On June 28, 2018, LGI Homes, Inc. (the “Company”) and the subsidiaries of the Company that guarantee the Company’s obligations under its revolving credit facility (the “Subsidiary Guarantors”) entered into a Purchase Agreement (the “Purchase Agreement”) with Deutsche Bank Securities Inc. and Wells Fargo Securities, LLC, as representatives of the several initial purchasers named therein (collectively, the “Initial Purchasers”), with respect to the issuance and sale by the Company of $300,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its 6.875% Senior Notes due 2026 (the “Notes”) in a private offering to persons reasonably believed to be qualified institutional buyers in the United States pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), and to certain non-U.S. persons in transactions outside the United States pursuant to Regulation S under the Securities Act. The offering of the Notes is expected to close on July 6, 2018, subject to customary closing conditions.

The Purchase Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and agreements of the Company and customary closing conditions, obligations of the parties and termination provisions. Under the terms of the Purchase Agreement, the Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors have agreed, among other things, to indemnify the Initial Purchasers against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, or contribute to payments that the Initial Purchasers may be required to make in respect of those liabilities.

The Company expects to receive net proceeds from the offering of the Notes of approximately $296.3 million, after deducting the Initial Purchasers’ discounts and commissions. The Company intends to use the net proceeds from the offering to repay a portion of the borrowings under its revolving credit facility.
