Price Stabilization, Short Positions

Until the distribution of the shares is completed, SEC rules may limit the underwriter from bidding for and purchasing our common stock. However, the underwriter may engage in transactions that stabilize the price of the common stock, such as bids or purchases to peg, fix or maintain that price.

In connection with the Offering, the underwriter may purchase and sell our common stock in the open market. These transactions may include short sales, purchases on the open market to cover positions created by short sales and stabilizing transactions. Short sales involve the sale by the underwriter of a greater number of shares than it is required to purchase in the Offering. Stabilizing transactions consist of various bids for or purchases of common stock made by the underwriter in the open market prior to the completion of the Offering.

Similar to other purchase transactions, the underwriter's purchases to cover short sales may have the effect of raising or maintaining the market price of our common stock or preventing or retarding a decline in the market price of our common stock. As a result, the price of our common stock may be higher than the price that might otherwise exist in the open market.

Table of Contents

In connection with the Offering, the underwriter or certain of the securities dealers may distribute prospectuses by electronic means, such as e-mail. In addition, the underwriter may facilitate Internet distribution for this Offering to certain of its Internet subscription customers. Other than the prospectus in electronic format, the information on the underwriter's web site and any information contained in any other web sites maintained by the underwriter are not part of this prospectus supplement.

The Scottrade Acquisition

On September 18, 2017, the Company completed its acquisition of Scottrade Financial Services, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Scottrade), pursuant to that certain Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 24, 2016 (the merger agreement), by and among the Company, Scottrade, Alto Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, and Rodger O. Riney, as Voting Trustee of the Rodger O. Riney Family Voting Trust U/A/D 12/31/2012 (in such capacity, the Riney Stockholder). Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, the Company acquired Scottrade (the Scottrade acquisition) in a cash and equity transaction.

Founded in 1980, Scottrade is a leading provider of securities brokerage services to retail investors, traders and independent RIAs through its online platform as well as through nearly 500 branches. As of June 30, 2017, Scottrade had 3.0 million funded accounts (i.e., open client accounts with a total liquidation value greater than zero), $186.7 billion in client assets and total consolidated assets of $24.5 billion, of which the substantial majority ($17.0 billion) were in its subsidiary, Scottrade Bank. For the last twelve months ended June 30, 2017, Scottrade had total revenue of $1.1 billion and net income of $181.2 million.

The Scottrade acquisition took place in two consecutive steps. First, pursuant to and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in a separate Agreement and Plan of Merger, TD Bank, N.A., a wholly owned subsidiary of The Toronto-Dominion Bank (TD), acquired Scottrade Bank, a wholly owned subsidiary of Scottrade, from Scottrade (the Bank acquisition) for approximately $1.4 billion in cash, subject to certain closing adjustments. Additionally, TD Luxembourg International Holdings S.à r.l. (TD Lux), an affiliate of TD, purchased approximately $400 million in new common equity of the Company, or 11,074,197 shares, from the Company in connection with the transaction. Immediately following TD's acquisition of Scottrade Bank, the Company acquired Scottrade for approximately $3.1 billion in cash (including the cash proceeds from the Bank acquisition described above) and the issuance of 27,685,493 shares of the Company's common stock, subject to certain closing adjustments.

Table of Contents

For more information regarding the terms of the merger agreement, the registration rights agreement and the Scottrade acquisition, see our Current Reports on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on October 28, 2016 and September 18, 2017, our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2016, filed with the SEC on November 18, 2016, and our other subsequently filed reports filed with the SEC, which are incorporated herein by reference.

Registration Rights Agreement

At the closing of the Scottrade acquisition, the Company, TD, TD Lux, the Riney Stockholder and the other stockholders described therein (the Ricketts Stockholders) entered into a registration rights agreement (the registration rights agreement) providing each of TD, TD Lux, the Riney Stockholder and the Ricketts Stockholders with certain customary registration rights with respect to shares of our common stock that qualify as registrable securities under the registration rights agreement, including certain shares issued to the Riney Stockholder and TD Lux, respectively, in connection with the closing of the Scottrade acquisition and certain shares previously acquired by TD, TD Lux and the Ricketts Stockholders. Pursuant to the registration rights agreement, each of TD, TD Lux, the Riney Stockholder and the Ricketts Stockholders are entitled to certain customary demand registration, shelf takedown and piggyback registration rights with respect to their respective registrable securities, subject to certain customary limitations (including with respect to minimum offering size and maximum number of demands and underwritten shelf takedowns within certain periods). With respect to TD, TD Lux and the Ricketts Stockholders, the registration rights agreement supersedes and replaces the Amended and Restated Registration Rights Agreement, dated as of June 22, 2005, by and among the Company, TD and the Ricketts Stockholders.

RISK FACTORS

Investing in our common stock involves significant risks. Before you invest in our common stock, in addition to the following risk factors and the other information contained in this prospectus and in any applicable prospectus supplement or free writing prospectus, you should carefully consider the risks and uncertainties identified in the Company's reports filed with the SEC that are incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into this prospectus and any applicable prospectus supplement.

Future sales or the possibility of future sales of a substantial amount of our common stock may depress the price of shares of our common stock.

Future sales or the availability for sale of substantial amounts of our common stock in the public market could adversely affect the prevailing market price of our common stock and could impair our ability to raise capital through future sales of equity securities.

In connection with the Scottrade acquisition, we issued 11,074,197 shares of our common stock to TD Lux and 27,685,493 shares of our common stock to the Riney Stockholder (including certain shares deposited into an escrow account to secure certain indemnification obligations of the Riney Stockholder under the merger agreement). The issuance of these new shares could have the effect of depressing the market price for our common stock. Additionally, pursuant to the terms of the registration rights agreement, we have filed with the SEC a registration statement covering resales of the shares of our common stock held by the selling stockholders that qualify as registrable securities under the registration rights agreement. This prospectus forms a part of the registration statement filed by us as required by the registration rights agreement.

We may issue our common stock or other securities from time to time as consideration for future acquisitions and investments. The number of shares of our common stock, or the number or aggregate principal amount, as the case may be, of other securities that we may issue may in turn be substantial. We may also grant registration rights covering those shares of our common stock or other securities in connection with any such acquisitions and investments.

We cannot predict the size of future issuances of our common stock or the effect, if any, that future issuances and sales of our common stock will have on the market price of our common stock. Sales of substantial amounts of our common stock (including shares of our common stock issued in connection with an acquisition or investment), or the perception that such sales could occur, may adversely affect prevailing market prices for our common stock.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will not receive any proceeds from the resale of our common stock by the selling stockholders. All proceeds from the sale of our common stock pursuant to this prospectus will be for the accounts of the selling stockholders.

STOCKHOLDERS AGREEMENTS

The following description of the TD Stockholders Agreement and the Riney Stockholders Agreement and the transactions and agreements contemplated thereby does not purport to be complete and is subject to and qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the agreements, as amended, which are included as exhibits to the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part and are incorporated herein by reference. See Where You Can Find More Information.

TD Stockholders Agreement

As a result of our acquisition of TD Waterhouse in 2006, TD became one of our affiliates, beneficially owning approximately 42% of our common stock as of June 30, 2017. Pursuant to the stockholders agreement, as amended, between TD and the Company (the "TD Stockholders Agreement"), TD has the right to designate five of the 12 members of the Company's board of directors, subject to adjustment based on TD's ownership positions in TD Ameritrade. Based on its current ownership position, TD has the right to designate five members of our board of directors. Accordingly, TD is able to significantly influence the outcome of all matters that come before our board.

TD is permitted under the TD Stockholders Agreement to exercise voting rights on up to 45% of our outstanding shares of common stock until termination of the TD Stockholders Agreement (which will occur no later than January 24, 2021). If our stock repurchases cause TD's ownership percentage to exceed 45%, TD is required to use reasonable efforts to sell or dispose of such excess stock, subject to TD's commercial judgment as to the optimal timing, amount and method of sales with a view to maximizing proceeds from such sales. TD has no absolute obligation to reduce its ownership percentage to 45% by the termination of the TD Stockholders Agreement. However, prior to and following the termination of the TD Stockholders Agreement, TD is required to vote any such excess stock on any matter in the same proportions as all the outstanding shares of stock held by holders other than TD and its affiliates are voted. In no event may the Company repurchase shares of its common stock that would result in TD's ownership percentage exceeding 47%. There is no restriction on the number of shares TD may own following the termination of the TD Stockholders Agreement.

The ownership position and governance rights of TD could discourage a third party from proposing a change of control or other strategic transaction concerning TD Ameritrade. As a result, our common stock could trade at prices that do not reflect a "takeover premium" to the same extent as do the stocks of similarly situated companies that do not have a stockholder with an ownership interest as large as TD's ownership interest.

Riney Stockholders Agreement

In connection with the closing of the Scottrade acquisition, the Company and the Riney Stockholder entered into a stockholders agreement (the "Riney Stockholders Agreement" and, together with the TD Stockholders Agreement, the "stockholders agreements"), setting forth, among other things, certain rights and obligations of the Riney Stockholder as a stockholder of the Company, including limitations on the acquisition of additional equity interests in the Company, customary standstill restrictions and prohibitions on taking certain actions relating to the Company, transfer restrictions and voting arrangements relating to the election or removal of directors as provided in the TD Stockholders Agreement.

The Riney Stockholders Agreement prohibits the Riney Stockholder and its permitted transferees from transferring their shares of our common stock unless such transfer is not to a transferee who following such transfer would hold 5% or more of the outstanding shares of our common stock, subject to certain exceptions. The Riney Stockholders Agreement also requires the Riney Stockholder to vote its shares of our common stock in favor of each director candidate nominated for election to the board pursuant to the terms of the TD Stockholders Agreement. The Riney Stockholders Agreement also contains customary standstill provisions and generally prohibits the Riney Stockholder and its permitted transferees from acquiring any additional shares of our common stock.

The Riney Stockholders Agreement terminates on the earliest of (1) on or prior to the third anniversary of the date of the Riney Stockholders Agreement, the date on which the Riney Stockholder and its permitted transferees cease to beneficially own at least 66 2/3% of the shares of our common stock acquired by the Riney Stockholder as stock consideration in the Scottrade acquisition, (2) after the third anniversary of the date of the Riney Stockholders

Agreement, the date on which the Riney Stockholder and its permitted transferees cease to beneficially own at least 85% of the shares of our common stock acquired by the Riney Stockholder as stock consideration in the Scottrade acquisition, and (3) at the election of the Riney Stockholder upon not less than six months prior irrevocable notice to the Company, on a date following the fourth anniversary of the date of the Riney Stockholders Agreement (provided that certain standstill restrictions will continue for a period of six months after the date of such termination).

SELLING STOCKHOLDERS

The selling stockholders may from time to time, in one or more transactions, offer and sell any or all of the shares of our common stock that qualify as registrable securities pursuant to this prospectus, which we are registering for resale by them in accordance with the terms of the registration rights agreement. Pursuant to the registration rights agreement, each of the selling stockholders is entitled to certain customary demand registration, shelf takedown and piggyback registration rights with respect to their shares of our common stock that qualify as registrable securities under the registration rights agreement, subject to certain customary limitations (including with respect to minimum offering size and maximum number of demands and underwritten shelf takedowns within certain periods). With respect to TD, TD Lux and the Ricketts Stockholders, the registration rights agreement supersedes and replaces the Amended and Restated Registration Rights Agreement, dated as of June 22, 2005, by and among the Company, TD and the Ricketts Stockholders.

Specific information about the selling stockholders, including the common stock to be registered on their behalf and the amounts to be sold by them, will be set forth in a prospectus supplement, in a post-effective amendment or in filings we make with the SEC under the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in this prospectus. The selling stockholders, in the aggregate, beneficially own a majority of the Company's outstanding shares of common stock.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The selling stockholders will act independently of the Company in making their respective decisions with respect to the timing, manner and size of each and any sale. Subject to the terms and restrictions set forth in the registration rights agreement, the stockholder agreements, certain related agreements and applicable law, the selling stockholders and any of their pledgees, donees, transferees or other successors in interest may, from time to time, offer and sell, separately or together, any or all of the shares of our common stock covered by this prospectus that qualify as registrable securities under the registration rights agreement. A selling stockholder will be responsible for its portion of any commissions charged by broker-dealers or agents or underwriting discounts in connection with any such offer and sale. The registrable securities may be sold in one or more transactions at fixed prices or prices subject to change, at prices related to prevailing market prices at the time of sale, at varying prices determined at the time of sale, or at negotiated prices.

The selling stockholders may use any one or more of the following methods when selling shares:

through underwriters, brokers or dealers or agents (who may act as agent or principal and who may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the selling stockholders, the purchaser or such other persons who may be effecting such sales) for resale to the public or to institutional investors at various times;

through negotiated transactions, including, but not limited to, block trades in which the broker or dealer so engaged will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;

through brokers or dealers, who may act as agents or principals;

on any national securities exchange or quotation service on which the shares may be listed or quoted at the time of sale at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to such prevailing market prices, or at negotiated prices;

in the over-the-counter market;

in private transactions other than exchange or quotation service transactions;

through short sales, purchases or sales of put, call or other types of options, forward delivery contracts, swaps, offerings of structured equity-linked securities or other derivative transactions or securities;

in hedging transactions, including, but not limited to:

transactions with a broker-dealer or its affiliate, whereby the broker-dealer or its affiliate will engage in short sales of shares and may use shares to close out its short position;

options or other types of transactions that require the delivery of shares to a broker-dealer or an affiliate thereof, who will then resell or transfer the shares; or loans or pledges of shares for any loan or obligation, including pledges to a broker-dealer or an affiliate, who may sell the loaned shares or, in an event of default in the case of a pledge, sell the pledged shares;

through offerings of securities exercisable, convertible or exchangeable for shares, including, without limitation, securities issued by trusts, investment companies or other entities;

through offerings directly to one or more purchasers, including institutional investors; through ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which a broker solicits purchasers;

through a combination of any such methods of sale; or through any other method permitted under applicable law.

To the extent required, the number of shares our common stock to be sold, the names of the selling stockholders, the respective purchase prices and public offering prices, the names of any underwriter, agent or dealer and any applicable commissions or discounts with respect to a particular offer will be set forth in an accompanying supplement to this prospectus.

Additionally, each selling stockholder may resell all or a portion of its shares in private transactions or in reliance upon Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), rather than pursuant to this prospectus.

The selling stockholders may, from time to time, pledge or grant a security interest in some or all of the shares owned by them and, if they default in the performance of their secured obligations, the pledgees or secured parties may offer and sell the shares, from time to time, under this prospectus, or under a supplement to this prospectus to include the pledgee, permitted transferee, donee or other successor-in-interest as selling stockholder under this prospectus, and the selling stockholders also may transfer the shares in other circumstances, in each case subject to the restrictions set forth in the stockholders agreements and certain related agreements, in which case the pledgees, assignees, permitted transferees, donees or other successors-in-interest will be the selling beneficial owners for purposes of this prospectus.

In connection with the sale of the registrable securities, the selling stockholders may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions, which may in turn engage in short sales of shares of our common stock in the course of hedging the positions they assume. The selling stockholders may also sell shares of our common stock short and deliver these securities to close out their short positions, or loan or pledge shares of our common stock to broker-dealers that in turn may sell these securities. The selling stockholders may also enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions or create one or more derivative securities which require the delivery to such broker-dealer or other financial institution of shares of our common stock offered by this prospectus, which shares such broker-dealer or other financial institution may resell pursuant to this prospectus (as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction). Any such transactions will be subject to the restrictions set forth in the stockholders agreements and certain related agreements.

The aggregate proceeds to the selling stockholders from the sale of the registrable securities offered by them will be the purchase price of the shares of our common stock less discounts or commissions, if any. Each of the selling stockholders reserves the right to accept and, together with their agents from time to time, to reject, in whole or in part, any proposed purchase of shares of our common stock to be made directly or through agents.

Each selling stockholder may be deemed to be a statutory underwriter under the Securities Act. In addition, any broker-dealers who act in connection with the sale of the registrable securities may be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of Section 2(11) of the Securities Act, and any commissions received by them and profit on any resale of the registrable securities as principal may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act. Broker-dealers engaged by the selling stockholders may arrange for other brokers-dealers to participate in sales. Such broker-dealers and any other participating broker-dealers may, in connection with such sales, be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of the Securities Act. If the selling stockholders effect such transactions through underwriters, broker-dealers or agents, such underwriters, broker-dealers or agents may receive commissions in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the selling stockholders or commissions from purchasers of the registrable securities for whom they may act as agent or to whom they may sell as principal, or both (which discounts, concessions or commissions as to particular underwriters, broker-dealers or agents may be less than or in excess of those customary in the types of transactions involved). Any discounts or commissions received by any such broker-dealers may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act.

To the extent applicable we will make copies of this prospectus (as it may be supplemented or amended from time to time) available to the selling stockholders for the purpose of satisfying the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act.

Underwriters, brokers, dealers and agents may be customers of, engage in transactions with, or perform services for, us and our subsidiaries in the ordinary course of business.

Underwriters, brokers, dealers and agents may from time to time purchase and sell securities in the secondary market, but are not obligated to do so, and there can be no assurance that there will be a secondary market for the securities or liquidity in the secondary market if one develops. From time to time, underwriters and agents may make a market in the securities but are not obligated to do so and may cease to do so at any time.

There can be no assurance that the selling stockholders will sell any or all of the registrable securities covered by this prospectus.

In order to comply with the securities laws of some states, if applicable, shares of our common stock may be sold in these jurisdictions only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in some states shares of our common stock may not be sold unless they have been registered or qualified for sale or an exemption from registration or qualification requirements is available and is complied with.

We have advised the selling stockholders that the anti-manipulation rules of Regulation M under the Exchange Act may apply to sales of shares of our common stock in the market and to the activities of the selling stockholders and their affiliates. The foregoing may affect the marketability of our common stock.

We have agreed to indemnify the selling stockholders, any person who is a controlling person of such selling stockholders within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20 of the Exchange Act, their respective direct and indirect general and limited partners, advisory board members, directors, officers, trustees, managers, members, employees, agents, affiliates and stockholders, and each other agent, if any, who acts on behalf of or controls any such selling stockholder or controlling person, against certain liabilities, including some liabilities under the Securities Act, in accordance with the registration rights agreement. We may be indemnified by the selling stockholders against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, in accordance with the registration rights agreement.

We pay dividends on our common stock only if we have paid or provided for all dividends on any outstanding series of preferred stock, for the then current period, and, in the case of any cumulative preferred stock, all prior periods.

Anti-Takeover Effects of Certain Provisions of our Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws

Our certificate of incorporation and bylaws contain provisions that may delay, defer, discourage or prevent a change in control of the Company, the removal of our existing management or directors, or an offer by a potential acquirer to our stockholders. These provisions include:

Classified board of directors. In accordance with the terms of our certificate of incorporation, our board of directors is divided into three classes, Class I, Class II and Class III, with members of each class serving staggered three-year terms. The classification of the board of directors may have the effect of making it more difficult for stockholders to change the composition of the board of directors.

No cumulative voting. The DGCL provides that stockholders are not entitled to the right to cumulate votes in the election of directors unless the certificate of incorporation specifically authorizes cumulative voting. Our certificate of incorporation does not authorize cumulative voting.

Table of Contents

Requirements for removal of directors. Our certificate of incorporation provides that, unless a termination event (as defined in the certificate of incorporation) has occurred, directors may only be removed for cause by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of our outstanding shares of common stock.

Special meetings of stockholders. Our certificate of incorporation provides that special meetings of the stockholders may only be called by the secretary of the Company at the direction of a majority of the directors of the Company or upon the request of stockholders owning of record 25% or more of our outstanding shares of common stock.

No stockholder action by written consent. Our certificate of incorporation provides that stockholder action can be taken only at an annual or special meeting of stockholders and cannot be taken by written consent in lieu of a meeting.

Stockholder advance notice procedures. Our bylaws establish advance notice procedures with respect to stockholder proposals and the nomination of candidates for election as directors. These provisions may have the effect of precluding the conduct of certain business at a meeting if the proper procedures are not followed.

Exclusive forum. Our certificate of incorporation designates a state or federal court located within the State of Delaware as the sole and exclusive forum for certain litigation that may be initiated by our stockholders. Although we believe this provision benefits us by providing greater consistency in the application of Delaware law in the types of lawsuits to which it applies, the provision may have the effect of discouraging lawsuits against our directors and officers.

Supermajority approval requirements. Certain amendments to our certificate of incorporation or bylaws require the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80% of the voting power of the outstanding shares of our capital stock entitled to vote thereon.

Anti-Takeover Effects of Certain Provisions of Delaware Law

We are subject to the provisions of Section 203 of the DGCL, which generally may have an anti-takeover effect for transactions not approved in advance by our board of directors, including discouraging attempts that might result in a premium over the market price for our common stock. In general, Section 203 prohibits a publicly-held Delaware corporation from engaging in a business combination with an interested stockholder for a three-year period following the time that the stockholder becomes an interested stockholder unless:

the business combination or the transaction which resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder is approved by the board of directors prior to the time the interested stockholder obtained such status;

upon consummation of the transaction that resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder, the interested stockholder owned at least 85% of the voting stock of the corporation outstanding at the time the transaction commenced; or at or subsequent to such time, the business combination is approved by the board of directors and authorized at an annual or special meeting of the stockholders by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the outstanding voting stock which is not owned by the interested stockholder.

For purposes of Section 203, a business combination is defined to include mergers, asset sales and other transactions resulting in financial benefit to an interested stockholder. In general, an interested stockholder is a person who owns (or is an affiliate or associate of the corporation and, within the prior three years, did own) 15% or more of the corporation's voting stock.
