On January 8, 2018, the company issued the following press release.

Artisanal Brands, Inc. (OTCQB:AHFP) has entered into a transitional operating agreement with its current licensee effective January 1, 2018. This agreement will start Artisanal's transition into its expansion plan as a direct-to-consumer business focused on its online business and select cheese shop & cafes that will serve as regional shipping hubs. The natural and specialty cheese category is expected to exceed $19 billion this year and Artisanal is seeking to drive greater scale in its online business and new retail outlets by offering reduced shipping rates for overnight deliveries of finest quality cave-aged cheeses sold online at www.artisanalcheese.com.

The company's senior lender has agreed to provide the financing needed during the transition period while the company continues to complete a new equity offering to fund the establishment of the 1st retail location. The short-term transition funding plan contemplates the recapitalization of the company's early-stage loans and conversion of its Series A preferred stock subject to shareholder approval.

Artisanal plans to use RBSM, LLC again as its outside independent auditors and will become a fully-reporting SEC filer in 2018.

The company has initiated a site selection plan and has located a property in midtown Manhattan for its first outlet targeted for Spring, 2018 subject to the closure of its funding plans.
