Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Merger Agreement

On May 31, 2016, salesforce.com, inc. (the Company) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) by and among the Company, Dynasty Acquisition Corp., an indirectly wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company (the Purchaser), and Demandware, Inc. (Demandware). Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, and upon the terms and subject to the conditions thereof, the Purchaser will, within eight business days of May 31, 2016, commence a cash tender offer (the Offer) to purchase all of the outstanding shares of common stock, $0.01 par value per share, of Demandware (the Shares) at a price per share of $75.00 (the Offer Price), net to the seller in cash, without interest, for an overall transaction value of approximately $2.8 billion (net of cash acquired). The Offer is expected to be completed in the second quarter of the Company's fiscal year 2017, which ends July 31, 2016.

The Offer will be subject to customary conditions, including (i) the valid tender, not validly withdrawn, of the number of Shares, together with any Shares beneficially owned by the Company or any of its subsidiaries, that would represent one share more than 50% of the sum of (a) all Shares then outstanding, plus (b) all Shares issuable to holders of Demandware stock options from whom Demandware has received notices of exercise (and as to which Shares have not yet been issued to such exercising holders), (ii) the expiration or termination of the required waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 and (iii) approval by the German Federal Cartel Office. The Company intends to fund the transaction with cash on hand and up to $500 million under a new term loan as described under Commitment Letter below.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, following the completion of the Offer, the Purchaser will be merged with and into Demandware, with Demandware becoming a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company (the Merger). In the Merger, all then outstanding Shares, other than Shares held by the Company, the Purchaser and Demandware, and Shares held by stockholders who have validly exercised their appraisal rights under the Delaware General Corporation Law (the DGCL), will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive the Offer Price.

The Merger Agreement contemplates that the Merger will be effected pursuant to Section 251(h) of the DGCL, which permits completion of the Merger upon the collective ownership by the Company, the Purchaser and any other subsidiary of the Company of one share more than 50% of the then-issued and outstanding Shares, and if the Merger is so effected pursuant to Section 251(h) of the DGCL, no stockholder vote will be required to consummate the Merger.

The Merger Agreement contains representations, warranties and covenants of the Company, Demandware and the Purchaser that are customary for a transaction of this nature, including among others, covenants by Demandware concerning the conduct of its business during the pendency of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, restrictions on solicitation of competing acquisition proposals, public disclosures and other matters. The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights of the Company and Demandware and provides that, upon the termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, Demandware will be required to pay the Company a termination fee of $107 million.

The foregoing descriptions of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by this reference. Exhibit 2.1 is filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), and therefore may be incorporated by reference into filings made under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act). The Merger Agreement, which has been included to provide investors with information regarding its terms and is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company or Demandware, contains representations and warranties of each of the Company, Demandware and the Purchaser. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made for purposes of the Merger Agreement and are subject to qualifications and limitations agreed to by the respective parties in connection with negotiating the terms of the Merger Agreement, including information contained in confidential disclosure schedules that the parties exchanged in connection with signing the Merger Agreement. Accordingly, investors and security holders should not rely on such representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts or circumstances, since they were only made as of a specific date and are modified in important part by the underlying disclosure schedules. In addition, certain representations and warranties may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from what might be viewed as material to stockholders, or may have been used for purposes of allocating risk between the respective parties rather than establishing matters of fact. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of such representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company's or Demandware's public disclosures.

Commitment Letter

On May 31, 2016, in connection with the Merger Agreement, the Company entered into a commitment letter with Bank of America, N.A. and Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated (the "Commitment Letter"), pursuant to which, subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein, Bank of America, N.A. has committed to provide a $500 million term loan, the proceeds of which may be used for the payment of the Offer Price contemplated by, and the payment of fees and expenses incurred in connection with, the Merger Agreement and the Offer. The agreement for the term loan facility would contain affirmative covenants, negative covenants and events of default, as well as financial covenants, in each case to be negotiated by the parties. The commitment is subject to various conditions, including consummation of the Offer.

The foregoing description of the Commitment Letter does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Commitment Letter, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by this reference.

Item 8.01 Other Events

On June 1, 2016, the Company and Demandware issued a press release announcing the entry into the Merger Agreement. A copy of that press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

Demandware stockholders and other investors are strongly advised to read the Offer materials (including the Offer to Purchase, the related Letter of Transmittal and certain other tender offer documents that have yet to be filed) and the Solicitation/Recommendation Statement because they will contain important information that should be read carefully before any decision is made with respect to the Offer.
