Arthur M. Evans Appointed Chief Financial Officer

On November 15, 2005, Arthur M. Evans was appointed chief financial officer of Tri-Valley Corporation.

From 2000 through 2005, Mr. Evans (age 57) has been self-employed as a business consultant to clients in the energy, construction, waste management and other industries. He has more than twelve years' experience in the oil and gas and mining industries working for both Fortune 500 and independent companies. Mr. Evans' education includes a B.S. in business administration from Weber State University, an M.B.A. in finance from Golden Gate University and an M.S. in Systems Management from the University of Southern California. He is a certified public accountant, certified management consultant and certified financial manager.

Mr. Evans succeeds Thomas J. Cunningham, who was promoted to chief administrative officer and vice president. Mr. Cunningham retains his offices of secretary and treasurer of Tri-Valley.

Resignation of Director C. Chase Hoffman

On November 17, 2005, C. Chase Hoffman, 82, resigned from the Board of Directors of Tri-Valley Corporation and its subsidiary, Tri-Valley Oil & Gas Co., due to health reasons, which prevent his further participation in director duties. He also resigned as chairman of the committee on personnel and compensation. Mr. Hoffman joined the board in 2000 and served vigorously during his tenure, representing the shareholders as the regulatory matrix intensified under the recently enacted Sarbanes-Oxley Act. Subsequent to his resignation, Mr. Hoffman passed away on November 18, 2005.
