The Company is unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 29, 2007 within the prescribed time for the reasons described below. During and following the end of the third quarter period for 2007 Presstek conducted a review of worldwide inventory (including a review of excess and obsolete inventory), worldwide receivables, and certain European revenue recognition practices, as well as an investigation into certain European business practices. The Company also conducted a comprehensive internal audit of its European operations and reviewed internal controls as it relates to these issues during this period. These reviews and investigation have been concluded, however these matters resulted in a delayed filing of the Interim Report on Form 10-Q for the third quarter period ending September 29, 2007, which was filed on February 15, 2008. As a result of the late filing of the Interim Report on Form 10-Q for the third quarter period ending September 29, 2007, the Company has been delayed in the closing of the ledgers and related audit for the annual period ending December 29, 2007.

The Company intends to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K, as soon as practicable following completion of the Q4 2007 financial close and 2007 audit.

The Company expects to report a net loss for 2007, as compared to Net income of $9.7 million during the prior fiscal period. The Company recorded a reversal of a tax allowance in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2006, resulting in a tax benefit of approximately $10.6 million for the fiscal period ending December 30, 2006. The Company does not anticipate a similar tax benefit for 2007. In addition the Company recorded approximately $5.5 million in fiscal 2007 of inventory related charges relating primarily to changes in key product strategies. Other significant differences between the fiscal 2006 and fiscal 2007 operating results are primarily attributable to stock compensation, legal fees and professional fees.

Based on the delayed review of financial results of the fourth quarter 2007, the Company is unable to provide any further detailed information relating to the significant differences from the fiscal year ended December 30, 2006.
