Changing Government Policies Affecting ManTech's MSM Personnel Security Investigations Business Expected to Cause Additional Loss in Subsidiary

FAIRFAX, Virginia, July 19, 2004 ManTech International Corporation (Nasdaq: MANT), a leading provider of innovative technologies and solutions focused on mission-critical national security programs for the Department of Defense, Intelligence Community, the Department of State, the Department of Justice, Department of Homeland Security, and other federal government customers, announced today that due to changing government policies affecting its MSM personnel security investigation (PSI) business, it is expecting to report an additional loss in this subsidiary, which is expected to result in a loss for the Company for the second quarter. Consequently, ManTech is unable to reconfirm its second quarter and fiscal year 2004 revenue and earnings guidance provided on May 26, 2004.

The Company expects to announce its second quarter 2004 financial results by August 9, 2004, and will follow this announcement with a conference call to provide additional information details regarding date, time and call-in number to be provided later.

About ManTech International Corporation:

Headquartered in Fairfax, Virginia, ManTech International Corporation is a leading provider of innovative technologies and solutions for mission-critical national security programs for the Department of Defense, the Intelligence Community, the Department of State, the Department of Justice, the Department of Homeland Security and other U.S. federal government customers. The company's expertise includes software development, enterprise security architecture, information assurance, intelligence operations support, network and critical infrastructure protection, information technology, communications integration and engineering support. The company supports the advanced telecommunications systems that are used in Operation Iraqi Freedom and in other parts of the world; provides the physical and cyber security to protect U.S. embassies all over the world; has developed a secure, collaborative communications system for the U.S. Department of Homeland Security; and is helping the Department of Justice's U.S. Marshall Service deploy a common, office automation system. With annual revenues in excess of $700 million and more than 5,300 highly qualified employees and several thousand consultants, the company operates in the United States and more than 30 countries worldwide. ManTech was selected by Business Week magazine as one of the Top 100 Hot Growth Companies for 2004.
