3 - Year Facility	$1,500		$180		$-		$1,320

Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws

Effective February 12, 2007, Entergy Corporation's Board of Directors approved amendments to its Bylaws, which, among other things, provide for a majority voting standard in uncontested elections of directors. The following summary of the amendments to the Bylaws does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the amended and restated By-laws filed as Exhibit 3(i) and incorporated by reference herein:

- Section 3 of Article III was amended to provide that each director of the Company shall be elected by the vote of a majority of the votes cast with respect to such director at any meeting for the election of directors at which a quorum is present; provided, however, that if the number of nominees for any election of directors nominated (i) by the Board of Directors, (ii) any stockholder or (iii) a combination of nominees by the Board of Directors and any stockholder exceeds the number of directors to be elected (a "Contested Election"), the nominees receiving a plurality of the votes cast by holders of shares entitled to vote at any meeting for the election of directors at which a quorum is present will be elected.
- Section 7 of Article III was added to provide that any newly created directorship or any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors for any reason may be filled by a majority of the remaining directors (excluding any director elected by any class or series of preferred stock), although less than a quorum, or by a majority of the votes cast in the election of directors at a meeting of stockholders.

Certain technical and conforming amendments were also made to the By-laws. The By-law amendments are effective as of February 12, 2007. A complete copy of the By-laws, as amended, is attached as Exhibit 3(i) and incorporated by reference herein.
