospectus supplement, the obligations of the underwriters to purchase the securities will be subject to customary conditions precedent and the underwriters will be obligated to purchase all the securities offered if any of the securities are purchased. Underwriters may sell securities to or through dealers, and the dealers may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the underwriters and/or commissions from the purchasers for whom they may act as agent. Any public offering price and any discounts or concessions allowed or reallocated or paid to dealers may be changed from time to time.

Underwriters and agents may from time to time purchase and sell the securities described in this prospectus and the relevant prospectus supplement in the secondary market, but are not obligated to do so. No assurance can be given that there will be a secondary market for the securities or liquidity in the secondary market if one develops. From time to time, underwriters and agents may make a market in the securities.

In order to facilitate the offering of the securities, the underwriters may engage in transactions that stabilize, maintain or otherwise affect the price of these securities or any other securities the prices of which may be used to determine payments on these securities. Specifically, the underwriters may over-allot in connection with the offering, creating a short position in the securities for their own accounts. In addition, to cover over-allotments or to stabilize the price of the securities or of any other securities, the underwriters may bid for, and purchase, the securities or any other securities in the open market. Finally, in any offering of the securities through a syndicate of underwriters, the underwriting syndicate may reclaim selling concessions allowed to an underwriter or a dealer for distributing the securities in the offering, if the syndicate repurchases previously distributed securities in transactions to cover syndicate short positions, in stabilization transactions or otherwise. Any of these activities may stabilize or maintain the market price of the securities above independent market levels. The underwriters are not required to engage in these activities, and may end any of these activities at any time.

Underwriters named in a prospectus supplement are, and dealers and agents named in a prospectus supplement may be, deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of the Securities Act in connection with the securities offered thereby, and any discounts or commissions they receive from us and any profit on their resale of the securities may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act. We may have agreements with the underwriters, agents and dealers to indemnify them against certain civil liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, or to contribute to payments they may be required to make in respect of these liabilities. Underwriters, agents and dealers may engage in transactions with or perform services for Jarden or our subsidiaries and affiliates in the ordinary course of business.

One or more firms, referred to as remarketing firms, may also offer or sell the securities, if the prospectus supplement so indicates, in connection with a remarketing arrangement upon their purchase. Remarketing firms will act as principals for their own accounts or as agents for us. These remarketing firms will offer or sell the securities in accordance with a redemption or repayment pursuant to the terms of the securities. The prospectus supplement will identify any remarketing firm and the terms of its agreement, if any, with us and will describe the remarketing firm's compensation. Remarketing firms may be deemed to be underwriters in connection with the securities they remarket. Remarketing firms may be entitled under agreements that may be entered into with us to indemnification by us against certain civil liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act and may be customers of, engage in transactions with or perform services for us in the ordinary course of business.

Unless indicated in the applicable prospectus supplement, we do not expect to apply to list the securities on a securities exchange.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Under Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding (a) if such person acted in good faith and in a manner that such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and (b) with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, if such person had no reasonable cause to believe such person's conduct was unlawful. If the person indemnified is not wholly successful in such action, suit or proceeding, but is successful, on the merits or otherwise, in one or more but less than all the claims, issues or matters in such proceeding, such person may be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred in connection with each successfully resolved claim, issue or matter. In the case of an action or suit by or in the right of the corporation, no indemnification may be made in respect to any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware, or the court in which such action or suit was brought, shall determine that, despite the adjudication of liability, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper. Section 145 provides that, to the extent a director, officer, employee or agent of a corporation has been successful in the defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to above or in the defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith.

Section B of Article VII of the Registrant's Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, provides the following:

1. The Registrant shall indemnify each person who is or was a director, officer or employee of the Registrant, or of any other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise which he is serving or served in any capacity at the request of the Registrant, against any and all liability and reasonable expense that may be incurred by such person in connection with or resulting from any claim, actions, suit or proceeding (whether actual or threatened, brought by or in the right of the Registrant or such other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, or otherwise, civil, criminal, administrative, investigative, or in connection with an appeal relating thereto), in which such person may become involved, as a party or otherwise, by reason of such person's being or having been a director, officer or employee of the Registrant or of such other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise or by reason of any past or future action taken or not taken in such person's capacity as such director, officer or employee, whether or not such person continues to be such at the time such liability or expense is incurred, provided that a determination is made by the Registrant in accordance with Delaware law that such person acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Registrant or at least not opposed to the best interests of such other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, as the case may be, and, in addition, in any criminal action or proceedings, had reasonable cause to believe such person's conduct was lawful or no reasonable cause to believe that such person's conduct was unlawful. The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent is not, of itself, determinative that the person did not meet the standard of conduct described in the previous sentence. Notwithstanding the foregoing, there shall be no indemnification (a) as to amounts paid or payable to the Registrant or such other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, as the case may be, for or based upon the director, officer or employee having gained in fact any personal profit or advantage to which such person was not legally entitled; (b) as to amounts paid or payable to the Registrant for an accounting of profits in fact made from the purchase or sale of securities of the Registrant within the meaning of Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and amendments thereto or similar provisions of any state statutory law; or (c) with respect to matters as to which indemnification would be in contravention of the laws of the State of Delaware or of the United States of America whether as a matter of public policy or pursuant to statutory provisions.

2. Any such director, officer or employee who has been wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, with respect to any claim, action, suit or proceeding of the character described herein shall be entitled to indemnification as of right, except to the extent such person has otherwise been indemnified. Except as provided in the preceding sentence, any indemnification hereunder shall be granted by the Registrant, but only if (a) the Board of Directors of the Registrant, acting by a quorum consisting of directors who are not parties to or who have been wholly successful with respect to such claim, action, suit or proceeding, shall find that the director, officer or employee has met the applicable standards of conduct set forth in paragraph 1 above; or (b) outside legal counsel engaged by the Registrant (who may be regular counsel of the Registrant) shall deliver to the Registrant its written opinion that such director, officer or employee has met such applicable standards of conduct; or (c) a court of competent jurisdiction has determined that such director, officer or employee has met such standards, in an action brought either by the Registrant, or by the director, officer or employee seeking indemnification, applying de novo such applicable standards of conduct. The termination of any claim, action, suit or proceeding, civil or criminal, by judgment, settlement (whether with or without court approval) or conviction or upon a plea of guilty or of nolo contendere, or its equivalent, shall not create a presumption that a director, officer or employee did not meet the applicable standards of conduct set forth in paragraph 1 above.

3. As used in Section B of Article VII, the term "liability" means amounts paid in settlement or in satisfaction of judgments of fines or penalties, and the term "expense" includes, but is not limited to, attorneys' fees and disbursements, incurred in connection with the claim, action, suit or proceeding. The Registrant may advance expenses to, or where appropriate may at its option and expense undertake the defense of, any such director, officer or employee upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such person to repay such expenses if it should ultimately be determined that the person is not entitled to indemnification under such Section B of Article VII.

4. The provisions of Section B of Article VII are applicable to claims, actions, suits or proceedings made or commenced after the adoption thereof, whether arising from acts or omissions to act occurring before or after the adoption thereof. If several claims, issues or matters of action are involved, any such director, officer or employee may be entitled to indemnification as to some matters even though he is not so entitled as to others. The rights of indemnification provided thereunder are in addition to any rights to which any director, officer or employee concerned may otherwise be entitled by contract or as a matter of law, and inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of any such director, officer or employee. Any repeal or modification of the provisions of Section B of Article VII by the stockholders of the Registrant will not adversely affect any rights to indemnification and advancement of expenses existing pursuant to such Section with respect to any acts or omissions occurring prior to such repeal or modification.

Article Seven of the Registrant's Second Amended and Restated Bylaws provides the following:

A. The Registrant shall indemnify each person who is or was a director, officer or employee of the Registrant, or of any other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise which he is serving or served in any capacity at the request of the Registrant, against any and all liability and reasonable expense that may be incurred by him in connection with or resulting from any claim, actions, suit or proceeding (whether actual or threatened, brought by or in the right of the Registrant or such other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, or otherwise, civil, criminal, administrative, investigative, or in connection with an appeal relating thereto), in which he may become involved, as a party or otherwise, by reason of his being or having been a director, officer or employee of the Registrant or of such other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise or by reason of any past or future action taken or not taken in his capacity as such director, officer or employee, whether or not he continues to be such at the time such liability or expense is incurred, to the fullest extent permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law as the same now exists or may hereafter be amended (but in the case of any such amendment only to the extent that such amendment permits the Registrant to provide broader indemnification rights than the Delaware General Corporation Law permitted the Registrant to provide prior to such amendment).

Any indemnification pursuant to Article Seven shall be (unless ordered by a court) paid by the Registrant within sixty (60) days of such request unless the Registrant shall have determined by (a) the Board of Directors of the Registrant, acting by a quorum consisting of directors who are not parties to or who have been wholly successful with respect to such claim, action, suit or proceeding, (b) outside legal counsel engaged by the Registrant (who may be regular counsel of the Registrant) and who delivers to the Registrant its written opinion, or (c) a court of competent jurisdiction, that indemnification is not proper under the circumstances because such person has not met the necessary standard of conduct in accordance with Delaware General Corporation Law; provided, however, that following a Change in Control of the Registrant, with respect to all matters thereafter arising out of acts, omissions or events prior to the Change in Control of the Registrant concerning the rights of any person seeking indemnification under Article Seven, such determination shall be made by special independent counsel selected by such person and approved by the Registrant (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld), which counsel has not otherwise performed services (other than in connection with similar matters) within the five years preceding its engagement to render such opinion for such person or for the Registrant or any affiliates (as such term is defined in Rule 405 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended) of the Registrant (whether or not they were affiliates when services were so performed) ("Independent Counsel"). Unless such person has theretofore selected Independent Counsel pursuant to Section A of such Article Seven and such Independent Counsel has been approved by the Registrant, legal counsel approved by a resolution or resolutions of the Board of Directors of the Registrant prior to a Change in Control of the Registrant shall be deemed to have been approved by the Registrant as required. Such Independent Counsel shall determine as practicable whether and to what extent such person would be permitted to be indemnified under applicable law and shall render its written opinion to the Registrant and such person to such effect; provided that such Independent Counsel shall find that the standard for indemnification has been met by such person unless indemnification is clearly precluded under the Registrant's Second Amended and Restated Bylaws or the Delaware General Corporation Law. The Registrant agrees to pay the reasonable fees of the Independent Counsel referred to above and to fully indemnify such Independent Counsel against any and all expenses, claims, liabilities and damages arising out of or relating to such Article Seven or its engagement pursuant thereto.

For purposes of such Article Seven, a "Change in Control of the Registrant" is deemed to have occurred upon the first to occur of the following events:

(i) any person, as such term is used in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, (other than the Registrant, any trustee or other fiduciary holding securities under an employee benefit plan of the Registrant or any subsidiary of the Registrant, or any corporation owned, directly or indirectly, by the stockholders of the Registrant in substantially the same proportions as their ownership of stock of the Registrant), is or becomes the beneficial owner (as defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended), directly or indirectly, of securities of the Registrant representing 30 percent or more of the combined voting power of the Registrant's then outstanding securities;

(ii) at any time during any period of two consecutive years, individuals, who at the beginning of such period constitute the Board of Directors of the Registrant, and any new director (other than a director designated by a person who has entered into an agreement with the Registrant to effect a transaction described in subsection (i), (iii) or (iv) of Section A of Article Seven) whose election by the Board of Directors of the Registrant or nomination for election by the Registrant's stockholders was approved by a vote of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the directors at the beginning of the period or whose election or nomination for election was previously so approved cease for any reason to constitute at least a majority thereof;

(iii) the stockholders of the Registrant approve a merger or consolidation of the Registrant with any other corporation, other than (1) a merger or consolidation which would result in the voting securities of the Registrant outstanding immediately prior thereto continuing to represent (either by remaining outstanding or by being converted into voting securities of the surviving entity) more than 50 percent of the combined voting power of the voting securities of the Registrant or such surviving entity outstanding immediately after such merger or consolidation or (2) a merger or consolidation effected to implement a recapitalization of the Registrant (or similar transaction) in which no person acquires 50 percent or more of the combined voting power of the Registrant's then outstanding securities; or

(iv) the stockholders of the Registrant approve a plan of complete liquidation of the Registrant or an agreement for the sale or disposition by the Registrant of all or substantially all of the Registrant's assets.

B. Expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred by a person referred to in Section A of Article Seven in defending or otherwise being involved in a proceeding shall be paid by the Registrant in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding, including any appeal therefrom, upon receipt of an undertaking (the Undertaking) by or on behalf of such person to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the Registrant.

C. If a claim for indemnification is not paid in full by the Registrant within sixty (60) days after a written claim has been received by the Registrant or if expenses pursuant to Section B of Article Seven have not been advanced within ten (10) days after a written request for such advancement accompanied by the Undertaking has been received by the Registrant, the claimant may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Registrant to recover the unpaid amount of the claim or the advancement of expenses. (If the claimant is successful, in whole or in part, in such suit or any other suit to enforce a right for expenses or indemnification against the Registrant or any other party under any other agreement, such claimant shall also be entitled to be paid the reasonable expense of prosecuting such claim.) It shall be a defense to any such action (other than an action brought to enforce a claim for expenses incurred in defending any proceeding in advance of its final disposition where the required Undertaking has been tendered to the Registrant) that the claimant has not met the standards of conduct which make it permissible under the Delaware General Corporation Law for the Registrant to indemnify the claimant for the amount claimed. After a Change in Control, the burden of proving such defense shall be on the Registrant, and any determination by the Registrant (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that the claimant had not met the applicable standard of conduct required under the Delaware General Corporation Law shall not be a defense to the action nor create a presumption that claimant had not met such applicable standard of conduct.

D. The rights conferred on any person by Article Seven shall not be exclusive of any other right which such person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of the Registrant's Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, Second Amended and Restated Bylaws, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise. The Board of Directors of the Registrant shall have the authority, by resolution, to provide for such other indemnification of directors, officers, employees or agents as it shall deem appropriate.

E. The Registrant may purchase and maintain insurance to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the Registrant or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expenses, liabilities or losses, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expenses, liabilities or losses under the Delaware General Corporation Law.

Table of Contents

F. The provisions of Article Seven are applicable to all proceedings commenced after its adoption, whether such proceedings arise out of events, acts, omissions or circumstances which occurred or existed prior or subsequent to such adoption. The rights conferred upon any person who serves or agrees to serve in any capacity which entitles him or her to indemnification and expense advancement under Article Seven shall be contract rights and such rights shall be deemed to have vested in such person upon commencement of such service and shall continue as to any such person who has ceased to serve in such capacity, and shall inure to the benefit of such person's heirs, executors and administrators. Any amendment, alteration, repeal or other modification of Article Seven (including Section F thereof) that adversely affects any right of any person who serves or agrees to serve in any capacity which entitles him or her to indemnification and expense advancement under Article Seven (or adversely affects any right of any such person's heirs, executors and administrators under Article Seven (including Section F thereof)) shall be prospective only and, without limiting, and in furtherance of, the foregoing, any amendment, alteration, repeal or other modification of Article Seven (including Section F thereof) or the Delaware General Corporation Law or any other applicable law shall not eliminate or limit any rights of indemnification and expense advancement then existing or arising out of events, acts, omissions or circumstances occurring or existing prior to such amendment, alteration, repeal or other modification, including, without limitation, the right to indemnification and expense advancement for proceedings commenced after such amendment, alteration, repeal or other modification to enforce the provisions of Article Seven (including Section F thereof) with regard to events, acts, omissions or circumstances occurring or existing prior to such amendment, alteration, repeal or other modification.

G. If Article Seven or any portion thereof shall be invalidated on any ground by any court of competent jurisdiction, then the Registrant shall nevertheless indemnify each director and officer of the Registrant as to costs, charges and expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement with respect to any proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, including an action by or in the right of the Registrant, to the full extent permitted by any applicable portion of Article Seven that shall not have been invalidated and to the full extent permitted by applicable law.

The Registrant's directors and officers are insured (subject to certain exceptions and deductions) against liabilities which they may incur in their capacity as such including liabilities under the Securities Act, under liability insurance policies carried by the Registrant.

Item 17. Undertakings

1. The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(a) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(i), (a)(ii) and (a)(iii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the registration statement;

(b) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof; and

(c) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

2. That, for purposes of determining liability under the Securities Act to any purchaser:

(i) Each prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) shall be deemed to be part of the registration statement as of the date the filed prospectus was deemed part of and included in the registration statement; and

(ii) Each prospectus required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2), (b)(5), or (b)(7) as part of a registration statement in reliance on Rule 430B relating to an offering made pursuant to Rule 415(a)(1)(i), (vii), or (x) for the purpose of providing the information required by Section 10(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the earlier of the date such form of prospectus is first used after effectiveness or the date of the first contract of sale of securities in the offering described in the prospectus. As provided in Rule 430B, for liability purposes of the issuer and any person that is at that date an underwriter, such date shall be deemed to be a new effective date of the registration statement relating to the securities in the registration statement to which that prospectus relates, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial thereof. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date.

3. That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities, the undersigned registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:
 - (i) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;
 - (ii) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;
 - (iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and
 - (iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.
4. The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
5. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions described in Item 15, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
6. The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to file an application for the purpose of determining the eligibility of the trustee to act under subsection (a) of section 310 of the Trust Indenture Act in accordance with the rules and regulations prescribed by the Commission under section 305(b)(2) of the Trust Indenture Act.
