Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

Amendments to Articles of Incorporation

Trustmark Corporation (Trustmark) held its annual shareholders' meeting (Annual Meeting) on April 26, 2016. Five proposals were submitted to Trustmark's shareholders, including two proposals to amend Trustmark's articles of incorporation (to require majority voting in uncontested director elections and to eliminate cumulative voting in director elections), which are described in detail in Trustmark's proxy statement for the Annual Meeting filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 14, 2016 (Proxy Statement). These amendments to the articles of incorporation were approved by Trustmark's shareholders at the Annual Meeting and became effective on April 28, 2016.

In addition to the amendments to the articles of incorporation that the shareholders approved at the Annual Meeting, on April 26, 2016, the Board of Directors of Trustmark (Board) approved further amendments to the articles of incorporation that did not require shareholder approval under Mississippi law and also restated the articles of incorporation to consolidate all prior amendments into one document, all of which became effective April 28, 2016.

Below is a brief description of the substantive amendments that were made to Trustmark's articles of incorporation that did not require shareholder approval.

1. The Certificate of Designations for the Fixed Rate Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, Series A, all shares of which have been previously acquired, redeemed and cancelled by Trustmark, was deleted in its entirety.
2. Article Second was amended to change the duration of Trustmark from 99 years to a perpetual duration.
3. Article Seventh was amended to update the registered agent information.
4. Article Eighth was amended to remove references to the initial directors of Trustmark.

Certain additional nonsubstantive amendments were also made to the restated articles of incorporation.

The full text of Trustmark's restated articles of incorporation is attached as Exhibit 3.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

Amendments to Bylaws

Additionally, on April 28, 2016, upon effectiveness of the amendments to the articles of incorporation described above, an amendment and restatement of Trustmark's bylaws became effective. Below is a brief description of the substantive amendments that were made to Trustmark's bylaws.

1. Paragraphs 7 and 9 of Article II and Paragraph 3 of Article III were amended to eliminate cumulative voting in the election of directors.
2. Paragraph 9 of Article II was amended to provide for majority voting in uncontested director elections; provided that nominees for director will continue to be elected by plurality voting in contested director elections.
3. Paragraph 9 of Article II was amended to provide that if a nominee who is an incumbent director is not elected at a shareholder meeting and no successor has been elected at the same meeting, such director will be required to tender his or her resignation to the Board for the Board's consideration.

Certain additional nonsubstantive amendments were also made to the amended and restated bylaws.

The full text of Trustmark's bylaws, as amended and restated, is attached as Exhibit 3.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
