Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.
Atlas Resource Partners, L.P.

Atlas Resource Partners, L.P. is organized under the laws of the State of Delaware.

Subject to any terms, conditions or restrictions set forth in the partnership agreement, Section 17-108 of the Delaware Revised Uniform Limited Partnership Act empowers a Delaware limited partnership to indemnify and hold harmless any partner or other persons from and against all claims and demands whatsoever. Our partnership agreement provides that we will indemnify the following persons, by reason of their status as such, to the fullest extent permitted by law, in most circumstances, from and against all losses, claims, damages or similar events:

our general partner;

any departing general partner;

any person who is or was an affiliate of a general partner or any departing general partner;

any person who is or was a member, partner, officer, director employee, agent or trustee of our general partner or any departing general partner or any affiliate of a general partner or any departing general partner;

any person who is or was serving as an officer, director, employee, agent, fiduciary or trustee of the Registrant or any of its subsidiaries, the general partner or any departing general partner, or any affiliate of the Registrant, any of its subsidiaries, the general partner or any departing general partner;

any person who is or was serving at the request of the general partner, any departing general partner, or any affiliate of the foregoing as a manager, managing member, officer, director, employee, agent, fiduciary or trustee of another person; and any person designated by our general partner as an indemnitee for purposes of our partnership agreement.

Unless we otherwise agree, our general partner will not be personally liable for, or have any obligation to contribute or loan funds or assets to the registrant to enable us to effectuate, indemnification. We may purchase insurance against liabilities asserted against and expenses incurred by persons for our activities, regardless of whether we would have the power to indemnify the person against liabilities under our partnership agreement.

To the fullest extent permitted by law, expenses (including legal fees and expenses) incurred by an indemnitee in appearing at, participating in or defending any claim, demand, action, suit or proceeding will, from time to time, be advanced by us, subject to certain conditions.

Atlas Resource Partners, L.P. maintains directors and officers liability insurance for itself and its subsidiaries.

II-1

Section 18-108 of the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act provides that, subject to such standards and restrictions, if any, as are set forth in its limited liability company agreement, a Delaware limited liability company may, and shall have the power to, indemnify and hold harmless any member or manager or other person from and against any and all claims and demands whatsoever.

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law provides that a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit, or proceeding if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the person's conduct was unlawful.

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law also provides that a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery of Delaware or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court of Chancery of Delaware or such other court shall deem proper.

To the extent that a present or former director or officer of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith; provided that indemnification provided for by Section 145 or granted pursuant thereto shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which the indemnified party may be entitled; and a corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against such person and incurred by such person in any such capacity or arising out of such person's status as such whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such liabilities under Section 145.

In addition, Section 102(b)(7) of the Delaware General Corporation Law permits Delaware corporations to include a provision in their certificates of incorporation eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, provided that such provisions shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director: (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders; (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (iii) for unlawful payment of dividends or unlawful stock purchases or redemptions; or (iv) for any transactions from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

The limited liability company agreements of each of Atlas Energy Holdings Operating Company, LLC, ARP Barnett, LLC, ARP Barnett Pipeline, LLC, ARP Production Company, LLC and ARP Mountaineer

Production, LLC provide that the company's member shall, and any employee or agent of the company or employee or agent of the member in connection with services to the company may, in the member's absolute discretion, be indemnified by the company to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.

The limited liability company agreements of each of Resource Energy, LLC, Atlas Noble, LLC, REI-NY, LLC and Resource Well Services, LLC provide that subject to any limitations and conditions set forth in the limited liability company agreement, the company shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law (as such law may be amended), indemnify any person involved with any proceeding or investigation by reason of the fact that such person is or was a member or officer of the company, against all damages, expenses and liabilities (including punitive damages and reasonable attorneys' fees) actually incurred by such person. Each limited liability company agreement acknowledges that the indemnification provided could involve indemnification for negligence or under theories of strict liability, and prohibits indemnification of any officer to the extent any proceeding, damages, expenses or liabilities result from Improper Conduct (as defined in the applicable agreement) on the part of such officer.

The bylaws of Atlas Resource Finance Corporation provide that the company shall indemnify any person who was or is party or is threatened to be made a party to action, suit or proceeding, by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of the company or a predecessor corporation, or serving at the request of the company or such predecessor corporation, as a director or officer of another entity or as administrator, trustee or other fiduciary of an employee benefit plan, against actual and reasonable expenses (including attorneys' fees), liability and loss incurred by the person in connection with such proceeding, except to the extent prohibited by applicable law. The bylaws also require that the company advance expenses incurred by a director or officer in defending a proceeding. The indemnification and advance of expenses under the bylaws are not exclusive of any other rights to which an indemnitee may be entitled. The bylaws also empower the board to authorize the company to (1) purchase insurance on behalf of the company and others to the extent not prohibited by statute, (2) create any fund of any nature to secure indemnification obligations and (3) give other indemnification to the extent permitted by statute.

Pennsylvania Guarantors

Each of Atlas Energy Tennessee, LLC, Atlas Resources, LLC and Viking Resources, LLC is organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Section 8945 of the Pennsylvania Limited Liability Company Law of 1994 provides that a Pennsylvania limited liability company may and shall have the power to indemnify and hold harmless any member or manager or other person from and against any and all claims and demands whatsoever; provided, however, that a limited liability company may not indemnify a manager, member or other person for an act that is determined by a court to constitute willful misconduct or recklessness. Further, subsection (d) provides that a limited liability company may pay expenses incurred by a member, manager or other person in advance of disposition of any claim if such person makes an undertaking to repay the company if it is determined that such person is not entitled to indemnification. Finally, under subsection (f), a limited liability company must indemnify its members and managers for payments made, and personal liabilities reasonably incurred, in the ordinary and proper conduct of its business or for the preservation of its business or property.

The operating agreement of Atlas Energy Tennessee, LLC provides that the company shall indemnify its member and such other persons identified by the member as entitled to indemnification, for all costs, losses, liabilities and damages paid or accrued by the member or any such other person in connection with the business of the company, to the fullest extent provided by the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. In addition, the company may advance costs of defense of any proceeding to its member or any such other person upon receipt by the company of an undertaking to repay such amount if it is ultimately determined that the member or such other person is not entitled to indemnification by the company.

The operating agreements of each of Atlas Resources, LLC and Viking Resources, LLC each provide that subject to any limitations and conditions set forth in the operating agreement, the company shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law (as such law may be amended), indemnify any person involved with any proceeding or investigation by reason of the fact that such person is or was a member or officer of the company, against all damages, expenses and liabilities (including punitive damages and reasonable attorneys' fees) actually incurred by such person. Each operating agreement acknowledges that the indemnification provided could involve indemnification for negligence or under theories of strict liability, and prohibits indemnification of any officer to the extent any proceeding, damages, expenses or liabilities result from Improper Conduct (as defined in the applicable agreement) on the part of such officer.

Oklahoma Guarantors

ARP Oklahoma LLC is organized under the laws of the State of Oklahoma.

Section 2003 of the Oklahoma Limited Liability Company Act provides that an Oklahoma limited liability company may indemnify and hold harmless any member, agent, or employee from and against any and all claims and demands whatsoever, except in the case of action or failure to act by the member, agent, or employee which constitutes willful misconduct or recklessness, and subject to the standards and restrictions, if any, set forth in the articles of organization or operating agreement. Section 2017 of the Oklahoma Limited Liability Company Act provides that the articles of organization or operating agreement of a Oklahoma limited liability company may eliminate or limit the personal liability of a member or manager for monetary damages for breach of any fiduciary duty, and provide for indemnification of a member or manager for judgments, settlements, penalties, fines or expenses incurred in any proceeding because the person is or was a member or manager, except that any such provisions may not limit or eliminate the liability of a manager for (1) any breach of the manager's duty of loyalty to the limited liability company or its members; (2) acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; or (3) any transaction from which the manager derived an improper personal benefit.

The limited liability company agreement of ARP Oklahoma LLC provides that the company's member shall, and any employee or agent of the company or employee or agent of the member in connection with services to the company may, in the member's absolute discretion, be indemnified by the company to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.

Texas Guarantors

Atlas Barnett, LLC is organized under the laws of the State of Texas.

Chapter 8 Texas Business Organizations Code (the "TBOC") sets forth general indemnification provisions generally applicable to entities formed under the laws of the State of Texas. Section 8.002 of the TBOC provides, however, that unless a Texas limited liability company adopts the general indemnification provisions of Chapter 8 of the TBOC, described below, those provisions are not applicable to a Texas limited liability company.

Pursuant to Section 8.051 of the TBOC, an enterprise must indemnify a governing person, former governing person or delegate against reasonable expenses actually incurred by the person in connection with a proceeding in which the person was a respondent because the person is or was a governing person if the person is wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of the proceeding. Pursuant to Sections 8.101 and 8.102 of the TBOC, any governing person, former governing person or delegate of a Texas enterprise may be indemnified against judgments and reasonable expenses actually incurred by the person in connection with a proceeding, in which such person was a respondent if it is determined, in accordance with Section 8.103 of the TBOC, that: (i) the person acted in good faith, (ii) reasonably believed (a) in the case of conduct in the person's official capacity, that the person's conduct was in the enterprise's best interests or (b) in any other case, that the person's conduct was not opposed to the enterprise's best interests, (iii) in the case of a criminal proceeding, such person did not have a reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful and (iv) that the indemnification should be paid. Indemnification of a person who is found to be liable to the enterprise is limited to reasonable expenses actually incurred by the person in connection with the proceeding and does not include judgments, penalties or fines, except for certain circumstances where indemnification cannot be given at all. Pursuant to Section 8.105 of the TBOC, an enterprise may indemnify an officer, employee or agent to the same extent that indemnification is required under the TBOC for a governing person or as provided in the enterprise's governing documents, general or specific action of the enterprise's governing authority, contract or by other means.

For Texas limited liability companies, in addition to the provisions cited above, Section 101.402 of the TBOC provides Texas limited liability companies with broad authority to (1) indemnify any person, including a member, manager, officer of, or assignee of a limited liability interest in, a limited liability company, (2) pay in advance or reimburse expenses incurred by any such person and (3) establish and maintain insurance or another arrangement to indemnify or hold harmless any such person.

The operating agreement of Atlas Barnett, LLC provides that, subject to any limitations of applicable law and set forth in the operating agreement, the company's member and any manager, director, officer, employee or agent will not be liable to the company for, and will be indemnified against, any loss, liability, damage, claim or reasonable expense (including attorneys' fees) arising from proceedings in which such person may be involved by reason of being or having been a member or manager, director, officer, employee or agent of the company, or by reason of its involvement in the management of the company's affairs, provided that such liabilities do not arise out of bad faith, fraud, intentional misconduct or knowing and willful breach of obligations under the operating agreement. The company shall advance expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred in defending such proceedings, subject to certain conditions and upon receipt by the company of an undertaking to repay such amount if it is ultimately determined that the member or such other person is not entitled to indemnification by the company.

Any indemnification under the operating agreement will only be out of the company's assets. The operating agreement also provides that the company may purchase insurance against liabilities asserted against and expenses incurred by persons for its activities, regardless of whether it would have the power to indemnify the person against liabilities under the agreement. Finally, the operating agreement provides that, if the member or any officer exercises powers or performs duties under the operating agreement through agents, the member or officer shall not be responsible for misconduct or negligence on the part of any such agent appointed in good faith.

Section 23-18-4-4 of the Indiana Business Flexibility Act provides that a written operating agreement may provide for indemnification of a member or manager for monetary damages for judgments, settlements, penalties, fines, or expenses incurred in a proceeding to which a person is a party because the person is or was a member or manager. The operating agreement of Atlas Energy Indiana, LLC provides that the company shall indemnify any person involved with any proceeding or investigation by reason of the fact that such person is or was a member, officer, manager, employee or agent of the company, or serving at the request of the company, against all damages, expenses and liabilities (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person if the member determines that such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the company, and with respect to any criminal action proceeding, has no reasonable cause to believe such person's conduct was unlawful.

A limited liability company may also indemnify a manager, officer, employee, agent or certain other persons against expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and reasonably incurred in connection with an action or suit by or in the right of such company, if such manager, officer, employee, agent or other person acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the company.

The operating agreement acknowledges that the indemnification provided could involve indemnification for negligence or under theories of strict liability, and prohibits indemnification of any officer to the extent any proceeding, damages, expenses or liabilities result from Improper Conduct (as defined in the applicable agreement) on the part of such officer.

(iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and

(iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.

(b) Each undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in this registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(h) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of any registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of any registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

Each undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Item 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

Each undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
