2.05 Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities.

On December 2, 2010, PGT, Inc. (the “Company”) committed to a plan to close its window and door manufacturing and glass processing facilities located in Salisbury, North Carolina (the “North Carolina Facility”). The North Carolina Facility currently has five window and door manufacturing lines capable of producing 2,000 units/day and insulated, laminated and heat strengthened glass capacity totaling 30,000 sqft/day. All such operations are expected to be transferred to and absorbed by the Company’s manufacturing facility in North Venice, Florida. The decision to close the North Carolina Facility results from an in-depth analysis of the Company’s target markets, product offering, and customer base, and reflects the Company’s commitment to refocus efforts in markets in which it is the established leader. The Company expects to complete the closing of the North Carolina Facility by July 2011.

Approximately 468 jobs will be eliminated by this closure. In conjunction with the closing, the Company expects to incur total costs ranging from $6.5 to $7.0 million. This includes $3.5 to $4.0 million in severance and other employee related benefits, and $3.0 million in other costs including equipment and material relocation. The majority of the total cost will be paid during the first half of the Company’s 2011 fiscal year. Impairment charges related to the assets that will remain at the North Carolina Facility have yet to be determined. The Company expects to realize annualized savings of approximately $7 million, of which approximately fifty percent (50%) will be realized in 2011.

A copy of the press release announcing the closing of the North Carolina Facility is attached hereto as Exhibit 99 and is incorporated by reference herein.
