Kansas City Southern Clarifies Its Position Concerning Stock Offering

In response to numerous inquiries, Kansas City Southern Industries announced today that it has not ruled out going forward with a previously announced offering of its common stock should the Company determine that market conditions are appropriate. The spokesman for the Company, William H. Galligan, stated that "Kansas City Southern is considering a number of alternatives, including the stock offering, keeping in mind the best interests of our shareholders." Mr. Galligan added, "the Company does not expect to make a mandatory convertible unit offering in the foreseeable future."

The common stock offering, if any, will be made only pursuant to a registration statement filed under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. This press release shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of any offer to buy any securities. This press release includes forward-looking statements concerning potential future events involving the Company, which could materially differ from the events that actually occur. The Company will not update or revise any forward-looking statements in this press release.
