(d) Subsequent to the mailing of proxy materials for our Annual Meeting on February 8, 2011, the SEC adopted final rules pertaining to advisory votes by shareholders regarding (a) approval of executive compensation ("say-on-pay"), (b) the frequency of votes for approval of executive compensation ("say-when-on-pay"), and (c) approval of golden parachute compensation, the last of which would be applicable only in connection with a merger or sale of a registrant. See Exchange Act Release 34-63768 (the "Adopting Release"), adopting new Rule 14a-21 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and amending certain other regulations.

In the Adopting Release, the SEC provided approximately two years of temporary relief to smaller reporting companies, like CSP Inc., from compliance with the provisions of the say-on-pay and say-when-on-pay regulations (but not the advisory vote on golden parachute compensation, which was not applicable to CSP Inc. in any event).

Accordingly, as provided in the Adopting Release, we are not required to comply with the say-on-pay and say-when-on-pay regulations until our first Annual Meeting on or after January 21, 2013. At that Annual Meeting, we currently anticipate that we would seek advisory shareholder votes regarding approval of executive compensation and the frequency of votes for approval of executive compensation, and we will subsequently disclose in Form 8-K our decision about how frequently we will conduct shareholder advisory votes on the compensation of executives.
