OTHER EVENTS

ITEM 8.01

The Company previously announced that on November 20, 2015, its former CEO resigned all positions with the Company and its affiliated entities. The former CEO simultaneously executed a 12 month lock-up agreement restricting his ability to sell any shares of the Company's common stock during the lock-up period.

Those resignations came in the context of the filing of a civil action by the Securities and Exchange Commission against the former CEO. In that action, the SEC had sought certain equitable relief, including the appointment of a receiver, against properties controlled by the Company's former CEO. The SEC has now confirmed with the Company that its properties are not to be included in the properties involved in the pending civil action.
