Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers, Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On June 10, 2016, Cumberland Pharmaceuticals Inc. (the "Company") announced addition of Caroline Young to its Board of Directors. Caroline is the prior President of the Nashville Health Care Council and founding Executive Director of the Tennessee Biotechnology Association. Caroline's appointment to Cumberland's Board will be effective September 13, 2016.

Caroline was the President of the Nashville Health Care Council from 2008 to 2015. The Council was formed as an association of the largest concentration of healthcare companies in the U.S., which are headquartered in the Nashville area. It is one of the nation's foremost health care industry associations, and under Caroline's leadership, membership grew to encompass 300 diverse organizations. There, she oversaw a series of international trade missions and launched one-of-a-kind Health Care Council Fellows program, designed to encompass the healthcare perspective and further develop the skills of senior business executives. Additionally, she expanded the Council's innovative Leadership Health Care program, dedicated to nurturing the talents of the next generation of health care industry leaders.

Prior to the Council, Caroline was the founding Executive Director of Tennessee Biotechnology Association (now Life Science Tennessee) from 2002 to 2004. She also served in communications roles for the State of Tennessee's Department of Economic and Community Development from 1998 to 2002.

Currently, Caroline is the Executive Director of NashvilleHealth, an initiative focused on improving the health of citizens of the metropolitan Nashville area of Tennessee. NashvilleHealth was founded by former U.S. Senate Majority Leader Bill Frist with the support from the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation. Caroline has been recognized by the Nashville Business Journal as a "Healthcare Hero," and the Nashville Medical News as a "Woman to Watch." Caroline has also served on numerous community and charitable boards. She is presently on the board of the Center for Non-Profit Management and serves on the Advisory Board of the Washington, DC-based Woman Business Leaders of the U.S. Healthcare Industry.
