Safe Harbor Statement

This communication contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 based on management's current beliefs and expectations and involve a number of assumptions, known and unknown risks and uncertainties that may change over time and could cause future results, performance or achievements to differ materially from the results, performance or achievements or implied by such forward-looking statements. These assumptions, known and unknown risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, those discussed in our Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2014 and in our other filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

Commission (the SEC), and those relating to Mylan's business, as detailed from time to time in Mylan's filings with the SEC, are incorporated herein by reference. Forward-looking statements are generally identified by the words "expects," "anticipates," "estimates," "will," "would," "could," "should," "may," "plans" and similar expressions. All statements, other than statements of historical fact, that could be deemed to be forward-looking statements, including statements about the proposed acquisition of Mylan, the proposed transaction, the expected future performance (including expected results of operations and financial guidance), and the company's future financial condition, operating results, strategy and plans. Important factors that could cause actual results, performance or achievements to differ materially from the forward-looking statements we make in this communication include, but are not limited to: the outcome of any possible transaction between Teva and Mylan, including the possibility that no transaction between Teva and Mylan will occur or that a transaction will be pursued on different terms and conditions; the effects of the business combination of Teva and Mylan on the combined company's future financial condition, operating results, strategy and plans; uncertainties as to the timing of the transaction; that the expected benefits of the transaction and the integration of our operations with Mylan's operations (including any expected synergies) may not be fully realized by us or may take longer to realize than expected; adverse effects on the market price of Teva's or Mylan's common stock; negative effects of this communication or the consummation of the possible transaction; the ability to obtain regulatory approval for the proposed or expected and satisfy other conditions to the offer, including any necessary stockholder approval, in each case, on a timely manner; Mylan's ability to comply with all covenants in our or its current or future indentures and credit facilities, any violation of which in a timely manner, could trigger a default of other obligations under cross default provisions; our and Mylan's exposure to currency fluctuations, restrictions as well as credit risks; the effects of reforms in healthcare regulation and pharmaceutical pricing and reimbursement; the uncertainty surrounding the legislative and regulatory pathways for the registration and approval of biotechnology-based medicines; the impact of competition from other market participants; adverse effects of political or economic instability, corruption, major hostilities or acts of terrorism; our significant worldwide operations; other risks, uncertainties and other factors detailed in our Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2014 and in our other filings with the SEC; and the risks and uncertainties and other factors detailed in Mylan's filings with the SEC. All forward-looking statements attributable to us or any person acting on our behalf are expressly qualified by this cautionary statement. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on any of these forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date on which they are made and we assume no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Additional Information

This communication is for informational purposes only and does not constitute an offer to buy or solicitation of an offer to sell. This communication relates to a proposal which Teva has made for a business combination transaction with Mylan. In furtherance of this proposal, subject to future developments, Teva and Mylan may file one or more proxy statements, registration statements or other documents with the SEC. This communication is not a substitute for any proxy statement, registration statement, prospectus or other document Teva and Mylan may file with the SEC in connection with the proposed transaction. No offering of securities shall be made except by means of a prospectus.

meeting the requirements of Section 10 of the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended. INVESTORS AND SECURITY HOLDERS SHOULD REVIEW THE PROXY STATEMENT(S), REGISTRATION STATEMENT, PROSPECTUS AND OTHER DOCUMENTS THAT MAKE UP THIS FILING IN THEIR ENTIRETY IF AND WHEN THEY BECOME AVAILABLE AS THEY WILL CONTAIN IMPORTANT INFORMATION. Any definitive proxy statement(s) (if and when available) will be mailed to stockholders. Investors and security holders may obtain a copy of any communication, any proxy statement, registration statement, prospectus and other documents (in each case, if and when available) by Teva through the web site maintained by the SEC at <http://www.sec.gov>.
