Clarification on the Capitalization Process

Rio de Janeiro, March 24 2010 Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. - Petrobras clarifies that, as per the Material Fact announced on August 31 2009 about the changes proposed to the regulatory framework for oil and natural gas exploration and production, and with regard to the Bill that deals specifically with the Transfer of rights with compensation and the capitalization:

- It undertook an analysis and definition of the corporate procedures that are required for the approval of the Company's capitalization, observing the Brazilian Corporate Law and its By Law, which will include, among others, the convening of an Extraordinary Shareholder Meeting for the approval of the capitalization and the preference rights of the current shareholders;
- It has been developing tests to assess the value of the "transfer of rights" for the areas that are eligible for the onerous transfer operation pursuant to the best practices in the oil industry.

The Company maintains the expectation that the approval of the capitalization Bill, which is under discussion in Congress, will be approved in the first half of 2010.

Finally, the Company clarifies one of its assumptions is that the capitalization will take place within this period to finance portion of the capex planned for 2010, amounting to R$ 88.5 billion, as detailed in the release issued on March 19 2010, without compromising the maximum net leverage ratio of 35% set by the Board.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (Securities Act), and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (Exchange Act) that are not based on historical facts and are not assurances of future results. These forward-looking statements are based on management's current view and estimates of future economic circumstances, industry conditions, company performance and financial results. The words "anticipates", "believes", "estimates", "expects", "plans" and similar expressions, as they relate to the company, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Statements regarding the declaration or payment of dividends, the implementation of principal operating and financial condition, liquidity or results of operations are examples of forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect the current views of management and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. There is no guarantee that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. The statements are based on many assumptions and factors, including general economic and market conditions, industry conditions, and operating factors. Any changes in such assumptions or factors could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations.

All forward-looking statements are expressly qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement, and you should not place reliance on any forward-looking statement contained in this press release. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information or future events or for any other reason.
