Diversity and Scale Mitigate Commodity Price Changes Growth has been driven by investing in the business, not by changes in commodity prices TRP benefits from multiple factors that help mitigate commodity price volatility, including: Scale Business and geographic diversity Increasing fee-based margin

Hedging

Given the current price environment, TRP is less hedged than in previous years, primarily on ethane and propane

TRP currently has hedged approximately 80% of 2014 natural gas and approximately 30% of 2014 combined NGL and condensate

TRP has hedged approximately 50% to 60% of natural gas equity volumes for 2015 and 20% to 30% for 2016

TRP has hedged approximately 45% to 55% of condensate equity volumes for 2015 and 25% to 35% for 2016

Non-GAAP Measures Reconciliation

This presentation includes the non-GAAP financial measure of Adjusted EBITDA. The presentation provides a reconciliation of this non-GAAP financial measures to its most directly comparable financial measure calculated and presented in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America ("GAAP"). Our non-GAAP financial measures should not be considered as alternatives to GAAP measures such as net income, operating income, net cash flows provided by operating activities or any other GAAP measure of liquidity or financial performance.

Non-GAAP Measures Reconciliation

Adjusted EBITDA The Partnership and Targa define Adjusted EBITDA as net income attributable to Targa Resources Partners LP before: interest; income taxes; depreciation and amortization; gains or losses on debt repurchases and redemptions; early debt extinguishment and asset disposals; non-cash risk management activities related to derivative instruments; changes in the fair value of the Badlands acquisition contingent consideration and the non-controlling interest portion of depreciation and amortization expenses. Adjusted EBITDA is used as a supplemental financial measure by our management and by external users of our financial statements such as investors, commercial banks and others. The economic substance behind management s use of Adjusted EBITDA is to measure the ability of our assets to generate cash sufficient to pay interest costs, support our indebtedness and make distributions to our investors.

Adjusted EBITDA is a non-GAAP financial measure. The GAAP measures most directly comparable to Adjusted EBITDA are net cash provided by operating activities and net income (loss) attributable to Targa Resources Partners LP. Adjusted EBITDA should not be considered as an alternative to GAAP net cash provided by operating activities or GAAP net income. Adjusted EBITDA has important limitations as an analytical tool. Investors should not consider Adjusted EBITDA in isolation or as a substitute for analysis of our results as reported under GAAP. Because Adjusted EBITDA excludes some, but not all, items that affect net income and net cash provided by operating activities and is defined differently by different companies in our industry, our definition of Adjusted EBITDA may not be comparable to similarly titled measures of other companies.

Management compensates for the limitations of Adjusted EBITDA as an analytical tool by reviewing the comparable GAAP measures, understanding the differences between the measures and incorporating these insights into management s decision-making processes.

The following table presents a reconciliation of 2014 projected Adjusted EBITDA to net income for NGLS:
