Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On September 15, 2009, Altus Pharmaceuticals Inc. (the "Company") received notice from The Nasdaq Stock Market ("Nasdaq") stating that for 30 consecutive business days, the bid price of the Company's common stock had closed below the minimum $1.00 per share requirement for continued inclusion under Nasdaq Listing Rule 5550(a)(2).

In accordance with Listing Rule 5810(c)(3)(A), the Company has 180 calendar days to regain compliance. If at any time before March 15, 2010, the bid price of the Company's common stock closes at $1.00 per share or more for a minimum of 10 consecutive business days, Nasdaq will notify the Company that it has achieved compliance with the minimum bid price rule. If the Company does not meet this requirement, the Company's common stock may be delisted.

In addition, in light of the Company's disclosure that it has commenced a process to wind down the business of the Company, on September 16, 2009, the Company received a letter from Nasdaq requesting the Company to supply certain information in order to enable Nasdaq to determine whether the Company may be deemed a "public shell." If Nasdaq determines that the Company is a "public shell," Nasdaq may, under Listing Rule 5100, determine to delist the Company's common stock, even if the Company regains compliance with the minimum bid price rule.

On September 18, 2009, the Company issued a press release announcing the Nasdaq letters. A copy of this press release is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this report and is incorporated herein by reference.
