Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On November 7, 2012, Cole Credit Property Trust II, Inc. (the “Company”), upon approval by its board of directors, entered into an indemnification agreement (the “Indemnification Agreement”) with each of its directors (Marcus E. Bromley, Christopher H. Cole and George F. Fugelsang) and its chief financial officer (D. Kirk McAllaster, Jr.) (each, an “Indemnitee”). The Indemnification Agreement clarifies and supplements indemnification provisions already contained in the Company’s charter and generally provides that, on the terms and subject to the conditions of the Indemnification Agreement and consistent with the Company’s charter, the Company shall indemnify the Indemnitee to the fullest extent permitted by law. The Indemnification Agreement provides that the Company will (except in certain limited circumstances) indemnify the Indemnitee against all losses, liabilities, judgments, fines, penalties, costs, amounts paid in settlement, expenses and other amounts that the Indemnitee incurs and that result from, arise in connection with, or are by reason of his service as a director and/or officer of the Company. Specifically, in addition to limitations on indemnification imposed by law, the Indemnification Agreement with respect to each director provides that the Indemnitee will be indemnified by the Company for losses or liabilities suffered by the Indemnitee only if:

- the Indemnitee determined, in good faith, that the course of conduct that caused the loss or liability was in the Company’s best interests;
- in the case of interested directors, the liability or loss was not the result of negligence or misconduct by the Indemnitee; and
- in the case of independent directors, the liability or loss was not the result of gross negligence or willful misconduct by the Indemnitee.

The Indemnification Agreement also provides for the advancement to the fullest extent permitted by law of all expenses incurred by the Indemnitee in connection with any proceeding arising from or relating to the Indemnitee’s service as a director and/or officer of the Company, provided that, to the extent required by law, the Indemnitee provides a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the applicable standard for indemnification and a written undertaking to repay the advanced amounts if, upon conclusion of the proceeding, it is ultimately established that the Indemnitee was not entitled to indemnification. In addition, the Indemnification Agreement requires the Company to maintain director’s and officer’s insurance with coverage consistent with market amounts, terms and policy limits for similarly situated real estate investment trusts and at least as favorable to the Indemnitee as the insurance coverage provided to any other director or officer of the Company.

A copy of the form of Indemnification Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. The description above of the Indemnification Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the form of Indemnification Agreement filed herewith.

Item 5.03 Amendment to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year

Effective November 7, 2012, Article II, Section 2 of the Amended and Restated Bylaws of the Company (the “Bylaws”) was amended to provide that the annual meeting of the stockholders for the election of the directors and the transaction of any business within the powers of the Company shall be held on a date and at the time set by the board of directors; provided, however, that such meeting shall not be held less than thirty days after delivery of the annual report to the stockholders. This section of the Bylaws previously provided that the Company’s annual meeting of stockholders was required to be held in the month of May each year. A copy of the amendment is attached as Exhibit 3.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K, and is incorporated by reference into this Item 5.03.

Update Regarding Evaluation of Potential Exit Strategies

As previously reported, the Company is actively exploring a successful exit of its portfolio by thoroughly evaluating a range of potential exit strategies. The Company believes that some recent activity in the market has increased the level of interest in larger, high-quality, credit net lease portfolios, including those assembled by non-listed REIT sponsors. The Company believes this activity has increased the relative attractiveness of a sale and is currently actively marketing the Company for sale with the assistance of Morgan Stanley and UBS Investment Bank. Numerous potential bidders have requested and received comprehensive portfolio information under confidentiality agreements. The Company is allowing bidders to bid on the entire portfolio or one or more of the three major property types in the Company's portfolio (single tenant retail, multi-tenant retail and single tenant office and industrial properties). Potential bidders have been requested to provide initial bids later this month. The Company cannot provide any assurance that any transaction will be proposed, that the Company will agree to consider or enter into any transaction, or whether a transaction will be consummated.

While no final decisions have been made, the Company anticipates being in a position to announce further updates regarding a liquidity event in the near future.
