Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On November 20, 2014, MidWestOne Financial Group, Inc., an Iowa corporation ("MidWestOne"), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Merger Agreement") with Central Bancshares, Inc. ("Central"), a Minnesota corporation, pursuant to which Central will merge with and into MidWestOne, whereupon the separate corporate existence of Central will cease and MidWestOne will survive (the "Merger"). In connection with the Merger, Central Bank, a Minnesota-chartered commercial bank and wholly-owned subsidiary of Central, will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of MidWestOne.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the Merger, each share of common stock, $1.00 par value per share, of Central ("Central Common Stock") will automatically be converted into the right to receive a pro rata portion of (i) 2,723,083 shares of common stock, $1.00 par value per share, of MidWestOne ("MidWestOne Common Stock") and (ii) $64,000,000 in cash, subject to certain adjustments as described in the Merger Agreement.

The Merger Agreement also provides, among other things, that following the effective time of the Merger the leadership team of the combined company will be comprised of individuals from both organizations. Members of MidWestOne's management team continuing in their current roles at the combined company will include Charles N. Funk, President and Chief Executive Officer, Susan R. Evans, Chief Operating Officer, Gary J. Ortale, Executive Vice-President, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer, Kent L. Jehle, Executive Vice-President and Chief Credit Officer, James M. Cantrell, Vice-President and Chief Risk Officer, and Gregory W. Turner, Vice-President and Head of Wealth Management. Additionally, Kurt Weise, President of Central, and Larry Albert, Chief Executive Officer of Central Bank, will each serve as an Executive Vice-President of the combined company, and Katie Lorenson, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer of Central, and Karin Taylor, Chief Risk Officer of Central Bank, will each be appointed as a Vice-President of the combined company. The Board of Directors of the combined company will be comprised of eight directors of MidWestOne and five directors of Central. John M. Morrison, current Chairman of the Board of Central, will become Chairman of the Board of the combined company following the Merger, with Kevin W. Monson, current Chairman of the Board of MidWestOne, serving as Vice-Chairman.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations and warranties from both MidWestOne and Central, and each party has agreed to customary covenants, including, among others, covenants relating to the conduct of its business during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the effective time, and its obligation to take certain actions necessary to obtain requisite shareholder approvals.

The completion of the Merger is subject to certain customary conditions, including (1) approval of MidWestOne's shareholders; (2) authorization for listing on The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC of the shares of MidWestOne Common Stock to be issued in the Merger; (3) the receipt of required regulatory approvals; (4) subject to certain exceptions, the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the parties; and (5) receipt by each party of an opinion from its counsel to the effect that the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. MidWestOne's obligation to complete the Merger is further subject to, among other things, (1) Central having total consolidated tangible shareholders' equity as of the end of the most recent calendar month preceding the closing of the Merger, adjusted for certain items as described in the Merger Agreement, of at least $70.0 million; (2) performance, in all material respects, by Central's shareholder and affiliates subject to the Shareholder Agreement described below of all of their respective obligations thereunder; and (3) its receipt of financing sufficient to fund the merger consideration and to perform its other obligations in connection with the Merger.

The Merger Agreement provides certain termination rights for both MidWestOne and Central, including a "double trigger" termination right in favor of Central if the market price of the MidWestOne Common Stock falls below a certain level, unless MidWestOne elects to make certain additional cash payments to Central's shareholders. Simultaneously with the execution of the Merger Agreement, MidWestOne entered into a Shareholder Agreement with the John M. Morrison Revocable Trust #4, the holder of all of the outstanding shares of Central Common Stock ("Shareholder"), CBS LLC ("TruPS Holder"), the holder of all outstanding preferred securities of CBI Capital Trust III (the "TruPS"), Riverbank Insurance Center, Inc., the holder of all outstanding Class A units (the "Insurance Agency Units") of Central Insurance Agency, LLC ("Insurance Agency Owner") and John M. Morrison, an individual with common control over Shareholder, TruPS Holder and Insurance Agency Owner (“Morrison”). Among other things, pursuant to the terms Shareholder Agreement: (1) MidWestOne will acquire the Insurance Agency Units, representing 75% of the outstanding units of Central Insurance Agency, LLC, for $2.6 million at or prior to the closing of the Merger; (2) Shareholder will take all lawful action necessary to approve the Merger Agreement by written consent within five days of executing the Shareholder Agreement; (3) MidWestOne will purchase, within two years of the effective time of the Merger, the TruPS from TruPS Holder for aggregate consideration equal to the liquidation amount of the TruPS plus accumulated and unpaid distributions through the date of purchase, and pay TruPS Holder certain quarterly premiums from the effective time of the Merger until such time as MidWestOne shall have purchased the TruPS; (4)

Shareholder, Insurance Agency Owner, TruPS Holder and Morrison are subject to certain customary “standstill” provisions and a requirement that such parties vote their shares of MidWestOne Common Stock in accordance with the terms of the Shareholder Agreement with respect to various matters for certain periods of time; (5) Shareholder and Morrison are entitled to certain preemptive rights with respect to MidWestOne securities; (6) Shareholder, Insurance Agency Owner, TruPS Holder and Morrison are subject to a general prohibition on the sale or transfer of shares of MidWestOne Common Stock until the first anniversary of the effective time of the Merger; (7) MidWestOne is generally entitled to a right of first refusal in the event that any of Shareholder, Insurance Agency Owner, TruPS Holder and Morrison desire to sell shares of MidWestOne Common Stock following the effective time of the Merger; and (8) Shareholder is entitled to certain customary registration rights relating to the shares of MidWestOne Common Stock it receives in conjunction with the Merger.

The foregoing descriptions of the Merger Agreement and Shareholder Agreement do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entireties by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement and Shareholder Agreement, which are attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and 99.1, respectively, and are incorporated herein by reference.

The representations, warranties and covenants of each party set forth in the Merger Agreement and Shareholder Agreement have been made only for purposes of, and were and are solely for the benefit of the parties to, the Merger Agreement and Shareholder Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement and Shareholder Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Accordingly, the representations and warranties may not describe the actual state of affairs at the date they were made or at any other time, and investors should not rely on them as statements of fact. In addition, such representations and warranties (1) will not survive consummation of the Merger, unless otherwise specified therein, and (2) were made only as of the date of the Merger Agreement and Shareholder Agreement or such other date as is specified in the Merger Agreement or Shareholder Agreement. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement and Shareholder Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the parties’ public disclosures. Accordingly, the Merger Agreement and Shareholder Agreement are included with this filing only to provide investors with information regarding the terms thereof, and not to provide investors with any other factual information regarding the parties or such agreements, their respective affiliates or their respective businesses.
