Item 7.01.

Regulation FD Disclosure.

As previously disclosed, on March 13, 2016 six members of the board of directors (the “Board”) of Insignia Systems, Inc. (the “Company”) delivered a letter to Nicholas J. Swenson, stating their personal view as directors of the Company that it would be in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders for Mr. Swenson to resign as a director of the Company.

During the period following the delivery of that letter, Mr. Swenson’s conduct toward each and every other member of the Board, both in the boardroom and elsewhere, has remained consistently destructive. Mr. Swenson’s interactions with Company management, employees and other members of the Board carry a high potential for interfering with management’s conduct of its duties and regularly disrupt the established processes and deliberations of the Board and its committees. It is the Board’s belief that Mr. Swenson’s continued service as a director of the Company conflicts with the best interests of the Company’s employees and its shareholders.

On August 10, 2016, the Board passed a resolution stating its determination that it is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders for Mr. Swenson to submit his resignation as a director of the Company, effective immediately. In connection with that action, five of the six members of the Board delivered a letter to Mr. Swenson, the text of which is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this current report on Form 8-K.
