Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

(e) On January 25, 2010, the Compensation and Benefits Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors of American Express Company (the “Company”) approved increases to the annual base salaries (effective February 1, 2010) of the following “named executive officers” (as determined by reference to the Company’s proxy statement in respect of its 2009 annual meeting of shareholders):

- The base salary of Kenneth I. Chenault, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, has been increased from $1,250,000 per annum to $2,000,000 per annum;
- The base salary of Edward P. Gilligan, Vice Chairman of the Company, has been increased from $1,100,000 per annum to $1,450,000 per annum;
- The base salary of Stephen J. Squeri, Group President – Global Services and Chief Information Officer of the Company, has been increased from $750,000 per annum to $1,000,000 per annum; and
- The base salary of Daniel T. Henry, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company, has been increased from $700,000 per annum to $850,000 per annum.

The increases in base salary reflect the Committee’s review of the Company’s executive compensation program. The Committee approved a shift in compensation mix by increasing base salary, while reducing the aggregate compensation that generally could be earned through annual incentive awards and the Company’s cash-based portfolio grant program. The Company’s overall executive compensation program for named executive officers continues to be weighted toward longer-term incentives, particularly stock-based awards.
