Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

On November 25, 2008 we issued a press release reporting our sales and operating results for our third quarter and nine months ended November 1, 2008 and providing an updated outlook for our fourth quarter ending January 31, 2009. A copy of the press release has been separately filed with the Securities and Exchange commission on a Form 8-K dated and filed November 25, 2008.

In connection with the release, we hosted our third quarter earnings conference call on November 25, 2008. A transcript of our prepared conference call remarks is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this report.

A copy of the press release, a copy of the transcript of prepared conference call remarks, and certain other financial and statistical information is also available on our corporate website, at <http://phx.corporate-ir.net/phoenix.zhtml?c=106124&p=irol-audioArchives>. An audio rebroadcast of the conference call is accessible at <http://phx.corporate-ir.net/phoenix.zhtml?c=106124&p=irol-audioArchives>.

The conference call transcript contains certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 concerning appointments of executives, our operations, performance, and financial condition, and our plans relating to cost reductions, store closings, and merchandise strategy. Such forward-looking statements are subject to various risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated. Such risks and uncertainties may include, but are not limited to: the failure to find a suitable permanent replacement for the Company's former Chief Executive Officer within a reasonable time period, the failure to consummate our identified strategic solution for our other non-core assets, the failure to effectively implement our planned consolidation, cost and capital budget reduction plans and store closing plans, the failure to implement the Company's business plan for increased profitability and growth in the Company's retail stores and direct-to-consumer segments, the failure to effectively implement the Company's plans for a new organizational structure and enhancements in the Company's merchandise and marketing, the failure to effectively implement the Company's plans for the transformation of its brands to a vertical specialty store model, the failure to achieve increased profitability through the adoption by the Company's brands of a vertical specialty store model, the failure to achieve improvement in the Company's competitive position, the failure to continue receiving financing at an affordable cost through the availability of our credit card securitization facilities and through the availability of credit we receive from our suppliers and their agents, the failure to maintain efficient and uninterrupted order-taking and fulfillment in our direct-to-consumer business, changes in or miscalculation of fashion trends, extreme or unseasonable weather conditions, economic downturns, escalation of energy costs, a weakness in overall consumer demand, the failure to find suitable store locations, increases in wage rates, the ability to hire and train associates, trade and security restrictions and political or financial instability in countries where goods are manufactured, the interruption of merchandise flow from the Company's centralized distribution facilities, competitive pressures, and the adverse effects of natural disasters, war, acts of terrorism or threats of either, or other armed conflict, on the United States and international economies. These, and other risks and uncertainties, are detailed in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended February 2, 2008, our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and other Company filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Charming Shoppes assumes no duty to update or revise its forward-looking statements even if experience or future changes make it clear that any projected results expressed or implied therein will not be realized.

In accordance with general instruction B.2 to Form 8-K, the information included in this Item 7.01 and the attached Exhibit 99.1 shall be deemed to be "furnished" and shall not be deemed to be "filed" with the Securities and Exchange Commission for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.
