FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
January 26, 2005

WESTAMERICA MERGER APPLICATION APPROVED BY FEDERAL RESERVE

San Rafael, CA: Westamerica Bancorporation (NASDAQ: WABC) and Redwood Empire Bancorp (NASDAQ: REBC) signed a definitive agreement August 25, 2004 under which Westamerica Bancorporation will acquire Redwood Empire Bancorp, parent company of National Bank of the Redwoods. Redwood Empire Bancorp announced December 15, 2004 its shareholders approved the merger with Westamerica Bancorporation. Pursuant to the terms of the definitive agreement, Westamerica filed a customary merger application with the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System ("FRB"). Today, the FRB approved Westamerica's merger application subject to Westamerica's divestiture of approximately $43 million in deposits domiciled in Lake County.

The definitive agreement provides an adjustment to the merger consideration to be paid Redwood shareholders if such a divestiture is required. For a divestiture of over $30 million in deposits, the consideration paid to Redwood Empire Bancorp shareholders is reduced by $0.30 to approximately $28.44 per share, consisting of $11.37 in cash and shares of Westamerica common stock valued at approximately $17.07. The Westamerica Bancorporation common stock to be received by Redwood Empire Bancorp shareholders is subject to a formula based on the average closing price of Westamerica Bancorporation common stock as traded on the NASDAQ during the 20-trading days ending two days prior to the effective date of the merger. If the 20-trading day average price is not less than $45.4950 and not more than $55.6050, Redwood Empire Bancorp shareholders will receive Westamerica Bancorporation common stock valued at approximately $17.07, as determined due to the required deposit divestiture. However, if the 20-trading day average price is less than $45.4950 or more than $55.6050, the Westamerica Bancorporation common stock received is subject to further adjustment according to the terms of the definitive agreement. For example, the average closing price of Westamerica Bancorporation common stock for the 20-trading days ending January 26, 2005 is $56.33. While the ultimate average price will not be determined until the effective date of the merger, assuming an average price of $56.33 and the required divestiture of over $30 million Lake County deposits, Redwood Empire Bancorp shareholders would receive Westamerica Bancorporation common stock valued at approximately $17.29 plus cash of $11.27 for total consideration of $28.56 for each share of Redwood Empire Bancorp. The closing price of Westamerica common stock on January 26, 2005 was $53.14.

The merger will result in the issuance of approximately 1.55 million new shares of Westamerica common stock, and payment of cash of approximately $56 million. At December 31, 2004, Westamerica had approximately 31.6 million shares outstanding and Redwood Empire Bancorp had approximately 5.0 million shares outstanding. Although the parties have not adopted any formal timetable, the FRB's approval allows completion of the merger no sooner than 15 days but no later than three months from the date of approval.

In addition to FRB approval, the merger is subject to approval by the

Edgar Filing: WESTAMERICA BANCORPORATION - Form 8-K

Department of Financial Institutions ("DFI") under the California Financial Code. Westamerica has filed a merger application with the DFI.

The agreement is subject to certain other terms and conditions, as described in Westamerica Bancorporation's Form S-4 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on October 15, 2004, and available at <http://www.sec.gov/Archives/edgar/data/311094/000095013404015085/0000950134-04-015085-index.htm>

Westamerica Bancorporation through its wholly owned subsidiary, Westamerica Bank, operates 87 branches and two trust offices throughout 22 Northern and Central California counties. Westamerica's assets at December 31, 2004 were approximately $4.7 billion.
