Petrobras announces increase in product prices

(Rio de Janeiro, June 14, 2004). PETRÓLEO BRASILEIRO S/A - PETROBRAS, [Bovespa: PETR3/PETR4, NYSE: PBR/PBRA, Latibex: XPBR/XPBRA], a Brazilian international energy company, notifies its customers of increases in the price of its products according to the following table, coming into effect from midnight on June 15, 2004 (Increases in billing prices at the Petrobras refineries, without ICMS - average for Brazil).

| Increases: | without CIDE and PIS/Cofins | with CIDE and PIS/Cofins |
|------------|-----------------------------|--------------------------|
| Gasoline | 10.8 % | 6.1 % |
| Diesel | 10.6 % | 8.2 % |

During the last two months, reflecting the situation of uncertainty in supplies from the Middle East, the continued increase in China's oil consumption, the impacts of financial movements on the oil futures market and the increased demand for oil by the US economy, the prices of oil on the international market have significantly increased in relation to those practiced in May of 2003.

With this increase, gasoline and diesel prices at the Petrobras refineries have returned to the nominal values that were in effect during the entire first quarter of last year and up to April 30, 2003.
