ITEM 5.02 DEPARTURE OF DIRECTORS OR CERTAIN OFFICERS; ELECTION OF DIRECTORS; APPOINTMENT OF CERTAIN OFFICERS; COMPENSATORY ARRANGEMENT OF CERTAIN OFFICERS

On June 26, the Company announced that Steven R. Bromley, the Company's CEO, would transition out of that role no later than the end of 2008 and would not stand for reelection to the Company's Board of Directors at the annual shareholder meeting in 2009 and further announced that John Dietrich, Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, would transition out of that role no later than the end of 2008. The Company also announced that Jeremy Kendall, the Chairman of the Company's Board of Directors, would transition out of the position as Chair at the 2009 annual meeting of shareholders.

The Company's Board of Directors has considered each of these matters further and on November 5, 2008 determined, with the recommendation of the Audit Committee, that it is in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders:

- to retain Mr. Bromley in his role as Chief Executive Officer beyond the end of 2008, and to have Mr. Bromley stand for reelection to the Company's Board of Directors at the annual shareholder meeting in 2009 if he is nominated pursuant to the Company's director nomination procedures;
- to retain Mr. Dietrich as an employee of the Company in a non-financial role to be determined, which role he would assume when he leaves the CFO position at the end of 2008; and
- for Mr. Kendall to retain his role as Chairman of the Board beyond the 2009 meeting of the Company's shareholders, assuming he is nominated and re-elected as a member of the Board of Directors and the Board wishes him to do so.

No changes to Mr. Bromley's compensation or other terms of employment that have been previously disclosed are planned at this time.

As a result of the retention of Mr. Bromley and Mr. Dietrich, the severance costs associated with their departure will not be incurred by the Company. Based on generally accepted accounting principles, these costs had been accrued in the Company's results of operations for the second quarter of 2008. These costs have been reversed in the Company's operating results for the third quarter of 2008.
