PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why the Form 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR or the transition report or portion thereof could not be filed within the prescribed time period. (Attach extra sheets if needed.)

The Company is in the process of negotiating and finalizing certain agreements with its senior and subordinated lenders. This has delayed the completion of the Company's financial statements and management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations for the year ending December 31, 2000.

PART IV

If the answer is no, identify report(s).

[X] Yes [] No

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

[X] Yes [] No

Edgar Filing: PSC INC - Form NT 10-K

If so: attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Results of operations for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2000 are significantly lower than the same period in 1999 for several reasons. The Company reflected a $20.7 million income tax provision primarily due to a valuation allowance which was recorded in 2000 to fully reserve the Company's deferred tax assets. In connection with a plan to consolidate its Webster, New York operations with its Eugene, Oregon operations, the Company recognized an $8.5 million loss on asset write-downs related primarily to the anticipated sale of its Webster, New York facility, and $2.6 million in severance costs. Also, incremental costs of approximately $9.0 million were incurred, in addition to $1.5 million of severance costs, in connection with two acquisitions that were completed in December 1999 and January 2000. Goodwill amortization and interest expense also increased in 2000 by approximately $4.7 million and $6.6 million, respectively, primarily due to the acquisitions referenced above. The Company also recorded $7.3 million in inventory reserves/write-offs during 2000, and incurred $1.0 million of costs connected with merger related activities that were terminated prior to completion. Additionally, certain account balances could be impacted by the finalization of negotiations with the senior and subordinated lenders as described in part III above.
